MEXICAN ATTEMPTS TO KILL WIFE WITH AXE

Couple Blessedness Appears to be Better Than Single, But Wife Balks and is Rewarded With Axe

Two wives or none at all, is the plan that Jesus Alcalan is alleged to have attempted to put into effect in the past few days.

Alcalan has for a number of years lived with Refugio Rosales, who is his common law wife. Apparently they have gotten along with only the usual amount of troubles peculiar to the married state, until lately, upon the completion of their new house.

The woman put up the funds to erect the house, but Alcalan drew up the plans, and carefully watched the carrying out of his long cherished dream, which was to have the house divided into compartments, one of which was to serve as the home of Refugio, and the other side was to house another wife, preferably a young and pretty one.

Becoming aware of her husband's plans, to divide his affection, she remonstrated with him, and said words to the effect that "There was nothing doing."

Enraged at the balking of his plans, Alcalan is alleged to have taken an axe and made several passes at the head of his single spouse. She resisted this considerably, and reported the matter to the police who had a warrant sworn out in Justice DeSouza's court. Up to a late hour last night he had not been located, but it was expected that he would fall into the drag net that county officers had out for him.

Walter Woelke, managing editor of the magazine, and known as the best writer of "development" news in the west, is responsible for the article on the valley. Mr. Woelke was here during the celebration, saw the progress the valley had made and reproduced it in enthusiastic words for his publication.

FARM DOCTOR FUNDS NEEDED

Petition to Board of Supervisors Being Circulated and Others Will Be Sent Out Asking Support for Farm Adviser's Office.

The necessity for funds with which to continue maintaining the office of the Maricopa county farm adviser, has made it imperative that something be done, and in order to aid the work, a number of interested men are circulating this petition:

Funds Needed for Farm Adviser
To the Maricopa County Board of Supervisors:
We, the undersigned, farmers and business men of Maricopa county, do hereby petition that the county make financial provision so that our County Farm Adviser may be retained. We understand that the funds amounting to at least $2000 which have been apportioned to Maricopa county by the University of Arizona College of Agriculture, and the U. S. Department of Agriculture for the maintenance of a County Farm Adviser will have to be withdrawn on June 30th unless the county appropriates at least $1000 for the next fiscal year. We have received much benefit from the work of our County Farm Adviser and the other specialists of the University of Arizona Agricultural Extension Service, and believe that this work should be continued for the agricultural development of the county. We, therefore, do petition the Board of Supervisors of Maricopa county to appropriate not less than $1000 for the support of our County Farm Adviser for the fiscal year July 1, 1915 to June 30, 1916, as permitted by law.

A similar petition to the governors and council of the Salt River Valley Water Users' Association is being circulated. Since $2000 from Maricopa county will be needed to maintain the farm advisory work now under way in the valley, and because the state law does not permit the supervisors to appropriate more than $1000 per year for the purpose, it will be necessary to secure $1000 from some other source, if the work is to be continued.

FINANCES AND MARKETS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH]
NEW YORK, May 24.—War developments, and war shares, were almost the sole factors in today's stock market, usual issues and consideration being largely ignored. Italy's entry into the conflict, and Germany's prompt espousal of her principal ally's cause, while exciting no surprise, gave rise to diverse opinions regarding the duration of the struggle and its further effect on material interests of the country. War specialists came to the front with gains of from one to three points, and in less than an hour pointed to a substantial extent. Profit taking and more sober reflection of the foreign situation which caused the speculative element to abstain from fresh commitments, provoked a selling movement before midday, stocks declining three to nine points. Bethlehem Steel was the chief point of weakness. In the final hour there were gradual recoveries, which lifted the list to parity or slightly above last week's final prices. The sudden and unexplained rise of 24 1/2 points in Colorado Fuel was the only enlivening feature. Total sales of stocks amounted to $20,000,000. Domestic news was mainly favorable, including more equipment orders and advices of better business in the

THE BATTLEFIELD OF EUROPE

The Republican Offers You the Greatest of War Books

The London Times History of the War has been written to stand the test of generations. Twenty-eight military, naval, diplomatic and financial experts have contributed in its production—besides dozens of trained writers, editors and war correspondents. Its four hundred illustrations cost thousands of dollars. Its many maps and plans were drawn with the utmost care.

Cost $70,000 to Produce

You must know the real, rock-bottom facts about this tremendous conflict—why it began—what powerful, hidden forces set it in motion—exactly what happened in the early operations that sent the French and English pell-mell in retreat to Paris—what secrets of warfare were locked in the minds of the silent generals. The London Times History of the War will tell you all this—and more. It gives, for the first time, hundreds of important facts about the war that have never before been in print.
