

PADEREWSKI WARNS OF GREATEST PERIL

GERMANY'S PET WAR HARBOR IS NOW DESOLATE

Great Shipyards and Forts at Kiel Are Reduced to Rust and Debris

KIEL, Aug. 27.—German-Americans who frequent the lobbies of hotels in Berlin can often be heard remarking that Germany has won the war.

The great shipyards which created most of the craft for the German navy are silent. Rusty sheds mark the scene of former activity.

All machinery which the Allied commissions regarded as useful for war purposes has been dismantled.

In normal times, Kiel had 50,000 naval officers, sailors and employes

Borrowed Passports Get Many El Paso Hubbies In Trouble

EL PASO, Texas, Aug. 27.—Borrowed passports cause a lot of useless explanations, it has developed recently.

John Doe loans his passport to a friend who hasn't time to get a legal one. The friend visits Juarez.

Another difficulty from the practice the police say, is that complaints are made against pickpockets or other offenders in Juarez.

PROPOSE MONUMENT PARIS, Aug. 27.—A committee has been formed at Strasburg for the erection of a monument to the memory of the inventor of pate de foies (fatted goose livers) with Perigord truffles.

SAYS TURKS WILL NEVER GIVE IN TO GREEKS

Associated Press Co. correspondent Describes Kemal Pasha After Visit

ANGORA, Aug. 27.—(By the Associated Press.)—Mustapha Kemal pasha, head of the Nationalist army and virtual dictator of Turkey, in Asia, who is fighting the Greeks, is a short, stockily built man who wears European clothes.

The Greek offensive was just beginning when the correspondent found him at his pretty villa on the hills a mile distant from Angora yet he discussed it coldly as though it might affect some other country than his own.

Mustapha Kemal's name is known throughout the East where he is far more powerful than the sultan cooped up in his palace at Constantinople under the guns of the allied warships in the Bosphorus.

Refuses to Talk Peace

In his moments of leisure, his Turkish comrades say he has a rare capacity for the telling of pleasant stories and something of the sense of humor and innocent fun characteristic of the Turks.

At the moment the correspondent saw him, he had just refused to meet the British General Harrington to talk peace terms, as he is convinced that such conferences cannot now have any practical results.

"They won't realize that we are in earnest, that we are speaking the plain truth when we say we will make peace only on our published terms," he commented.

"Will the Nationalist movement survive?" he said, slowly repeating the question of the correspondent.

"Why don't the allies see this? Haven't they learned anything since the great war ended?"

"From an exterior point of view, we Nationalists are trying to prevent the Balkanizing of Turkey, prevent our house being divided against itself.

While out of politeness he didn't say so it is known he feels the Americans should understand and help diplomatically, at least.

He objected to the French point of view that the Turkish and Near East questions will be solved only when it is that of Russia.

"Ours is a question in itself," he said, "and a very important one. From the point of view of international law and order, I think it is admitted that the destruction of the Austrian empire, has entailed insoluble problems.

"Why destroy the fabric that holds the Near East together? No political arrangement is perfect but this was the best to be found. It is my honest belief that a pre-war Turkey is still the only solution, with the Turks even made responsible, as before, for the neutrality of the Straits.

"Peace? Of course we want it. It is the allies and the Greeks who continue the war. It is running all of us, but our ruin would be immediate if we accepted their terms.

Dame Rumor, Seeking Romance, Couples Name Of War Chief And Wealthy Widow

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Aug. 27.—From tourists visiting Pisgah national park comes the suggestion that this great scenic preserve be renamed after General Pershing.

Pisgah national park consists of more than 80,000 acres of forest and mountain which the government a few years ago purchased from the estate of the late George W. Vanderbilt.

General Pershing several times has visited this region and has expressed particular fondness for it.

Last year he inspected two government hospitals here and also was shown over the Vanderbilt estate, of which Pisgah park formerly made something less than half.

This year he returned, accompanied only by an aid, as the guest of Mrs. Vanderbilt, a charming widow of about 50.

Mutual acquaintances have wondered whether the mutual appreciation which the general and Mrs. Vanderbilt have for the scenic grandeur of North Carolina may mark the beginning of a romance.

Mrs. Vanderbilt was Miss Edith Stuyvesant Dresser, the daughter of an army officer, when she was wooed and won by Vanderbilt at Newport.

Recently she and her eighteen-year-old daughter, Cornelia, raced tractors in a demonstration given at Biltmore.

SAD, SAD STORY

LEAD, S. D., Aug. 27.—While rummaging in the basement of his grocery store here, P. A. Gushurst uncovered a five-gallon demijohn containing a dark pint of liquor.

The discovery, however proved valueless. The wine was so sour as to be unpalatable.

SAYS SILESIA IS LIKE TORCH, READY TO BURN

World's Greatest Pianist, Who Sacrificed His Art, Sees Trouble Ahead

PASO ROBLES, Cal., Aug. 24.—"A torch that may start another world conflagration," Thus Paderewski describes Upper Silesia.

The world's greatest pianist, who sacrificed his art and most of his fortune on the altar of patriotism, is preparing to sell his wonderful piano in California.

In the vicinity of Paso Robles, a great almond-growing country, Paderewski owns 2,544 acres of choice orchard land. Within a few weeks, all but 320 acres of Rancho San Ignacio will be sold at public auction.

Following the sale, in a few months the Paderewski plan to sail for Switzerland. Later they may return to Poland, but when is not decided.

Every day Paderewski practices at his piano for an hour. But this is behind tightly closed doors. Only Madame Paderewski is permitted to hear the master who once thrilled countless thousands.

Paderewski has no intention of playing in public again. A great artist must put his heart and soul into his art. Paderewski feels he cannot do this because of his intense interest in the affairs of his native Poland.

"I have not played in public for more than four years, and like every part of the human body the fingers require exercise," he says, as he raises his right hand and slowly moves his finger about.

"One cannot play the piano and politics together," says Madame Paderewski. "My husband never will go back to his music. There is too much else to do."

ARE YOU—AFRAID TO BUILD?

An outstanding feature of conditions in those sections where normalcy has been nearly attained is that the building program has been carried on unchecked and even increased.

This has kept labor employed, brought activity to those handling building materials, and kept money in circulation and conditions "good."

In those sections scant heed has been paid to those whose cry is "wait."

If you had planned to build but are hesitating, we've a lot of mighty interesting information for you. Drop in and talk the situation over with us, it won't cost you anything.

And remember—we take just as much interest in the customer who desires to build a small building, as one who desires a large, imposing structure.
