Local Briefs
BACK FROM COAST—Mrs. Marris Montgomery returned Saturday night from California, where she spent the summer at Pasadena, Glendale and other coast points.
RETURNS FROM COAST—Miss Mary Chambliss has returned from a few weeks' vacation at Los Angeles and Catalina island, and will be at home to her friends at 1613 West Washington street.
THESE WILL MARRY—Licenses to marry were issued yesterday to Charles Johnson, 40, and study Anderson, 38, both of Casa Grande; Jack Collins, 32, of Buckeye, and Venice Holiday, 21, of Phoenix; Miguel Angulo, 23, and Mercedes Mendez, 18, both of Phoenix; Edward J. Young, 29, and Rachel Gillet, 26, both of Glendale; and James P. Ryan, 23, and Florence M. Pool, 21, both of Phoenix.

VISITING IN CITY—Mrs. R. G. Clark and son, Burton, of Harrison, Ark., are visiting the Rev. Arthur Marston and family, 914 West Madison street. Mrs. Clark and Rev. Mr. Marston and wife were childhood friends.
FATHER OF TWINS—Gene Sutherland, proprietor of the High School pharmacy, yesterday received word that he was the father of twins, born in Los Angeles, where Mrs. Sutherland is spending the summer.

GIRLS' RESERVE PICNIC—The Girls' Reserve will hold a picnic outing at 4 o'clock this afternoon at Woodlark Park. Each girl is asked to bring some article for supper, and a plate, fork and spoon. Those who wish will swim. The picnic is a special farewell party for Miss Whitney.

HOME FROM VACATION—Miss Andra Lawrence, stenographer in the office of Prohibition Director W. T. Walsh, returned to her duties yesterday after a pleasant three weeks' vacation spent at the beach resorts of Southern California and Los Angeles.

APPLY FOR SURVEY—Application has been made by the surveyor-general for the mineral survey of the mining lodes known as the Silver Bell No. 1 to 7 inclusive, situated in the Globe mining district of Gila county, of which the claimants are G. W. Shute and Wesley Goswick.

GOING ON VACATION—V. A. Woods, secretary of the state tax commission, will begin his annual vacation on September 10. Having spent the hot months in Phoenix he intends to take his vacation right here, feeling that he could find no better place in which to rest and recuperate.

NEED A SUIT—The Associated Charities yesterday issued an appeal for some citizens to donate an outfit for a man who cannot go to work until he receives some clothing. The Charities want a suit, size 37 or 38, and a size 15 1/2 shirt.

SUES FOR DIVORCE—Charging her husband with desertion and extreme cruelty, Anna R. Soza yesterday brought suit for a decree of divorce from her husband, Jose Soza. She asks for the custody of their five children and $50 a month for their support.

STATE HISTORIAN HOME—Col. James H. McClintock, state historian, returned to Phoenix Monday night after a two-months' absence, spent in Berkeley and Los Angeles, where he did considerable research work in the Bancroft and Mark libraries of respective cities. Colonel McClintock drove to and from the coast. Mrs. McClintock is still in Oakland.

RETURNING TO CITY—Edna Paula Revare is expected to return in a few days from a vacation spent in Berkeley and San Francisco. She will take up her work at the Arizona School of Music. September 7, she was in charge of the dancing department. The coming year will be Miss Revare's fourth season in Phoenix and her large following of friends are rejoicing that she has decided to return for another year.

GOING TO CONFERENCE—C. M. Zander and Charles R. Howe, of the state tax commission will leave today to attend the conference of the National Tax association at Salt Lake. Rudolph Kuchler, the other member of the commission is in California but will also attend the conference. George W. Cummings, county tax assessor, had intended to represent the county at the conference but is prevented by the serious illness of a child.

WANTS TO SEE SON—Declaring that his wife, from whom he has been separated for nine months because of domestic troubles, refuses to permit him to visit with his minor son, Alberto Escobedo yesterday brought suit against his wife, Quinina Avida de Escobedo, asking that he be restored the right to visit with his son at reasonable hours and that she be restrained by an injunction from interfering with his peaceful visits. He says they were married in April, 1907, at Jalisco, Mexico, and alleges that since their separation his son looks upon him as a stranger although he once showed a great deal of affection for him.

HIGHWAY WEATHER BULLETIN

If you were to see a competitive exhibit of loaves of bread; if you didn't know anything about bread; if you didn't know who made it or by what name it was called you would instinctively pick out because the golden crust, the velvety interior, the perfect grain of this loaf would appeal irresistibly to your eyes.

Butter Nut Bread

And your palate would quickly ratify the judgment of your eyes.
