

EASTERN MARKETS YESTERDAY

BOSTON, April 8.—The local market opened with a rush of activity and prices were well maintained. Mayflower and Old Colony showed the greatest volume with Old Colony the leader. The buying of this stock was heavy and of good character. It was reported that drill had found the lode but this was later denied by the management. Harte and Superior continue to be accumulated. Superior and Boston were weak on rumor of another assessment. East Butte was very active and strong, closing 15 bid for about 1900 shares. We look for this stock to cross 20. Altogether the market took all the profit taking exceptionally well and is headed for a higher level.

Style in Mourning.

"Spectacular mourning is not so popular as it was some years ago," said the manager of a city department store in answer to an inquiry on that subject. "There is still a large business done in all kinds of mourning goods, but either the somber period has grown shorter or many bereaved persons prefer not to be conspicuous because of their sorrow, for the sale of mourning goods has fallen off. In the stationery department there seems to be no change—in fact, the demand for black-bordered cards and writing paper has increased." To illustrate the quality of some "show mourning" he said: "At a stationery establishment a short time ago a woman in deepest black asked to see samples of dinner dance cards. She selected one and ordered one hundred to be done on black bordered cards, comprising with her conscience by suggesting that the border be not too heavy."

Fish Has Vocal Organs.

Perhaps the most conspicuous example of utterance is the drum-fish, so-called by reason of the deep, booming noise it produces at will. It is found along the Atlantic coast, from Massachusetts to Florida.

Forté.

It was the most exciting moment of one of those midnight rehearsals. Try as he would, Donald Brian, the actor, could not induce the orchestra to play sufficiently loud for a smashing finale. Finally in desperation he called out to the orchestra conductor: "Swell! Vipers, Swell!" Whereat the phlegmatic, unfruffed English conductor stopped the band, turned smilingly to Mr. Brian and said: "Thank you, sir."

Horrible Thought.

Alleged Homicide.—Can you imagine anything worse than a giraffe with a sore throat? Proven One—Sure! A centipede with corns.—Tex as Coyote.

Johnny's Firm Stand.

"The horse is a very useful animal," wrote Johnny in his composition, "but if I can't have my sausage made of pigs' meat I don't want no sausage."
