Shanks, and family, at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening at the church parlors, Third avenue and Monroe street. All who are interested in the work of the First Baptist church are invited to attend. There will be a pleasing program and refreshments. A special invitation is given all Baptists who are strangers in the city.

ON LIQUOR CHARGES

Informations charging W. W. Barrett, Addington and H. P. Tunstall with manufacturing and selling liquor were filed in the superior court yesterday. The charges against Barrett and Tunstall were fixed at $1,000 each by Judge Stanford. The three were arrested early yesterday morning by Constable Elmer J. Smith. The charges in a raid made on the Addington ranch 16 miles north of Phoenix. A milk-can still, 50 gallons of mash and one gallon of "moonshine" which were found in a field near the house, the officers said.

TO JURY TODAY

Final arguments in the Ryan case against the Today Cotton company for $5,000 damages alleged to have been sustained by Ryan when he was injured by a plow, will be given this morning in Judge Lyman's court and the case will be given to the jury. The accident occurred April 13, 1918. Ryan alleges, while he was employed by the defendant company in his plowing mill. The case was tried in the superior court here in May, 1919, and Ryan was awarded a verdict of $3,000 by the jury. An appeal was taken by the defendant company and the supreme court reversed the decision and sent the case back to the superior court for retrial.

CHARGE DISMISSED

On motion of Constable Elmer J. Smith, deputy county attorney, Judge Stanford yesterday dismissed a charge of burglary against James Kelly on grounds of insufficient evidence. Kelly was charged with entering the Barrows Furniture company store and removing about $1,500 from the safe. T. S. McFarland, a Notary public, was charged with assault with a deadly weapon and the case was set for trial on January 23, 1922, by Judge Stanford. Judge Stanford yesterday said that a demurrer of the defendants in the case of the state against Francisco Martinez and Beatrice Hartman, indicted by the county grand jury, a statutory charge and dismissed the case and ordered the defendants discharged.

LIKE ARIZONA SUNSHINE

Typical of many letters from the eastern and northern states, where winter has already begun in dead earnest, is a November letter from the Call of Council Bluffs, Iowa, to the chamber of commerce. Mr. McCall says: "I am in receipt of the package containing the literature you sent and wish to compliment the honorable members of the chamber for the elegant and beautiful literature they have gotten out. This surely makes a bit here and I have interested a number who say they are ready to quit this country and go play in the sunshine for the time being. I think about it at this time: 'Where am I going to get enough money to buy my winter coat? Have had two light snows and it has been cold enough to freeze the Missouri river over. I am starting for a real good, luscious Arizona orange for Christmas, as I will still be here at that time.'"

Religious services will be held on Saturday and Sunday mornings. All are welcome.

ROOSEVELT FARM BUREAU

A special meeting of the Roosevelt farm bureau has been called for 8 o'clock this evening at Neighborhood House. The purpose of the meeting is to discuss the constitution of the Yavapai and Maricopa counties, passed at the meeting of the directors of the dairy organization held at the Water Users' building last Saturday afternoon. These resolutions cover the ground work of the new organization, constitution and by-laws, and it is desired that they be thoroughly discussed and approved by the dairymen in the field. The committee on excess water rates will also make a report. The attendance of all dairymen and water users is desired.

Surrounded by attractive hand-made towels, children's dresses, quilts, rugs, pillow cases, home-made aprons to please everyone. The best home-made candies, pies, cakes, salads, cottage cheese, chickens dressed and ready for the oven, and registered Rhode Island Red and Barred Rock setting eggs you will find the ladies of Bethel church ready to give the public the benefit of their handiwork in a reasonable price. GOES FOR PRISONER

Armed with requisition papers to the governor of Tennessee for the extradition of John Wallace, negro, wanted in Cococino county on the charge of forgery, Charles Y. Campbell left yesterday for Tennessee. Mr. Campbell is a member of the board of supervisors of Yavapai county, is in the city, having been called here by the illness of his daughter, Mrs. J. J. Lamson, office engineer in the office of the state engineer. Mr. Stukeley is deeply interested in highway construction and yesterday made a tour of the paved roads west of the city. He is hopeful that better communications may be established between Yavapai and Maricopa counties, for that it will not be the fault of Yavapai if that is not done.

SHOW INTEREST IN VALLEY

Letters of general inquiry received at the chamber of commerce in November totaled 15 per cent more than for the corresponding month last year, according to an estimation made yesterday. It is noticeable that a few number asked about employment conditions and a larger number desired information concerning the nature of the country and the crops raised here. The usual number of health seekers have also been counted in the tabulation.

SUES FOR $10,000

When an automobile owned by the defendant company went over an embankment near Roosevelt, J. P. Stiffler alleges in a suit filed yesterday against the Salt River Valley Water Users' association, he sustained injuries to the extent of $10,000 and asks he be given a judgment for that amount. The accident occurred on Dec. 18, 1920. Stiffler alleges, while he was employed by the defendant as a general laborer engaged in repairing power lines near Roosevelt. He was pinned under the car for more than an hour, Stiffler says, and his chest was crushed by the car and his body burned with acid from the batteries.

Debt Of Gratitude Is Paid By England After Seven Years

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—There is a saying of the sea that England never forgets a service rendered a subject. This was borne out yesterday when it is learned that the British consulate had bestowed on a German merchant marine officer a silver loving cup and medal earned by a daring rescue in 1914. In February of that year the British steamship County of Devon captured on her way from Norfolk to Rotterdam. For three days her captain and 24 members of her crew pitched in a raging sea. The German tanker Deutschland was first to sight the helpless Britisher, whose crew had jumped into the sea. Regarding family, a boat in command of the Deutschland's first officer, Ernst Harzmeyer, rescued the British crew. Then came the wind and England and Germany were enemies five years. Early this week there came into New York the tank steamer Vista with Harzmeyer aboard. He was invited by Capt. Gloucester Armstrong, British consul general, to visit his office and was presented England's testimonial.

HEIR TO THRONE BORN ABROAD

For the first time in the history of the British connection an heir to a Rajput throne has been born outside the India. A little more than a year ago the eldest son of H. H. Sir Yashwanth Singh, the Maharaj-Rana of Jalawar, arrived in England, with his young wife from India for undergraduate study at Oxford. They have been living with a family, and the Maharaj has been studying privately. She is the first Rajput lady of princely family from Rajputana to abandon the purdah system and come to England with her husband. Her first-born son was born at Oxford a few days ago.

COOKED FOOD SALE

The ladies of the primary association of the L. D. S. church will hold a cooked food sale on Saturday at the Cactus market. Home made bread, pies and cake, like mother used to make, will be offered.

MADISON FARM BUREAU

The Madison farm bureau will meet at 7:30 this evening at the Madison school house. All the farmers in the district are urged to be present. John Schallies will discuss potato growing as a big business possibility for the Salt River valley. Many of the farmers in this district are interested in growing potatoes and other garden truck. Mr. Schallies says the idea of a valley potato will not keep its mistake and makes the statement that there is a better demand for 100 cars of potatoes than for 100 sacks. Other speakers also will address the meeting.

The Laimson Business College will open its winter term of the thirty-second year, Monday Dec. 5. Beginning classes in all of the principal branches.—Adv.

DROP IN PRICE OF COAL ANNOUNCED BY COLORADO COMPANY

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] PUEBLO Colo., Dec. 1.—A reduction of $1 a ton lump and nut coal is to be announced by the Colorado Fuel and Iron company last night. The reduction is effective Dec. 1 and is in line with the recent reduction in wages at the mines. The company reports gains in the number of workmen employed in the mines following the strike of miners as a protest against the 30 per cent cut in wages. Production also is gaining, say officials, and in some of the mines the working force is greater than the average in November.
