HELD TO COURT ON CHARGE OF LARCENY

Emmett L. Wood yesterday was held to answer to the superior court by Justice Charles De Sales Wheeler following a hearing before him on a charge of grand larceny. Woods was committed to the county jail when he failed to furnish a bond of $2500. He is charged with taking an automobile belonging to Dr. S. D. Little on August 24. Woods offered no defense. According to the story told by Harry L. Shedd and Dr. Little on the stand yesterday, they caught Woods in the car ready to drive away and Mr. Shedd, who carries a commission as a special deputy, placed him under arrest. Both men said they had watched the car after Mrs. Little had found it near the Jefferson hotel and they saw Woods approach and get in the car. Mr. Shedd testified that Woods wanted to go in search of the Mexican and he consented. They could not locate the house, and on South Seventh street Woods refused to return to the sheriff's office. Mr. Shedd said, and disappeared. Last Sunday, Mr. Shedd said, he found Woods and arrested him again and placed him in the county jail. Woods will enter a plea today before Judge Stanford to a second charge of grand larceny which arises in connection with the theft of some suits from Vic Harty's when arrested for the car theft. Woods was under a bond of $750 to appear for this charge.

New Styles in Furniture

So many people make the mistake of thinking that clothes are the only thing which change in style or in which there are new styles, that we cannot help but emphasize that old, out-of-date furniture makes just as bad an impression on your friends as old clothes. While lots of folks wouldn't be seen in out-of-date clothes, these same folks open their homes to visitors when their furniture is far from modern. This store is quick to recognize and stock the new things in furniture. That's why our stocks are always in advance of the ordinary. It's why you can come in here at any time and see what's new and what's what in furniture. Novelties in furniture, for example, are "all the rage." Why not come in and see what little beauties we are showing and learn how reasonable they are in price. At your service any time!
