

GRAND JUNCTION

Mr. Patterson, who has lived in G. J. for the last two years, died Thursday morning at the residence of Mrs. Scott. He was a victim of consumption and a great sufferer. His relatives have been notified in Chicago and it is expected the body will be sent East for burial.

Mr. Newman and daughters visited Glenwood Springs last Saturday and after riding around the city in a handsome automobile by the hospitality extended them by some of their friends and viewing Glenwood in its grandeur and beauty, they returned home much pleased.

Mr. William Sheldon, one of Grand Junction's most prominent men, was united in marriage to Mrs. Fanny King at Salt Lake last Tuesday. Mr. Sheldon's many friends wish him and his bride a long and prosperous journey through life.

Master Jesse Brooks will leave today for Great Falls, Montana, to visit his mother.

Mrs. T. P. Langon entertained at cards Saturday afternoon. Those invited were Mrs. Mapps, Warfield and Miss Anna Newman.

Arthur Newman and Will Jones returned to Grand Junction their former home.

Miss Dora Newman is the guest of Miss Hall at Glenwood Springs.

Mr. Perry Johnson will leave in August for Ohio. Mr. Johnson is one of Grand Junction's most brilliant young men; one the community is expecting great things of. He will enter Oberlin College in September.

Mrs. Bates of Salida, who was the guest of Mrs. Lee Williams the past week, returned to her home Thursday much pleased with Grand Junction.

Mrs. Sheldon was in the city from Ema, Colorado, the guest of Mrs. Butler.

Mrs. George Smith will leave in a few days for Salida, her future home. The Carnation Club met with Mrs. T. P. Langon Wednesday.

Last Wednesday the Carnation Club met with Mrs. John Hines. One-half hour was devoted to fancy work, another to the discussion of some of our best colored writers, after which the following officers were elected for a three months' term: Mrs. Fannie Warfield, president; Mrs. James Harris, vice president; Mrs. John Mapps, secretary; Mrs. T. P. Langon, assistant secretary; Miss Anna Newman, treasurer; Mrs. John Hines, reader and reporter.

Mrs. Simm and sister Mrs. Turner who was expected in the city as guests of Mrs. John Newman, owing to illness in their family, was unable to stop on their route to Denver from Salt Lake. Their friends regret the same very much, as a reception was in progress in their honor to be given at the residence of Mrs. Newman.

One of the swell events of the past week was the afternoon card party given by Mrs. John Mapps at her residence, 314 Gunnison, which was prettily and artistically decorated for the event. Those invited were Madames John Newman, Fannie Warfield, Woodard, Langon, Harris, Mapps, Hines, Misses Anna Newman, Edna and Bessie Price, Oreta Hines, S. Sheldon. Dainty refreshments were served. The color scheme was pink and white.

WALSENBURG, COLO

Mr. Pink C. Steele and Miss Lavina White were married at Walsenburg July 15th, Rev. Joseph Gaston officiating.

Fred Richards left Wednesday to attend the grand lodge at Colorado Springs.

Mrs. C. P. Linticome was visiting at Walsenburg Monday.

Rev. Jeff Davis of Trinidad made a business trip to Walsenburg Tuesday.

Humphrey Palmer has opened a barber shop on West Seventh street. Give him a call.

J. A. Moore was a Pueblo visitor last Sunday.

Mrs. White entertained at high five Saturday evening.

Ivison Burt is on the sick list.
