TROOPS CALLED OUT IN LISBON

Political Riots Thrill Portuguese Capital. Democrats Try to Take Conservative Leader. Three Bishops Are Jailed.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH] LISBON, via frontier, Dec. 25.—A political situation arising from the deadlock of the conservatives and the democrats is rapidly developing. The conservative element predominates in the cabinet while nearly half the members of the Portuguese parliament are democrats. Both parties are endeavoring to organize a coup d'etat. The conservative chief, Dr. Almeida, was hastily summoned back from Switzerland and on his arrival here made the occasion for a monster demonstration on the part of the conservatives. The democrats replied with an equally imposing counter demonstration. The government, alarmed at the possibility of trouble, turned out all the available police and troops. As soon as the steamer, aboard which Dr. Almeida, was a passenger, was docked there was a tremendous uproar of cheers and groans during which the democrats made a determined dash with the object of capturing the leader of the rival party. A riot ensued and Dr. Almeida was extricated from a perilous position by cavalry which charged through the mob and sent home in an automobile under a military escort. The baffled democrats paraded the streets for hours. The troops are constantly under arms. The president of the republic has asked the premier to pardon the Archbishop of Braga and bishops of Portiagua and Lamego, who were condemned last February to three years banishment. A request was made to grant amnesty to political prisoners, or at least relax the severity of their punishment, but the premier has replied that the moment is not favorable for granting the pardons. Improvement of the prisons he added has already been decided upon and will shortly be carried into effect.

PICKETT SAYS HIS LIFE WAS THREATENED

Southern Pacific Conductor Kills Stranger in Rooming House.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH] FRESNO, Dec. 25.—That the stranger, presumably of the name of John J. Morris, killed at an early hour this morning by Southern Pacific Conductor C. N. Pickett, had threatened Pickett with the words "If I had a gun, I would kill you" was the testimony given the police today by John Amick, a mechanic working for the Yosemite Lumber company, at El Portal, who occupied a room just across the hall from the room where the homicide took place. "No one has been able to identify the dead man. On further examination by the police, Pickett admitted the man might have used the words, "If I had a gun, I would kill you" in addition to a direct threat. Among the papers found on the man are letters addressed to John J. Morris, care of Walker's Cafe, Sacramento, and forwarded from there to Bakersfield. The body has been tattooed on the left arm the letters "J. S." Mrs. Pickett arrived from Stockton today to be with her husband at the inquest to take place at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

A PRETTY CALENDAR—Probably one of the prettiest calendars given out for 1913 in Phoenix is that of Boehmer's Drug Store. These exquisitely decorated "daters" are examples of the most modern creations of the artist's brush and the printer's art. They are a credit to the house that produced them and a year long remembrance from the up to date house distributing them, altogether worthy of preservation.

JURY WILL SOON HAVE THE DYNAMITE CASE

Expected That Arguments Will be Concluded Today.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH] INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 25.—The case of the forty union officials accused of promoting the McNamara dynamiting plots in the Iron Worker's strike against their employers of non-union labor will go to the jury within thirty-six hours and possibly sooner. At the close of the argument tomorrow night on Friday morning, Federal Judge Anderson will instruct the jury. It is understood the court's outline of the law as to what testimony shall be applied to certain defendants will require more than an hour. The jury will be asked to return a separate verdict for each defendant and it is believed that these verdicts will not be returned in less than a day. There are twenty-six counts against each of the defendants, twenty-five of which provide a maximum imprisonment of two years. The government contends that the penalties for the offenses charged are cumulative in the discretion court or a total possible penalty of thirty-nine and one-half years.

BOB'S BLITZEN BENZ BURNS

Burman Drives Sensational Mile and Finishes By Pushing Flaming Car Into Pacific Ocean; Accident Seen By Thousands.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH] SAN DIEGO, Dec. 25.—Flying down the Pacific beach at terrific speed today, Bob Burman, with his 300 horsepower Blitzen Benz, wrapped in flames, climbed from his seat and using his foot to push back the brake, so as to stop the car, leaped out in front of the grandstand and pushed the car into the ocean to smother the fire. A broken gasoline line flooded the part of the car and the muffler ignited the damage to the car was heavy. Burman drove a sensational mile in the remarkable time of 28 flat. Poor pressure on the gasoline cost him several seconds, so that he made another trial. His flight towards the finish was spectacular. He was crossing the half-mile tape when a great burst of flame appeared and then with the car fully developed and careening wildly, Burman was seen to stand up in his seat to avoid it. He was badly burned while driving at full speed. Gradually he brought the car to a stop right in front of the grand stand where he pushed the machine into the water.

WEDDING CONVERTED INTO DOUBLE TRAGEDY

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH] SPRINGFIELD, Dec. 25.—A Christmas wedding ceremony at Taylorville, Ill., 36 miles east of here today was converted into a tragedy with two persons at the point of death.

John Belder, a carpenter, shot his mother-in-law, Mrs. Emma Fisher, 68 years old, and battled with the Taylorville police. He was cornered and caught by a ruse. When captured it was found that Belder had been shot near the heart by one of the officers. Mrs. Fisher and Belder will die. Belder is said to have been drinking and went to the home of Mrs. Fisher where his relatives were gathered for the wedding of his step daughter, Elsie Bates to Ora Berfer. He followed the pastor into the home, drew a revolver and began firing, at his wife who escaped. Then he shot through the door in Mrs. Fisher's room, the bullet taking effect in the woman's abdomen. Going to the room occupied by Mrs. Fisher, Belder fired six times through the door. She finally managed to crawl out of the window and escaped to the home of Dr. A. F. Turner. She was taken to one of the Taylorville hospitals. After shooting Mrs. Fisher, he went to the room in which Miss Bates and Berfer had taken refuge and fired five shots, none of which took effect. In the meantime, the police had been notified and rushed to the scene. Belder came to the door and fired five shots at the officers but none were effective. A deputy returned the fire. The bridal couple climbed out of the window and retreated to the home of a neighbor. While they were retreating from the house, Belder reappeared at the door and reopened fire on the officers, who replied. One of the bullets fired during this part of the fight is thought to have been the one that took effect as Belder retreated into the residence. B. C. Kearns, a neighbor slipping into the house, found that Belder was wounded, but heavily armed and preparing to make a finish fight. Kearns affected a capture by pretending to come to assist Belder.

DEMOS TO CAUCUS ON COMMITTEE CHAIRMAN

Several Important Committee Heads to Be Chosen

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH] WASHINGTON, Dec. 25.—The committee assignments in the House of Representatives made necessary by the change in membership will be considered in the Democratic caucus which has been called for January 1. The chairmanship of the committee on foreign affairs made vacant by election of Representative William Sulzer as governor of New York, is one of the important places to be filled. It is probable the place will go to Representative Flood of Virginia who is at present acting chairman of the committee. To succeed former Representative Hughes of New Jersey on the Ways and Means committee Representative Ansberry of Ohio is said to have been selected. Of the republican assignments, Representative Green of Vermont is slated for Claims and Pension committee; Merritt of New York, on the Immigration and Naturalization and Education committee; and Representative Scott of Iowa on Coins, Weights Measures and Reforms on the Civil Service. Besides these the caucuses will award the chairmanship of the committee on Public Laws, a contest for which is on between Representative Ferris of Oklahoma and Representative Graham of Illinois. The outgoing chairman is governor-elect Robinson of Arkansas, whose inauguration, if Governor-elect Cox of Ohio, members appropriation committee will not take place until later in the month. There are a number of candidates for the Cox vacancy on appropriation committee.

SOME PRESENTS TO PRISONERS

Governor of Oregon Sends Paroles to Three; Incurable Gets Pardon and Woman Bigamist Gets Presents.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH] SALEM, Ore., Dec. 25.—Paroles from Governor West were the Christmas presents received by James Riley and Frank Nash. As long as their behavior is good they will enjoy liberty. Riley was serving from one to fifteen years for killing Louis Long, a former prize fighter in California, near Redmond, Crook county. Long was eloping with Riley's wife in an automobile and after a whirlwind race was overtaken and killed by Riley. It is understood Riley and his wife are reconciled and will live together. Nash was serving a term for larceny. Several other prisoners were given their liberty on probation.

Christmas Reforms Bay Boy. SACRAMENTO, Dec. 25.—As a result of an appealing letter sent by his mother, Raymond Enneking, seventeen years old, from Dayton, Ohio, who is passing Christmas in the county jail at Woodland, promised to reform and return home. He is an incurable, the boy was visibly affected by the receipt of the message on Christmas day.

Strange Xmas Gifts. MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 25.—If Charles D. Brown and Lulu M. Pierce tried to name the persons least likely to send them Christmas gifts it is doubtful if their imaginations would have proved vivid enough to hit the truth. Charles D. Brown, who arrested and furnished evidence against Governor Riley, now serving a five years sentence received a handsome prison made came from the convict.

Folsom Man Rejoice. SACRAMENTO, Dec. 25.—For more than four hours today 1,125 convicts confined in Folsom prison were permitted to forget the liberty not theirs and join in a celebration of Christmas. The exercises were featured by a minstrel show and moving pictures. Warden Johnson placed each convict on his honor, from "lifers" to a one year man, and not a felon broke his four hour parole. The order was perfect.

The minstrel show in which exclusively convicts participated, was staged in the large mess hall of the prison. The prison orchestra and a band furnished the music. A few professionals from road companies were also present. The attractions were varied and the convict spectators were permitted to encircle, chat and applaud as they pleased. Rehearsals for the performance have been in progress for several weeks. The performance ended with a grand finale entitled "The Hold Up Rag," which the entire minstrel sang with zest. Songs and parodies made up the contributions to the entertainment. Twenty-two acts including two moving picture made up the program. Among the more prominent features were, a playlet, "A Ghost in a Pawnshop," and "Two Old Time" Favorites in a "Word to the Wise." One of the motion picture reels shown was that of the Johnson-Flynn prize fight. The other depicted a lion hunt in Africa.

Men who had not smiled in months broke out in laughter, strangely meli- low, at witty sallies of fellow convicts on the stage and waited with the eager expectancy of children for the next number. Others, morose and sullen from every day life in the gloomy prison, slapped their neighbors on the back with friendly thumps. Here and there even tears were dropped from strangely softened faces from which the hardened lines had not entirely been dispelled. The Christmas dinner with roast suckling pig as the piece de resistance followed the minstrel show.

TO CONTINUE "AN UPRISING" —At a late hour last night Manager Mullen, of the Wigwam theater received telegraphic permission to continue for two nights longer the presentation of the Lubin film "An Uprising" which pleased audiences yesterday afternoon and evening. This film together with a new bill at the Wigwam tonight makes an entertainment of more than usual interest.

A FINE WAY TO PAY DEBTS.

When a newspaper man of New Orleans was preparing to leave that city in order to take a position in New York, a tailor named Elstein over- whelmed him with offers of new suits of clothes at unusually low prices. The writer finally took the clothes, put them on, and set out for New York, carefully neglecting to pay Mr. Elstein any money at all. A few months later he received this communication from the tailor: Dear Sir: On looking over my books, I find that you are indebted to me in the sum of $50. Kindly remit same at your earliest convenience. Very truly yours, SAMUEL ELSTEINSTEIN. Hurling himself upon his trusty typewriter, the newspaper man wrote the following gem: "Dear Mr. Elstein: Inclosed find my check for $100. If you can get it cashed kindly remit the other $50." HELEN TAFT PRESIDES AT XMAS FUNCTION

In Absence of President at Panama Daughter Does Honors.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH] WASHINGTON, Dec. 25.—Miss Helen Taft, daughter of the president, was the hostess at the White House Xmas celebration today. In the absence of President and Mrs. Taft, she presided over the family dinner tonight and later distributed the gifts from the Christmas tree in the Blue Room, aided by Robert Taft, the elder son of the president. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Herron, of Cincinnati and their five children; Mrs. Thomas Laughlin and two children. Mr. Herron is a brother of Mrs. Taft, while Mrs. Laughlin is a sister. Chas. Taft, the younger son of the president is with his father in Panama. The Christmas tree occupied the center of interest at the White House. Robert and Helen Taft devoted the day to decorating the tree, which is a large one, hanging on it the presents for the children. After the dinner tonight the party gathered in the historic Blue Room, where the Christmas tree celebration took place.

HOME LONGING.

Behind the hills the sun has set, The dusk and dew are falling; Far down the field the milker's voice Floats faint, his late herd calling. Before my weary feet the road In the night is tending; A hush is on my lonely soul— O night, that thou wert ending!

What is it like a benison Into my heart comes stealing? Beside the eots of Christendom The children now are kneeling. Charles Francis Saunders.
