

RAIL OWNERSHIP BY U. S. OPPOSED

Would Cost Twenty Billions

"2—To acquire the railroads the government would have to pledge its credit for eighteen to twenty billions of dollars at a time when other large financing must be done. It would be difficult for the government to dispose of the securities required to purchase the railroads, and it would be necessary for the government to secure from five hundred million to one billion dollars of new capital each year. If the government were to assume the burden of financing the railroads at the present time, when the war debt is so large, its interest rate would necessarily be as high as, if not higher than, the rate at which corporations could secure capital.

"3—Government operation is seldom, if ever, as efficient as corporation management. Competition, the cause of efficiency and progress in private enterprises, is absent from the government administration of affairs. Individual initiative is less, bureaucratic methods are more characteristic, and the services rendered are less progressively efficient.

"4—While the government would presumably select officers and employ by means of efficiency tests, political influences would almost certainly be given weight in selecting men for official positions.

Either High Rates or High Taxes

"5—Unless the government adopted the policy of fixing low rates and fares, with the intention that any resulting deficit from operations should be placed as increased burden of taxes upon the general public, rates and fares would be higher under government than under private operation. Under government operation expenses rise in relation to income and the charges imposed by the government if a deficit is to be avoided must be higher than those which it would be necessary to permit railroad corporations to make.

Political Effect Unsavoury

"6—The political effect of government ownership and operation of railroads in the United States might be serious. There are now about 500,000 civil employees of the government, and the addition to the public services of 2,000,000 railroad employees, the majority of whom are voters, would constitute a force of about 2,500,000 governmental employees interested in controlling the policy of the government as regards wages, hours and conditions of service. Such a body of employees might easily exercise a controlling influence upon state and national politics."

Special Music For Rev. Smith Meeting

Sam I. Smith is still preaching at the Christian church this week. His theme for this evening will be "Praising God With Our Lips." A special song will be given by the Lyman sisters, Helen and Margerie. The public is invited to these services.

DECIDES ALL ARGUMENTS

You will not need to burden your mind with exact dates of certain great events of the late war. This has all been taken care of in a complete chronology of happenings from the assassination of Archduke Francis Ferdinand on June 28, 1914, up to the end of the awful conflict. It's a day-by-day account with which to settle disputes, and you'll find it in the "New Atlas of the World," which now is being distributed by The Bisbee Daily Review and newsdealers. OUR GREAT DIVIDEND OFFER Extended

GIANT allows you a few days of grace. It is an unusual privilege we extend to you. But we don't want anybody to miss a good thing like this. We offered you stock in the Giant Oil Company first as a pure gamble. It was and is a safe, square-deal chance to bet your loose change on oil. We have let the contract for the dividend for our deep test well on our 3500 acres in the Texas Panhandle, right on the line of extension from Ranzer and Burk Burnett to our neighbor, the 6-million-foot Haggood well. If we get out a few barrels will be worth a fortune. If we don't you can't lose much. We won't let you invest more than $100. You can get this stock now at ten cents a share and we'll pay you the 100 per cent stock dividend. For every share you buy at a time now we'll give you one extra share free. You can buy as little as a dollar's worth. Just send us your spending money. We don't want you to mortgage your house or your salary to buy this stock. A dollar, or five or ten is what you can afford. And it may make you independent. Get your order in quick. Don't miss this chance.

DEPORTATIONS HEARING DULL

ture being offered by the state's witnesses.

Tomorrow's session of court will include the hearings of Frank Rainey, John Salmons and James Glasson.

Hearings set for Thursday, August 7, are those of John Sutherland, Alf Cromer and Harry Anderson.

29 Hearings So Far

The four hearings today brought the total held thus far to twenty-nine. Court officials state that, as some of the hearings occupy but a few minutes and others more than an entire day, it is impossible to estimate how much more time will be needed to complete the hearings of all the men arrested. It is expected that a recess of several weeks will be taken after the group of 51 cases now being considered is completed.

Eight Hour Day For State Work Upheld

PHOENIX, Aug. 5.—Artisans or laborers cannot be compelled to work more than eight hours daily on any work done for the state of Arizona, directly or indirectly, according to an opinion returned today by J. K. McBride, assistant attorney general of Arizona.

The opinion was requested by Hywell Davis, federal labor administrator. Mr. McBride asserted in the opinion that the current local wage, though based on nine or ten hours labor, was the minimum that could be paid workers on state work, even though they were required only to work eight hours.

The opinion was to the effect that the law of the state makes eight hours a day's work on works done for all political subdivisions of the state such as counties or cities, as well as that for the state itself.

Mickey Scanlon Is Still Globe Guest

PHOENIX, Aug. 5.—The office of Governor Campbell still was without information today regarding Nevada officers expected to bring extradition papers here for "Mickey" Scanlon, now held at Globe. Scanlon is wanted in Tonopah, Nev., on a charge of criminal syndicalism, and has been detained some days at Globe.

Recently word was received here that officers were on their way to take him back to Nevada, but so far none have arrived. It is supposed here that recent washouts, which disarranged train schedules in northern Arizona, account for the delay.

Wallace Attending Kappa Sigma Meet

Tom Wallace is having an enjoyable time visiting in eastern cities. He was sent as a delegate from the Arizona university chapter of the Kappa Sigma fraternity to attend the national convocation held at Washington, D. C. He is the son of I. W. Wallace and was attending the state university when he went to the navy. After the armistice was signed he immediately resumed his studies at school and was unanimously elected to attend Kappa Sigma's national convention. He writes home that he has much to tell when he gets back, and the many Kappa Sigmas of the Warren district will be glad to hear his report of the convocation.

"Soon after my husband's death, 9 years ago I was taken with typhoid fever. Since then I have suffered from stomach and liver trouble and constipation. I have doctored a great deal without benefit. Since taking Myr's Wonderful Remedy three months ago, my bowels have moved regularly and I am feeling well again. I am now a happy woman." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. NORTH TIGRE LEASING COMPANY

Mr. Frank Holmes, manager, arrived in town yesterday and reports the following progress being made on property, estimate has been made for pipe line and new road to property to haul in heavy machinery; excavation for mill practically completed.

The company has over 40,000 tons of ore blocked out with average value of 35 ounces of silver per ton. The value of this tonnage at present price of silver is $1,500,000. This ore, which is now blocked out as above stated is a north continuation of the main Tigre vein. The ore occurs in the form of sulphide and a good extraction can be made by flotation process.

The North Tigre Leasing company is a corporation organized under laws of Arizona with capitalization of 750,000 shares, 25c par. The company proposes now to sell 300,000 shares at 25c, the money to be used for erection of the mill.

How Nuxated Iron Helped Put Me In Such Superb Condition As To Enable Me To Whip Jess Willard And Win The World's Championship

JACK DEMPSEY

"TIGER OF THE RING"

Tells a Secret of His Training—Recommends Nuxated Iron To Every Man and Woman Who Wants To Build Greater Strength, Energy and Power

Today recognized as the physical superior to any living man—the Superman of the Age—Jack Dempsey, Heavyweight Champion of the world, explains below the part Nuxated Iron played in helping to prepare him for the supreme test of his career. In his decisive, smashing victory over the mighty Willard had never before been knocked from his feet, Dempsey displayed a dynamic overwhelming strength and power never before known in the history of the ring. That he took Nuxated Iron as a part of his training is convincing evidence of the importance Dempsey attached to keeping his blood rich in strength-giving iron, and the high regard in which he holds Nuxated Iron as a master strength and blood builder.

In a statement made at his training quarters in Toledo, the scene of the battle, Jack Dempsey said: "After commencing the use of Nuxated Iron during my training for the big fight with Jess Willard, I soon noticed that I could stand harder strains with less fatigue than before, and I realized that I had found a tonic and blood builder which played an important part in getting me into fine condition. Ever since I had relied solely upon strengthening foods and outdoor exercise to keep my blood rich in red corpuscles, but with the World's Championship at stake, I felt that I should leave nothing undone that might help me to win. I was advised of the great value of Nuxated Iron for building up the blood, strengthening the nerves and aiding in better circulation of the blood throughout the body, and I am firmly convinced that its use has helped to wonderfully increase my stamina and endurance. Ever since I added power behind my punch and helped me to accomplish what I did at Toledo. From the results in my own case where the possession of super endurance is necessary, I feel that I am in a position to strongly recommend Nuxated Iron to every man and woman who wants to build greater strength, energy and power."

William Harrison ("Jack") Dempsey

Although like an untamed tiger in the ring, the intensely human side of the new World's Champion is clearly shown by a remark he is quoted as making just before the big fight, in which he said: "I have telegraphed my Mother that I will win the championship and I am not going to disappoint her. I'm going to win that title if for no other reason than because I've promised her I would."

Dempsey describes here the part Nuxated Iron played in helping him to keep his promise to win the title.

According to reports Dempsey placed himself unreservedly in the hands of expert trainers and competent physicians and heeded their advice. In my opinion whoever made the suggestion that Nuxated Iron should play a part in getting Dempsey into condition is to be commended for his foresight. No man would be likely to develop living tissue muscle and brain or keep active the vital forces. Strong, healthy men and women with plenty of iron in their blood are the ones who go through life with a smile, self-reliant and fearless and their dynamic power and energy make them virtually masters of their own destinies. It is surprising how many people who do not get along in life are in reality suffering from iron deficiency and do not know it. To supply this lack of iron and help build stronger, healthier men and women, better able physically to meet the problems of everyday life, I believe that physicians should, at every opportunity, prescribe organic iron—Nuxated Iron—for in my experience it is one of the best tonic and red blood builders known to medical science.

Strength and vitality of body and mind are derived from the blood and the blood in turn derives it from the food we eat and the oxygen contained in the air we breathe. But unless the blood is rich in iron to increase its oxygen power, it cannot develop living tissue muscle and brain or keep active the vital forces. Strong, healthy men and women with plenty of iron in their blood are the ones who go through life with a smile, self-reliant and fearless and their dynamic power and energy make them virtually masters of their own destinies. It is surprising how many people who do not get along in life are in reality suffering from iron deficiency and do not know it.
