INTEREST SHOWN IN PRIMARIES AT MESA

MESA, Sept. 7.—Despite the two holidays preceding election day, interest in the primaries has been keen in Mesa and the presence of candidates on both the Democratic and Republican tickets and the support given this and that candidate for office indicate that today will be all that an election day ever was in Mesa. The polls will open at 8 o'clock this morning, and following the stress and strain of the day's work the evening will be taken up with receiving the election returns. The Republican has arranged to bulletin direct from its main office in Phoenix and through the local office reports will be received and displayed at Everybody's drug store throughout this evening until midnight.

Voting in the Mesa district will be handled at six different polling places, as follows:

No. 1—City hall. Residents residing in city limits, north of Main street.

No. 2—Price, Reed and Newman office. Residents residing in city limits, south of Main street.

No. 3—Alder Mortenson's residence on North Hobson street. Residents living outside of city limits, north of Roosevelt road, east of Crismon street and south of Lehl line.

No. 4—Drew lumber yard on Newell avenue. Residents residing outside of city limits, south of Roosevelt road, east of Crismon street and north of Gilbert and Chandler line.

No. 5—Alma school. Residents of Alma district.

Garage Is Robbed
Quantities of automobile accessories and some money from the cash register were stolen sometime Sunday from the offices of the Mesa Motor Sales company and the Southside Garage on South Robson street. Tubes, casings, tools and other equipment were removed by the thieves, the total loss amounting to several hundred dollars. It is estimated. Officers have been working on the case but no developments have occurred thus far.

Will Attend Convention
Delbert Stapley and Jack Long of the O. S. Stapley company departed Sunday night for the California coast, where they will attend the two days' convention of the Winchester Arms company on Catalina island.

No Contest for Local Offices
No contests for precinct offices have developed to be fought out at the primaries to be held in Mesa today. R. A. Kingsbury is the Democratic candidate for justice of the peace, with William Newell, the present holder of the office, running on the Republican ticket. O. L. Plorens, present constable, is a candidate for reelection on the Democratic ticket, with A. W. Hawkins running on the republican ticket. Lou Trimble has also announced his candidacy for constable of this precinct, and requested that his name be written in on the ballot, though no indication of what ticket he is running on has been given.

The Majestic will show Elsie Ferguson in "The Counterfeit" on its program Tuesday. A comedy, "The Star Boarder," is also on the bill.

TEMPE SCHOOLS TO OPEN NEXT MONDAY

TEMPE, Sept. 6.—Supt. G. W. Persons announces that the grade schools of Tempe will open next Monday, September 13. Parents are urged to have their children registered at the opening of school, as it is important to get a good start and not be handicapped by being behind the class. Those children who will be six years of age before the first half of the school year is passed and who are now technically not of school age will be admitted. This plan is to be used in order to avoid having beginners enter during all months of the year, which is a loss to the child and the school and makes it difficult for the first grade teachers to keep the children together.

Considerable work has been done on the school buildings to make them sanitary and safe. The menace of falling plastering has been removed from the Tenth street building by placing steel ceilings all through the halls and rooms.

There will be some change in the teaching force. Some of the teachers have taken up other lines of work and others have left to gain experience in other communities in the same line.

At the Tenth street building the following teachers will be in charge of the grades: Elizabeth Cosner, Hope Winder, Susie VanRitter, Marion Pugh, Bonnie Biehl, Thelma Cummins, Flora Thew, Ida H. Persons.

At the Eighth street building the principal, Mary E. McNeil, will be assisted by Lizetti Aepfl, Della Drollinger, Elvira Van Doren and Bessie Haynes.

The special teachers are: Manual training, L. S. Neely; domestic science, Daisy Buck; music, Winifred Pearson; drawing, Grace Dickover.

Miss Pearson for the past three years has had charge of the music at Winslow. She was originally from Indiana, and has studied at the Bush Conservatory of Chicago and Columbia School of Music. Miss Dickover has just finished her course in art at the art school in connection with the Santa Barbara normal school.

Normal Activities
All of the faculty of the Tempe normal school are busy this week at different lines of activity, preparing for the opening of school, September 13. The first faculty meeting will be held in Mr. Pelton's room, in the main building, Wednesday evening, September 8. All students are urged to register and classify before the 13th.

There is a large amount of tin roofing which could be used on temporary structure of some kind, a range-hood, and a large range that any one can have for hauling them away. These things must be called for at once, or will have to be disposed of some other way.

Arrives From Colorado
U. P. McCartney, science instructor at the Tempe high school and wife are recent arrivals from Boulder, Colo., and have taken an apartment at the Olive hotel for the present. Mrs. McCartney expects to take a course in home economics at the normal this winter.

Band Organized in Tempe
Tempe is again to have a band. It has already been organized, with William J. Lewis as leader and Doc Oviolo as assistant. The first practice meeting was held Friday evening and it will not be long until the band will furnish Tempe, as well as other nearby towns with music.

Truck Damaged
The radiator and front wheel of a creamery truck were smashed to pieces Monday about noon, when the driver, in trying to avoid a collision with C. M. Stark, ran into the creamery. Stark and his car escaped unharmed.

K. P. Meeting
There will be a meeting of the K. P. lodge Tuesday night. There will be work in the second rite. A large attendance is desired.

SCIENCE OF FARMING TAUGHT IN U. S. ARMY AT SPECIAL SCHOOL

The day when the boy left his home on the farm, joined the army and wandered over the world for the rest of his life has passed, and instead of being a means of luring youngsters from the hearthside it has become a medium by which they will be glad to return after a term of service, and take up the work they left off. They will take it up with an educated mind and a knowledge of farming that could only have been gained after years of study in a university at great personal expense.

Among the many educational features which have become a part of the war department's plan in the organization of the new army much attention has been given to the study of farming. Many schools have been put in operation at the larger army posts, but possibly the most complete one is located at Camp Grant, Ill. Here an enlisted man can take up a course of training in any branch of agriculture, horticulture, stock breeding and poultry raising. Civilian instructors are employed at this school, which covers over 400 acres of cultivated land.

Instruction consists of pruning, spraying, grafting, cultivation, irrigation, soil and fertilizer values and every detail of fruit culture.

Stock breeding is given much attention and a large herd including Jersey, Guernsey, Holstein and other strains of thoroughbred cattle give the students experience with both beef and milk producing breeds. In the hog department are kept Duroc-Jessys, Yorkshires, Poland Chinas and Chester Whites. Several breeds of sheep and poultry complete the school of animal husbandry. R. L. Leach, formerly of the University of Illinois and a recognized authority on livestock, is in charge of this department.

The use of tractor machinery on the farm is also taken up and students are taught every detail of the care and handling of the most up to date devices for the saving of time and labor in the cultivation and harvesting of crops.

The boy on the farm who is ambitious to make farming his life profession, may enlist for three years in the army and take a complete course at the Camp Grant school where he will be clothed, fed, cared for and paid by Uncle Sam, while serving as a soldier and preparing himself to become a useful and productive citizen.

Here is the big opportunity. Further information can be had by calling at the local army recruiting station, and the sergeant in charge will gladly explain to boys and their parents the many advantages to be gained by an enlistment in the United States army at the present time.
