We saw J. P. Cahill out riding with one of our young damsels one day this week. If it was not for making trouble we would tell his wife, but we will let it pass this time.

Ralph Groff returned home from Colorado Springs Thursday evening of last week, where he has been on a short visit. He like many others, had to come home for the fair.

Cheyenne Wells now sports a public drinking fountain, at the southeast corner of the court house yard. This is certainly a good move, as that is what has been wanting for some time.

The Union Pacific Railroad company will give special rates to the Fair at Cheyenne Wells. They will give one and one third rates to all points. Sale dates 16, 17-18 tickets limited to the 20th.

NOTICE.—All parties knowing themselves indebted to W. O. Compner, on horse and Jack account are hereby notified to call and settle the same at once.

Thomas O'Brien, a former resident of this city, was an arrival Wednesday morning from Hoven S. Dak., where he holds a very responsible position in the bank. Mr. O'Brien's many friends are glad to see him again.

J. N. Hollenbaugh says that it don't make any difference whether his wife comes home or not, he is going to have a good time at the fair. But we think from the looks of his face that he feels doubtful about the good time.

If you want to go into a nice cozy place to rest and gaze around you should go to Sears & Hollenbaugh's Garage. They have had their office nicely fixed up and painted a delicate green, Ray Counts did the painting, and it is fine.

The ceremonies for the laying of the corner stone of the Catholic church will be performed today at 10 o'clock sharp. Revs. Father Able and Raber, of Colorado Springs, will perform the ceremonies assisted by Rev. Father Kieffer.

The following new subscribers have been enrolled on the RECORD books since our last issue: Wm. Rhinehart, G. L. Norton, Mrs. A. D. Schultz, Dr. Booth and G. W. Rudolph, beside quite a number of renewals. Let the good work continue.

Friday Sept. 19th.

Baby show will take place directly in front of the amphitheatre at 4 o'clock p. m. All babies from six to eighteen months old may enter contest for prizes. One to be given to the fattest and one to the prettiest baby.

We omitted to mention in our last weeks issue of the RECORD about Miss Leta Trumbor going to Boulder, Colo., to attend college. Miss Leta was the one who received the highest honors from the Cheyenne County High School last year, and was accorded one years free tuition at the State University at Boulder, Colorado.

MARRIED—At the residence of W. E. Yore, of this city, on Thursday Sept., 4, 1913. Mr. Leroy Norris, and Miss Lemah E Gorsuch, of Sharon Springs, Kansas, were united in the Holy bonds of matrimony, Judge Spencer officiating.

The young couple are well and favorably known to the editor of the RECORD and we join with their many friends in wishing them a long and prosperous wedded life.

Mrs. A. D. Schultz departed for her home at Frednes Porsgrund, Norway, over the frog pond, Thursday morning of last week, where she will visit with home folks for a short time. Her sister, Miss Clara Peterson accompanied her. The RECORD is going to furnish her with all the latest news of good "old Cheyenne" county. We wish them a pleasant journey and a safe return.

Talk about your rains, we certainly had one of the finest rains in this section Monday night and Tuesday morning that we have in some time. It came so nice and easy. It was one of those old fashioned rains, coming in such a manner that the ground drank it up as it came. There being by government measure 75-100ths of an inch. This will make the farmers get a hustle on themselves and put in a lot of wheat this fall.

It has been rumored on our street corners and business houses time and time again, that the happy marriage-bells would soon be ringing for one of our popular young men. Now, this young man is none other than Wm. Moldenhauer, who recently purchased a lot west of the court house and is now building a nice little cottage on his premises. Good luck to you Bill, is the wishes of the RECORD, and may all your troubles, be little ones.

Miss Pauline Snyder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Snyder, was bitten by a pet cat last Saturday. It seems the cat without any provocation leaped through the screen door and immediately jumped on the little girls foot and commenced to bite her heel, it bit her in six places before the cat could be removed. The doctor was called and dressed the wound, and now the little girl is getting along nicely, and we presume the cat is, for E. J. dispatched it with his little gun.
