

THE PRIDE OF LOS ANGELES

THE HANDSOME JEWELRY STORE OF

H. J. WHITLEY COMPANY.

THE residents of Los Angeles show, as one of the sights of the town, the palatial Jewelry establishment of H. J. WHITLEY CO., at 111 North Spring St.

The beautiful store is one of the largest and finest in the United States. An idea of the beauty of the store may be had from a souvenir booklet just published by the firm. In this booklet appear the names of Robert Hale, H. J. Whitley, Colonel G. J. Griffith and R. H. E. Variel, as Directors of the Company.

These are all gentlemen of the highest standing in the community, both morally and financially and place behind the firm an unlimited capital as well as a guarantee of the honorable and legitimate manner in which the affairs of the Company are conducted.

THE BOOKLET makes trading by mail easy and pleasant as well as profitable.
