ANOTHER PAIR OF AMERICAN GOLFISTS FALL

Evans and Weber Eliminated and Britain Rejoices—Hopes of United States Dashed in Third Round at Sandwich

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH] SANDWICH, England, May 21.—Charles W. Evans of Chicago and Harold Weber of Toledo, two survivors of the ten American competitors in the British amateur golf championship, were eliminated in the fourth round, and as a consequence there is much jubilation among the followers of the British golf players.

C. B. MacFarlane, the Scotch player who defeated Evans, played better golf today than ever before, and his 21 for the first nine holes broke all records for the course. There was no fault to find with the game as played by the former western open champion, but he was not inspired, and his defeat was inevitable. MacFarlane was five up, and at the turn he was four up, with two to play.

NEW COLE MANAGER PUTS PEP INTO SALES FORCE

G. L. Baxter Takes Charge of DuBois Company—Chase Trucks Being Tried Out Prove Good

Proprietor DuBois of the Cole motor car agency here, has signed G. L. Baxter for the season as sales manager. As a seller of cars, any sort from coal to Cole, Baxter has well over 400 any series in the schedule. He has already taken charge and put a lot of pep into the force. Three of the Chase trucks, which are handled by this concern were placed with local firms the past week. Woodlawn dairy is using one, having replaced Dobbin and the milk wagon. Ninety miles of service every day is the record of the motor milk delivery van.

The Valley Meat company is using one of the light delivery cars, while Bertram Bros. are discarding their motorcycles and taking to and from their electrical jobs with a Chase. Delivery has been made of a new Cole six-cylinder seven-passenger car to Mrs. Clyde M. Perry of this city. Another Cole sale was made to James A. Johnson, the well-known cutthroat. He is going east on an extended trip; will attend the big race at Indianapolis, May 30; meets his car at the factory, and drives it back to Arizona.

SPORT... COMMENT

Phoenix riders who are members of the Federation of American Motorcyclists, the national organization of two-wheelers coordinate with the American Automobile Association, are looking forward with interest to the next presidential campaign. The date the strongest candidates are the present incumbent, Dr. B. J. Patterson, and A. B. Coffman, manager of the Motorcycle Manufacturers' association. The latter has now a campaign slogan is, "A Bigger and Greater F. A. M."

The Coffman campaign slogan is, "A Bigger and Greater F. A. M." The Coffman platform is as follows: "An economical business administration. Efficient officers, working with the cooperation of every member to build up the federation to the highest standard, that will demand just recognition and protection for every rider. A president who will visit affiliated clubs the country over. A larger representative membership. More activity in touring. An elimination of petty jealousies, and a square deal to everyone. My efforts would be exerted along lines to accomplish these results, and I am assured of the right kind of support."

The election takes place at the annual convention in Chicago some time in July. What's the matter with a motorcycle gasoline economy trial? Wonder if the fans will go to Grant park Sunday to see a baseball game, or to see Manager Baum give signals. In either event there is plenty at which to be amused. The Solon manager is finding it different from last year, when he successfully piloted his Tempe lide to victory. Sensational development. No. 2 Frank Chow has found the temper he lost last Sunday. All is not golf that looks like shabby. Not to deprecate the stock of American followers of the great Scotch game, we must call them fair

Correct pronunciation of Ouimet—We-may.

RESIGN OR DIE SAYS BLACK HAND

Mesa Officers' Wives Receive Notice Warning Them of Fate of Marshal If Peterson Designed for Their Husbands

(Special to The Republican.) MESA, Ariz., May 21.—The wives of Constable Burton and Marshal Payton have received letters written in a heavy scrawl with an attempt at printing, warning them that their husbands will be killed if they do not resign. The work is supposed to be some one incensed at the recent activity of the officers in suppressing certain forms of vice which has been permitted to go unmolested for some time.

The letter addressed to Mrs. Burton was as follows: Mrs. BURTON TELL YOUR HUSBAND THAT HE HAD BETTER RESIGN OR WE WILL KILL HIM IN MESA. The letter was addressed: Mrs. Kate Burton, Mesa, A. T.

The letter to the wife of Marshal Payton was along the same line. The only difference being that Mrs. Payton was notified that unless her husband resigned that he would meet the fate of "Hite" Peterson. The matter has been turned over to the civil authorities for further investigation. The postal authorities were first consulted but for the reason that the letters were both sealed they will not take action in the matter for the present. Officer Burton has offered $100 in gold for information as to the party writing the letters.

The matter has caused no little comment in Mesa. The threats following so close upon the heels of the recent raids on a number of places in the city gives rise to the belief that some one has become incensed at the vigilance of the officers. However, so far as is known there is nothing in the clue that has been given out that would lead to this belief.

There are certain clues that refuse to be drawn. The letters themselves afford a certain amount of information according to those working on the case. For instance in the address on the envelope, it was evidently some one well acquainted with the Burtons or else they would not have known Mrs. Burton's first name. Her real name is Katherine, but she has come to be known among her more intimate friends by the appellation of "Kate." Then again, the fact that the letters "A. T." used to designate the state, lead to the assumption that the writer must have been more active several years ago than at the present time and that the habit of writing the initials "A. T." for Arizona Territory became firmly fixed. These two facts would lead to the belief that the writer was probably past middle age or at least not young, and that he was acquainted with the family. The scrawl appears to be a man's handwriting. The body of the note offers a clue, in that it refers that two people interested in warning the wives of the officers. The personal pronoun "we" is used in stating who will do the killing. This may have been used as a subterfuge or again it may not. This much is certain, considerable effort was put forth in making the characters and in that way possibly the sense of the note was somewhat distorted. The small "a" was not attempted in following out the idea of printing the entire note but that letter was invariably written.

The letters were mailed in the Mesa postoffice and were stamped at 4 p. m., Tuesday. The paper on which the letters were written was watermarked "Certificate Bond" and was purchased at the Bressley book store.

CHORAL SOCIETY SINGS BETHANY EXCELLENTLY

Finest Concert Given Rendition By Organization This Year

Trinity Pro-Cathedral stood behind the concert of the Phoenix Choral society last night and the society, under the direction of William Conrad Mills, reciprocated by doing their best work of the season.

The concert was for the purpose of creating a fund for a pipe organ for the new Episcopal cathedral and the vehicle they used was "Bethany," a sacred cantata by Rhys-Herbert and Wm. ApMadoc. It will never rank as one of the great works. It is sweet enough in its music, but one tires of success as a steady diet, it is lacking in variety and badly in need of climaxes but it is too hot for serious criticism.

The work of the society was most pleasing, they sang well and showed marked improvement over anything we have ever heard them do. The voices were better balanced and the ensemble work was good, in some spots excellent.

The work of the orchestra, consisting of Miss Nellie Toasdale, piano; Mrs. Barr and Carl Lindstrom, violins; Albert Wolfe, viola, and A. L. Kyle, bass, was exceptionally good, in fact their work stood out among the most pleasing things of the evening.

Mrs. Frances Redwell, Mrs. H. Z. Barlow, Carl Sargent and A. Monopress Carr did the solo work and pleased the audience greatly.

The society is steadily growing, not only in numbers but in the merit of their work.

MATLAND DAVIES.

PROHIBITION PETITION FILED WITH SECRETARY

At Same Time One From Other Camp Makes Its Appearance

The first petitions in the campaign for state-wide prohibition were filed simultaneously yesterday afternoon with the secretary of state. There are two petitions, one having for its object absolute prohibition of all manufacture, or sale of intoxicating liquors, the other seeking to amend the present local option law to the effect that whenever an election shall be held on the question of prohibition that no other election shall be held on the question of prohibition for a term of eight years, and that the result of any such election shall be in effect for a period of eight years from the time of said election.

The first petition, which was sent in from Pinal county and carries 40 signatures asks for an election on a proposed amendment to the constitution prohibiting the introduction into, manufacture of, giving away, bartering, selling or disposing of ardent spirits, ale, beer, wine or intoxicating liquors. The amendment proposed is sweeping in its scope and is the one drawn up by the temperance forces in the fight to make Arizona dry.

A lengthening of the term during which a vote on the question of prohibition shall have effect, from two to eight years is the object of the second petition which came from Greenlee county, and is signed by 26 voters. It provides that when an election is held on the question of prohibition and any town or precinct which is found to have voted against prohibition the sale and traffic in intoxicating liquors shall not there be prohibited. On the other hand any town or precinct having voted in favor of prohibition shall be "dry" for the next eight years. The two petitions are the first ones filed in the battle between the temperance forces and the liquor interests and while it is not known what other petitions will be presented, it is expected that there will be several important developments in the near future.

CALEDONIANS MEET—The Caledonian society was very pleasantly entertained last evening at a lawn social given at the home of Mrs. A. Davidson at her home at Central avenue and McDowell road. The features of the evening included the Highland fling, as danced by the little daughter of Duncan McDonald, and the piano solo and Scotch songs by Miss Forsythe. A Henderson sang "My Heather Hills," and the inimitable Harry Brodie scored a big hit in his interpretation of Harry Lauder's songs. After appropriate refreshments the party of canny folk disbanded vowing that they had enjoyed a most splendid time.

Manager Jimmy Callahan is reported to be making an effort to induce Harry Lord, Chicago White Sox third baseman and captain, who resigned the other day because he felt himself slipping, to return to the team.

Lord in his day was one of the greatest hitters in the American league and his slugging ability kept him in the game.
