

FRANCE AWARDED DECISION OVER PHIL SALVADORE

In spite of the fact that the fighters couldn't hear the gong and that for one or two of the bouts, a diligent search had to be made for the gloves with which to carry on the contest, they staged a high-class boxing card at Tally's arena last night.

peculiar as it were, but he got away with it. Foster Barajas lasted three rounds against Battling Hierro.

Probably one of the largest crowds assembled in Phoenix in some time witnessed the card. This same crowd saw something which has not been seen in these parts in some time—in fact several decades.

France is undoubtedly a wonderful boxer. He is aggressive and constantly employs rushing tactics which, against a less experienced boxer than Salvadore, would have brought final results.

The rounds were decided by the judges as follows: First, even; second, even; third, France; fourth, Salvadore; fifth, even; sixth, France; seventh, even; eighth, France; ninth, France; tenth, France.

MONTANA SIGNED FOR A RETURN GO AGAINST SAUER

Bull Montana, demon wrestler-actor, has been signed for a return match with Pete Sauer, Nebraska Giant and claimant of the world's light heavyweight wrestling title.

The first meeting between Montana and Sauer, local fans declared, was the most sensational sporting event ever held in Phoenix.

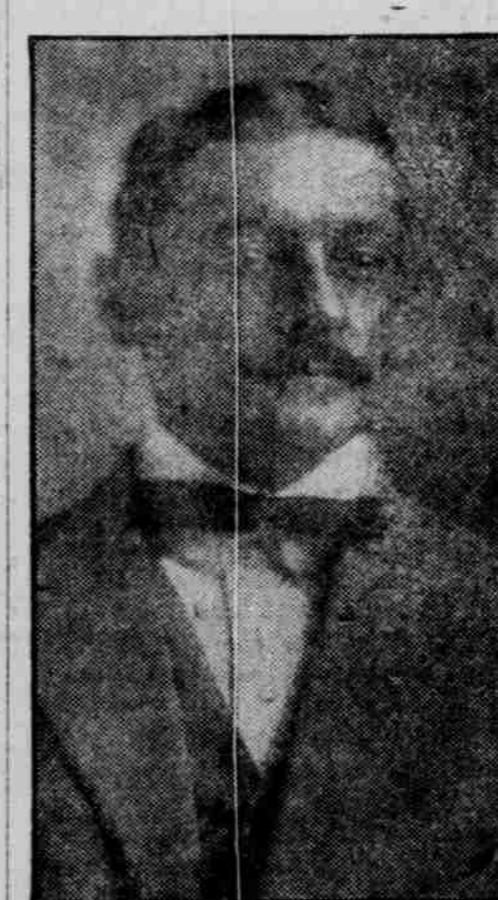

Now Montana had developed a peeve because of his injury and defeat at the hands of Sauer in this city.

Local promoters have been flustering with the two men for the past ten days in an effort to sign them up for a return match but always there has been some hitch that prevented completion of the match.

These two brilliant American players easily disposed of their opponents in the semi-finals today, and although the British spectators were a little disappointed at seeing all the finalists Americans, not only in men's singles, but in men's doubles as well.

the local's ninth straight victory. Philadelphia bunched three hits in the third for two runs and Walker's home run in the sixth accounted for the other.

WILDEST HORSES IN WEST WILL BE USED IN FRONTIER DAYS

(Special to The Republican) PRESCOTT, June 18.—The wildest, fiercest bunch of bucking horses in the Southwest is the outfit owned by the Prescott Frontier Days association.

Included in this stock are the following horses, which are famous to cattlemen throughout the Southwest: Mickey Malone, Twin Six, Henry Ford, Sky Pilot, Sunshine, Hold Tight, Gray Bob, Oscar Wild, Hobble, Laundryman, Dry Farmer, Pee Vee, White Angelo, Vinegar Roane, Red Bug, Chuch Wagon, Fried Eggs, Nujal and Casey Jones.

Joe Hunt, riding Mickey Malone in 1919, was the most sensational rider ever attempted in a contest and though he was disqualified the showing that the plucky cowboy made will not be forgotten in many years.

Prescott is in readiness for its annual contests. The Mile High city is known far and wide for the wonderful manner in which its frontier days contests have been staged.

LABOR PLATFORM PLANKS DRAFTED BY 'DEMO' WOMEN

(Republican A. P. Leased Wire) NEW YORK, June 17.—Fifteen planks which the Democratic national convention will be asked to include in its platform were sent today to delegates of the convention by the women's bureau of the Democratic national committee.

The planks advocate the right of collective bargaining between employer and employee through representatives of their own choosing, government control of basic industries affecting the necessities of life, nationalization of the railroads and their administration by a corporation or commission of which the public, the management and labor shall be represented.

Other planks recommended include: Development of a national system of employment offices under joint control of federal and state boards and organizations of labor corps with transportation subsidies for harvesting; extension and development of the bureau of women in industry in the department of labor and appointment of women to all government boards dealing with labor; enactment of federal and state legislation to foster organizations of producers and consumers; co-operative organizations and credit societies; insurance for workers against accident, disease, disability, unemployment and old age.

The recommendations condemn the use of "mandatory and prohibitory injunction in labor disputes" and also the treatment of labor as a commodity. Development of the bureau of labor statistics to make public facts concerning investments, capitalization, earnings and wages also is urged.
