

BUT FIFTEEN DAYS LEFT TO VOTERS IN WHICH TO REGISTER

But fifteen days remain in which voters can register and all those who have not registered so far are urged by Miss Edith Jacobs, county recorder, to do so at once. It is expected that many voters will wait until the eleventh hour to register, which according to Miss Jacobs works a hardship on the clerks in the recorder's office. The books will close on Oct. 15, after which date no one will be permitted to register.

Those who have not voted will be unable to vote in the general election. Those who have moved from one precinct to another after registering to vote are also requested to call at the recorder's office and have their first registration cancelled and a new registration entered for the precinct in which they now live. Unless they attend to this matter now they, too, will be unable to vote at the general election.

A number waited until the last day to register before the books closed for the primaries, with the result that several errors crept into the books because of the crowds which flocked to the recorder's office. To avoid this Miss Jacobs asks that those who have not registered to attend to the matter early. A phone call or a note to the recorder's office will bring a registration officer to the home or business place of any voter in Phoenix. Those in the county precincts are asked to register with the nearest justice of the peace or drop into the recorder's office when in Phoenix.

COMPETITION TO BE A FEATURE OF THE SWINE DEPARTMENT

Perhaps the most novel feature of the swine department at the state fair this year will be the competition for boys and girls.

Sixteen dollars in cash prizes is being offered to encourage the youngsters of the state to take an interest in pigs. First and second prizes of $5 and $3 respectively will be awarded the best barrow raised by a boy or girl under sixteen years of age, and the same amount will be given to the best gilt raised and fattened by a boy or girl under sixteen.

Another feature this year is the special premium offered by the American Berkshire association. This organization wishes to encourage a larger exhibition of Berkshire hogs throughout the country, and for this reason is putting up a silver trophy valued at $50 for the best young herd of Berkshires consisting of a boar and three sows under one year old. To be eligible for this contest animals must be recorded in the American Berkshire Record at the time of entry, must be over four months old, and must be bred and owned by the exhibitor.

The Chester White Record association offers special prizes of $100 in cash for animals recorded with that association. They will be awarded to the ten best herds under one year, consisting of one boar and three sows. There will be ten prizes of $10 each.

Aside from these special prizes are offered for the following registered breeds: Berkshire, Poland China, Duroc, Jersey, Hampshire, Mule Footed, Chester White, Tapworth and other registered breeds.

Judging will begin in the swine barn at 9 o'clock, November 2, and continue every morning until completed. Entries close November 2, 1920.

AUCTION SALE OF PARKER TOWNSITE LOTS NOVEMBER 6

The forfeited, unreserved and unsold lots of the townsite of Parker, Ariz., will be offered for sale at public auction at Parker, Nov. 6, it has been officially announced. The public sale of the lots was recommended by Clay Tallman, commissioner of the general land office, and approved by the secretary of the interior.

The selling of the Parker lots is to be by "public outcry," according to the official notice, and will be under the supervision of the superintendent of opening and sale of Indian reservations. The lots must be sold at not less than their appraised value. Bids may be made in person or by agent, but not by mail or at any other time or place, and any person may purchase any number of lots or tracts for which he is the highest bidder. Bidders will not be required to show any qualifications as to age or citizenship.

No lot will be sold for less than $10 and any lot bought at that price must be paid for the day it is sold. For lots selling at more than the minimum and 25 per cent of the purchase price must be paid on the day of the purchase. Payments of the balance of the bid price in this latter case must be made within a year, if the price is $50 or under; if the price is between $50 and $100, payment may be made in two installments during two years, and if more than $100, in three installments during three years. If any successful bidder fails to make the required payment the day of the sale the lot or tract will be reoffered the following day.

The sale will start at Parker, Nov. 6, and continue as many days as may be necessary, excepting Sundays and holidays.

CABARET DANCING FIGURES IN SUIT

Cabaret acting and dancing by his wife so upset him, William M. Doyle alleges in his suit for a decree of divorce from his wife, Annabelle Doyle, that he cannot perform his work as he should and therefore cannot get ahead in life. He asks that he be freed from the bonds of matrimony.

According to this complaint, they were married in Phoenix Sept. 20, 1915. His wife, he says, insists on spending his money and taking long, expensive and unnecessary trips to all parts of the country. She also insists, he alleges, in being a cabaret actress, and when not following that business, she does, he says, what is known as hula-hula dancing with carnival companies and other such shows.

SAYS RECLAMATION WOULD AID MINING

RAY, Ariz., Sept. 30.—Relation of proposed irrigation projects in Arizona to the mining industry was explained by Ralph Cameron, Republican candidate for the United States senate, in two stirring addresses today, the first at Superior this afternoon and the second here tonight.

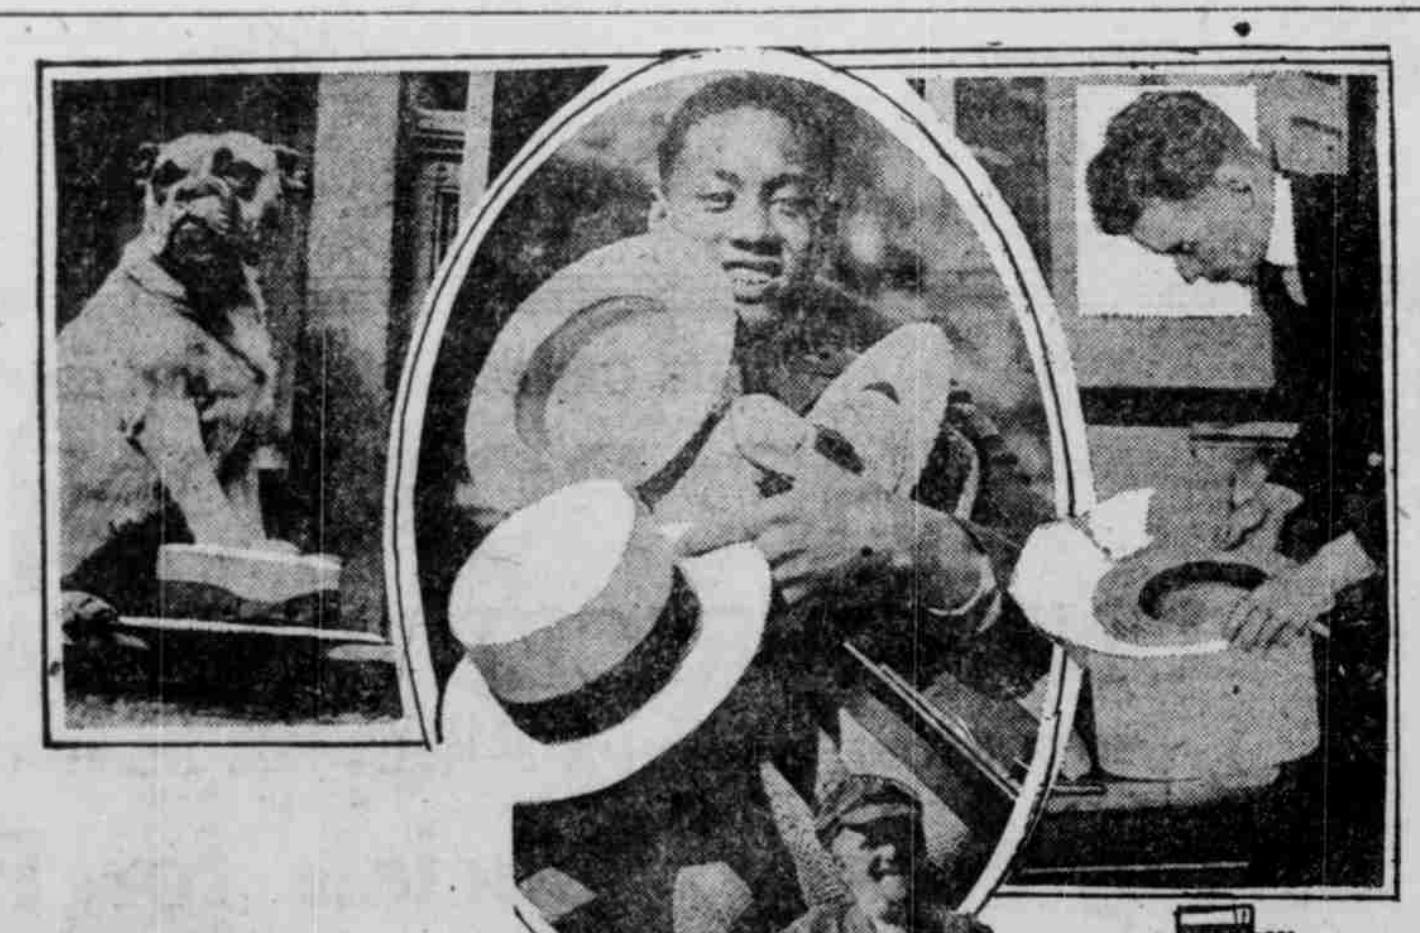

"Sufficient power will be developed at the San Carlos dam, when it is constructed, to meet every mining need in these districts," Cameron declared. "We must develop our agricultural resources while our mines are still in full operation, for the day is coming when the rich are bodies of our biggest producers will be exhausted."

POETS HAVE GONE BATTY WORRYING ABOUT THE FOGS OF YESTERDAY

Poets have gone batty worrying about the fogs of yesterday. To prevent a similar question from overtaxing the minds of The Republican readers, the photographer herewith solves the problem—Whither the straw kelly of summer?

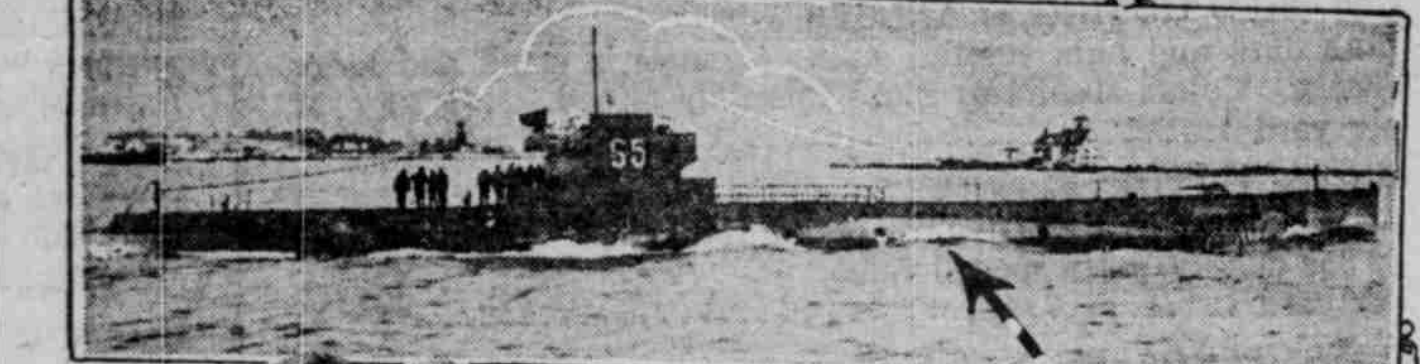

Every dog has his day and in the upper left corner we have a dog who has a hat. Toby's master gave it to him to play with.

In the center is one day's collection of straws made by a hotel porter from the waste baskets of guest rooms, and, at the right, is a canny gentleman packing his four-and-a-half buck ponnet away in moth balls. He'll buy straw hat bleach in the spring.

Music should accompany the lower picture—"Rags. E-n-y r-a-g-s. E-n-y bottles, e-n-y hats to-d-a-y."

The rag man does a thriving business at this season. What he does with the bundles of straws he collects the photographer couldn't find out. It's a trade secret.

"ALL IN DAY'S WORK," SAYS HERO OF SUBMARINE S-5'S RESCUE

NEW YORK—"It's all in the day's work," says the hero of the S-5 rescue, Chief Engineer W. G. Grace, of the steamship General Gothals, which relieved the Alantus and cut through the side of the sub to give the trapped crew oxygen and finally release. Top picture shows the ill-fated submarine—inset is that of Chief Engineer Grace, and lower picture shows the steamer Alantus holding up the submarine while the General Gothals steamed to the scene.

THINK RANCH BLAZE MAY BE INCENDIARY

Fire thought to have been of incendiary origin early yesterday morning destroyed about 300 tons of hay, several sheds, a barn and the corrals on the ranch of N. Porter, south of Phoenix. The loss is estimated at about $10,000. Sheriff Montgomery saw the fire from his home near by and arrived on the scene shortly after it was discovered. The blaze had gained too much headway and was beyond control before the employees on the ranch were aware of the fire.

According to reports, a man was seen running away from the haystack shortly before the fire was discovered. Sheriff Montgomery, assisted by Deputy Sheriffs R. M. Price and Al De Witt, made a thorough investigation of the premises, but were unable to find any clues to the identity of the man alleged to have been seen running. It was stated by the employees of the ranch that the man was a stranger to them and had never been seen around the place before.
