

NEW NATIONAL PARK DEDICATED

ged to center. Wambagans scored on Smith's single to center and Speaker went up to third. On the return throw, which failed to get Speaker, Smith raced to second. Speaker scored the second run on Gardner's sacrifice fly. Smith striking to second. Cadore then tightened up and fanned Johnston for the final out.

In the third Cleveland jammed through two more and drove Mamaux out of the box. Wambagans opened with a single and took second on Tris' second safe drive. Manager Robison sent in Marquard. Burns, pinch hitting for Smith, hit the first ball Marquard pitched for a single to left on which Wambagans and Speaker scored. Burns reached second when Wheat fumbled. Marquard fanned Gardner and "Smoky" Joe Wood, batting for "Doc" Johnston, popped to Myers. Sewell threatened to cause more grief for Marquard when he beat out an infield hit. O'Neill, however, was passed, filling the bags, and Coveleskie forced the catcher when he rolled an easy bouncer to Kilduff.

Dodgers Score. The Dodgers were never dangerous except in the fourth, when they bagged their score. After Olson had flied to Speaker, Johnston singled into left for Brooklyn's first hit and raced home when Griffith crashed a two-base hit into right. Wheat flied to Speaker, Griffith going to third. Sewell threw out Myers at first, ending the rally.

Cleveland scored its final run in the sixth after two men were out. With Pfeiffer pitching, Coveleskie bounced a single to center and went to second on a wild pitch. Evans singled to right, sending Coveleskie to third. Wambagans singled, scoring Coveleskie and sending Evans to second. With the count two and three, Speaker fouled to Miller.

Analysis of the pitching records places the credit for Cleveland's victory with Coveleskie and the blame for Brooklyn's defeat on the wildness of the quartet of pitchers used. There was little to choose in the world of Brooklyn pitchers. The four—Cadore, Mamaux, Marquard and Pfeiffer—pitched 148 times, sixty-one were balls, 29 strikes, 14 foul strikes, 3 foul.

men were retired on flies, 3 on grounders and 12 hit safely. Cadore had a good curve, but could not get it over. He threw 10 balls and 2 strikes in the first inning and two more balls before Mamaux relieved him in the second with none out. His record included two foul strikes, two flyouts, one man retired on a grounder and four hits. Mamaux pitched one ball, three strikes, three foul strikes, one foul, one flyout and allowed two hits in one inning. Marquard sent up 19 balls, 16 strikes, one foul strike, retired three batters on flies and four on grounders and permitted two hits in three innings, while Pfeiffer, in three innings, hurled 29 balls, 12 strikes, eight foul strikes, two fouls, five men hit flies, three grounders and four knocked out safe hits.

Official Attendance The official attendance and gate receipts show that 25,784 spectators were present. They paid $79,861, of which $79,810 was set aside for the national commission, $43,854.94 for the players and $28,956.96 for the club owners. Box score:

ABOUT THE STATE

Prescott in Films PRESCOTT—At the shout of "Camera!" Prescott will have its official photograph taken Saturday for exhibition at the Northern Arizona state fair, when Cameraman M. Schaeffer gets on the job to film a couple of films of local scenery through the business district.

Schaeffer is the man who unwound several thousand feet of film in front of Ramsey Patterson this week when Patterson was making the picture he will show this week at the Elks theater. The camera will start from the Owl Drug company, proceeding to the Elks theater and from there to the depot. Prescott people will enjoy the privilege of seeing themselves as others see them when the film is shown at the fair Oct. 14 and after.—Journal-Miner.

FAIR WARNING. "You are sure to enjoy yourself here," said the glib-tongued hotel proprietor. "There are lots of pretty girls to make love to."

"That's fine," returned the young salesman on vacation, "but there's one thing that I wish to impress upon your mind."

"And what is that?" "I am not one of those chaps who would rather make love than eat."—Boston Transcript.

A DANGEROUS ANSWER (Detroit Free Press)

"What?" asked the lawyer of the expert witness, "leads you to conclude that the defendant in this case is crazy?"

"Well, for one thing," replied the expert, "he's a golf player and talks nothing but golf."

"Hold on," interrupted the judge. "I'm going to have that answer stricken out. I play golf myself."

To Celebrate Armistice Day TUCSON—Armistice day, Nov. 11, will be declared a legal holiday, if the sanction of Gov. Thomas E. Campbell can be obtained by the Morgan McDermott post No. 7, American legion, of Tucson. A telegram, asking that he officially designate the date as a legal holiday, was sent to the governor Wednesday night by R. R. Davis, post adjutant.

A big celebration and parade for Armistice day is being arranged by the legion, whose members feel that the business houses of Tucson should close their doors in deference to the event. It is understood that Governor Campbell has expressed himself in favor of declaring the day on which armed conflict ceased in the world war a legal holiday throughout the state.—Star.

THE MAIN QUESTION. "Will Lefthook or Plexus win that prize fight?" "Lefthook should have the best of the argument."

"I'm not interested in who has the best of the argument. How about the fight?"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

SOME MEMORY "And do you remember the faces of all your customers?" remarked the boy to the assistant in the shoe store.

"I never forget anybody's face that I ever fitted with a pair of shoes."—Boys' Life.

A series expressing the individual views of America's foremost men on the subject of Thrift and Saving.

Hon. Frederick D. Gardner Governor of the State of Missouri, says:

"THRIFT and saving are the handmaids of individual progress and prosperity. The confidence of men is a greater asset than fortune. The young man with habits of thrift and prudent economy has inspired confidence and laid the foundation for credit in the business world, which is essential to success.

"The prosperity of the nation is but the collective thrift of its citizens. Thrift and economy are alike enjoined for personal and patriotic reasons."
