

State Historian & Nat
ural History Society

THE STATESMAN

VOL. XVII

DENVER, COLORADO, FRIDAY, AUGUST 3, 1906.

NO. 52

Personal City Mention

There will be a meeting of the I. G. A. Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Froman. At the last monthly meeting the roll of officers was completed by the election of Miss Nelsine Howard as critic and Miss Eva Jones vice-president. At this meeting Mrs. Ida De Priest will tell of her trip to the National Federation of Women's Clubs.

I. G. Gilmore has been sick.

Mrs. J. H. White is indisposed.

Miss Webster of St. Joseph is the guest of Mrs. Blanche Allen.

Mrs. Charles L. White was hostess at an afternoon party Tuesday, complimentary to Mrs. John M. Wright and Mrs. Emma Moss McAdoo. It was attended by a host of society folk. The hours of the reception were all too short for the pleasure that the guests received. Music was dispensed throughout the afternoon.

Miss Bertha M. Harlan of Topeka is visiting her sister, Mrs. Frank Turner.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. William Morrison last week a fine girl.

Mrs. Nellie Porter is progressing as well as could be expected with the broken arm she sustained while at Colorado Springs last week.

There is a new business going in at Curtis street near Nineteenth. It is to be a shoe store and will be conducted by J. W. Jackson. The fixtures for shoes are being put in this week. Repair machinery of the just up-to-date kind will be added and this department will be a strong feature of the store.

C. A. Franklin now lives at 518 Twenty-eighth street.

The family of A. Colston is living at 1411 South Tremont street.

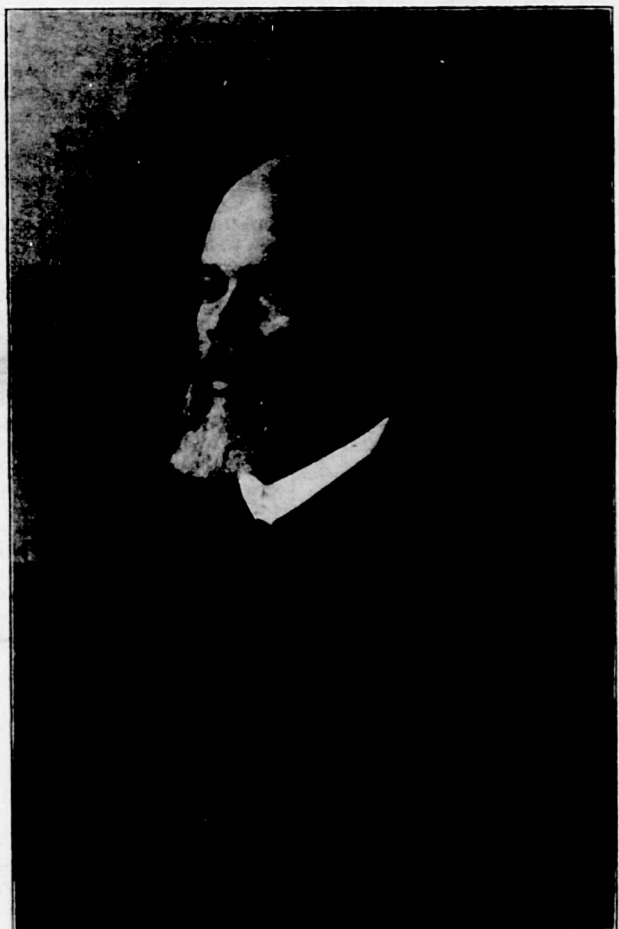

Mrs. Dollie Hamilton has purchased a home at 2535 Franklin street.

Great success attended the efforts of the Woman's Guild in its annual picnic last week. A crowd larger than it has ever had at a similar event was in attendance. Everyone had a good time. The ladies thank the public for its patronage, which netted them $240. Mrs. Mary Travick, president, and Mrs. Florence D. Cooper, secretary.

Titus Alexander of Oklahoma is a visitor in the city.

R. S. Scott and wife of New Orleans are in the city for the benefit of their health and may make this their home. Mr. Scott is retiring from the postoffice service there. Mrs. Scott was Miss Fagar, who visited here some few years ago. They are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Campbell.

An excursion to Colorado Springs is the rock on which many an ambitious entertainer has met misfortune here of late years. It remained for the Knights of Pythias of the two local lodges to carry a train load to Colo-

Bishop Abraham Grant of this district will be in the city Sunday and his coming will be a big event in the Methodist denomination. He will be the speaker at Shorter Church at 11 a. m., at Ward at 3 p. m. and at Campbell Church at 8 p. m. A still further opportunity to hear him will be given on Monday evening, when he will lecture at Shorter Church at 8 p. m., taking as his subject "What Shall the Harvest Be?" Admission 15 cents. An introduction of such a man is needless. His reputation, both as a speaker and worker for race advancement, is as broad as the country. The people of Denver will literally sit at the feet of Gamaliel by hearing him.

rado Springs to the state grand session last week.

Mrs. C. J. Rhone of Laramie is in the city.

Mrs. Clara Hardin was hostess at a party Monday evening, complimentary to Miss Mamie Blue of Kansas City.

M. Georgie McCowen and Mrs. Mollie Lunn and son are visiting in Kansas City and Oklahoma.

Allen Davis is spending a few days' vacation out in the state.