BAILEY FLAYS NEVILLE SAVAGELY

DECLARES HIS SOLE AIM AT PHOENIX HAS BEEN TO MAKE STRIFE.

Between Capital and Labor—Neville's Response Weak—Asylum Declared in Bad Condition by Examining Committee and Change in Management Demanded.

Phoenix, March 14.—The house today witnessed the most sensational encounter that has occurred during the present session of the legislature. In its course Bailey arraigned Neville in the most caustic manner, sparing him at no point, and driving home at frequent intervals thrusts which must have penetrated deep beneath the skin of the Cochise member who has made a record at the present session as a cheap notoriety hunter.

COUNCIL OF WAR SAYS CONTINUE

SUCH SAID TO BE FIRM DECISION OF RUSSIA—MONEY ISSUE

Now the Greatest Obstacle Believed to Have Made Serious Mistake in Not Following of Hand.

(Associated Press Summary.) By delay in pressing his pursuit of Russia's defeated and demoralized army to Tiel Pass, Field Marshal Oyama has afforded General Kuropatkin time to set out disorganized units of his command and restore his forces to a semblance of order.

(Special to Review.) Tombstone, March 14.—A Gator has brought suit in the District Court against the El Capitan Mining Company for debt. Mr. Gator was resident agent of the company in this city for some time, and the company failed to pay him for his services as superintendent. The company is composed of New Orleans people and own a group of several claims just northeast of town.

STABS SOPHOMORES

Two Hurt in Hair-Cutting Fight at University of Michigan.

Ann Arbor, Mich., March 14.—Two sophomores of the University of Michigan are in the university hospital tonight, having been stabbed in a hair-cutting war. Edward Croule, a freshman of Detroit, was caught in the gymnasium this afternoon and shorn of his hair. Six sophomores went after other freshmen, and met a first-year student who refused to submit.

IRISH LOSE VOTE

Government Policy in Reinstating Evicted Tenants Criticized

London, March 14.—Last evening's sitting of the house of commons was occupied by the Irish members complaining of undue delay in the reinstatement of evicted tenants under the land act of 1903. Mr. Atkinson, attorney general for Ireland, who defended the work of the estates commissioners, declared that evicted farms unlet throughout Ireland showed a reduction of 64 per cent since 1894.

DEPORTED MEN WANT HEAVY DAMAGES IN SUIT AGAINST COLORADO

Denver, March 14.—Six claims have been filed against the state by as many citizens of Colorado, who suffered deportation at the hands of General Sherman Bell and the militia during the turmoil last year in the mining camps. They were presented to State Auditor Bent. Each asks for damages in the sum of $5,000.

on the political situation. "We shall not recognize these claims until time has been had for their consideration," said Auditor Bent yesterday. "The matter will be taken up with the Attorney General later, to ascertain if they are legal. I assume that each claim is for $5,000. I only looked over one. They are all in the same position, so far as this office is concerned, as any ordinary bill against the state."

LAWSON AND HEARST ENTER TEXAS FIGHT AGAINST STANDARD OIL

Austin, Texas, March 14.—At present the Texas Legislature is undergoing the scrutiny of representatives of William Randolph Hearst and Thomas W. Lawson. The Hearst interests are represented by C. A. Walsh of Iowa, who was secretary of the National Democratic Committee last year and one of Hearst's men in the South.

Walsh and others to assist Texas in the Beef Trust investigation is in reality an excuse to be on the grounds to lay wires for a big fight on the Standard Oil Company, similar if not more vigorous, than the one just completed in Kansas. That these influences are now on the ground and at work is evidenced by the fact that the oil question will not down. The pipe-line men, who have been fighting with the oil interests all along, got together last week, and it was announced that everything was peaceful.
