

14 OFFICIALS OF CITY GET SALARY RAISE

Increases Provided in City Ordinance Range from $2,500 to $300 a Year—Other Business

Fourteen officials of the city of Phoenix received salary increases yesterday, when the city commission, in its regular meeting, passed an ordinance carrying the raises in pay. City Manager Thompson received an increase of $2500, making his salary $7500, while other city officials received increases as follows:

City assessor, city engineer, chief of police, fire chief, superintendent of water works, city health officer, increases of $600 a year each.

Superintendent of streets, an increase of $400 a year.

City auditor, city clerk, assistant city attorney, city treasurer, city building inspector, increases of $300 a year each.

Park affairs had a place in the routine business transacted by the commission yesterday. The contract for the construction of a band stand at the public library park was formally let to C. L. Smock, W. A. Wells and R. A. Wells. A communication from Jordan, Grace & Phelps Land company, offering to the city for park purposes, without cost, five acres of land in the Story tract, and offering to sell the city at cost five acres more in the same tract, was referred to the city manager. The land company's offer was made on condition the 10 acres be improved within a year and that the park be named the Frank Luke park.

A communication from C. L. Maddox, secretary of the park board, recommending that a portable grand stand be erected in the federal building plaza, not to exceed in cost $250, also was referred to the city manager.

The curfew ordinance prohibiting children under 16 from being on the streets between 9 p. m. and 5 a. m. in winter and 10 p. m. and 5 a. m. in summer again was presented to the commission yesterday, and after two readings was laid over to take its regular course.

Commissioner Irvine and City Attorney Sloan were granted leaves of absence.

A report by City Manager Thompson on the traffic on Central, First, Second and Third avenues and First and Second streets at Jackson street was presented, recommending that the Arizona Eastern and Santa Fe Railroad companies be required to have a watchman or flagman on Central avenue between the hours of 6 a. m. and midnight at such times as trains are crossing Central avenue.

The draft of an ordinance entitled "An ordinance providing for the guarding of railroad grade crossings within the city of Phoenix; providing a penalty for violation thereof, and with an emergency clause," was presented and read, and after general discussion, the city attorney provided for either gates or guards at the grade crossings, to be determined by resolution of the commission as the necessity arises.

BOARD OF HEALTH SECRETARY RESIGNS

Announcement that A. H. Powers had resigned as executive secretary to the state board of health was made at the state house today. The rumor was confirmed by Dr. George Goodrich, state superintendent of health, who stated that as yet no one had been appointed in Mr. Powers' place.

Several rumors were current that Mr. Powers would resign, but he denied that he was leaving the department. Shortly afterward he left town on a two week vacation and was in Phoenix but a few days when he resigned, leaving yesterday for his former home in Prescott. No reason was given for the resignation which is believed to have been on account of ill health.

WEDDING ON COAST OF INTEREST HERE

A wedding of interest to Phoenixians took place in southern California on Monday when Miss May Brown became the bride of Donald Clingan, formerly of this city and now a member of the advertising staff of the Los Angeles Evening Herald. Mr. and Mrs. Clingan are spending their honeymoon in Santa Barbara and will later take up their residence in Los Angeles.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Iris Kibane of Glendale, California. She is a native of Mississippi and possesses the charm and beauty that have made women from Dixie famous. Mr. Clingan is a brother of Bert Clingan, a well-known cement man of this city. He formerly lived in Arizona, where he had theatrical interests and also headed an advertising bureau. He later moved to Los Angeles, where he is connected with the Herald.

GOING TO VISIT AT OLD FAMILY HOME

A. R. Cavaness, manager of the Plaza theater, accompanied by his wife, sons and father, Matt Cavaness, left yesterday for Fort Mason, Texas, to visit the old family home. Included in the party which will travel overland in a Cole "50" and Dodge motor car, are Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cavaness, Mr. and Mrs. Emel Cavaness and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Connor and child.

The party will pause on the way to their destination to hunt and fish as the opportunities present themselves. Matt Cavaness and family left Texas in 1861, passing through Arizona on their way to California. They returned to Arizona in 1864, and have lived in Phoenix since that time. Matt Cavaness is one of the pioneers of the state, having many times been present at the suppressing of Indian uprisings.

Port Richmond, N. Y., who says he was separated from his mother when a baby, and now wants to locate her. Thinks she is living in Terre Haute.

Foreign capital, invested in Germany since the peace treaty was signed is estimated at $9,000,000,000 marks, of which nearly one-half is American.

Mrs. Gazool—What! Do you mean to tell me he gives her all his money and lets her boss the whole house?

The total trade of the orient advanced from $5,200,000,000 in 1913 to $8,750,000,000 in 1919.

WORK OF DRAINING WATERLOGGED LANDS SOON TO COMMENCE

Steps to drain all waterlogged areas in the Salt River project will be taken by the Salt River Valley Water Users' association soon after Oct. 1, officials of the association announced yesterday. It is estimated that $120,000 will be spent next year for this purpose, the money to be secured by an assessment of $2.04 an acre on all lands included in the waterlogged districts. The total assessment will be collected in six semi-annual installments of 34 cents an acre.

Prospects for the successful carrying on of the drainage work are now brighter than ever before, according to Fred C. Henshaw, secretary of the association, who declares that present conditions warrant the association to hope that the lands may be unwatered without the expenditure of the total amount of the assessment.

The work of drainage will not cost the association as much as it was first thought, due to the fact that the firm of Carrick & Mangham has agreed to take care of the most extensive flooded area as one of the conditions in a contract whereby the ranchers west of the Agua Fria River are allowed to use waste and flood waters from the Salt River project to irrigate their lands. In this way one of the largest items of expense will be removed from the drainage budget.

Drainage work will commence as soon after the first installment of the assessment is paid as the equipment can be set up on the ground. Aside from the area near Phoenix, which will be handled by Mangham & Carrick, the water users' association will on its own initiative drain three other smaller sections, one northeast of the Indian school, another near Scottsdale and a third near Laveen. All four waterlogged areas may be drained separately, as they are not connected underground.

IS GIVEN 30 DAYS ON TWO SENTENCES

William McGill in police court yesterday received two sentences of 15 days each when he appeared to answer to three charges. On the charge of having narcotics in his possession he was sentenced to serve 15 days in jail. Then he was sentenced to 15 days more for having pass keys and picklocks in his possession. The third charge, that of begging on the street, was dismissed.

Frank King, who was to appear before the court on the charge of driving a motor automobile while he was in an in-by failing to appear.

ANNUAL Vacation Togs Sale

A sale planned to help you freshen up your wardrobe for your Summer vacation — And in order to emphasize as much as possible that we are sincere in this sale

—No price-juggling methods are ever employed here. No goods of shoddy character are ever sold here. And is it not worth a great deal to feel certain that both the goods and the reductions can be relied upon? Making a lot of glowing promises on paper is one thing. Backing them up with dependable merchandising is quite another thing. When Switzer's Style Shop advertises a sale you can be absolutely certain: WE HAVE THE GOODS.

—We not only have the goods, but we have goods of quality.

—Garments of sound quality are scarce, and yield but little profit. But contrary to common practice, we do not offer this as an excuse for selling inferior goods. As long as garments of quality are to be had in the markets of the world, so long will Switzer's Style Shop sell such garments. And this is as true of merchandise offered at reduced prices as it is of goods sold in the regular way.

—In the face of these facts, if you have any kind of clothes need, wouldn't it be a pretty good idea to see for yourself that your money will buy here, now, anywhere up to double what it ordinarily will.
