A Great Ribbon Sale

Lyons & Son
DRY GOODS & CLOTHING

A Great Ribbon Sale

ON SALE MONDAY MORNING

When we say "Great" we mean that it is the GREATEST VALUE in Ribbons you ever saw in Grand Junction. Owing to certain changes we will make in this department they necessitate this sale. If yon want values in Ribbons don't forget to come in.

THE GOOD QUALITY STORE

432 Main Street

A Great Ribbon Sale

A Great Ribbon Sale

Groceries and Meats

Either by Phone or in Person.

Correct Measure. - - Full Weight

Wadsworth & Son.

Special attention to telephone orders. 'Phone, Red 342.

Lumber

It means money in your pocket to trade with us.

The Grand Junction Lumber Co.,
Corner Main and Spruce St. 'Phone Junction 14

DAVIES, THE PAINT MAN.
SIGNS
FULL LINE OF HIGH GRADE
WALL PAPER
Don't Forget the Place—233 Main St. Phone 673 Black.

WATCH OUR WINDOW
BROWN'S IN TOWN
Loeffler, Tailor
407 MAIN STREET

The Most of the Best for the Least at
THE CROWN
FURNITURE COMPANY.
332—334 MAIN ST.
The Store that keeps the prices down on House Furnishing Goods.
No Trouble to Show Goods.
Undertaking Parlors in Connection.
E. A. KROHN IN CHARGE.
Lady Assistant. Phone, 359-2 Junction.

C. H. Johnson of Canon City is in the city today.

D. J. Lindsey of Zion, Utah, is a new arrival in the city.

No. 3 was two hours and thirty minutes late this afternoon

Mrs. J. V. A. Lay is quite ill and is threatened with typhoid fever.

Alfred Williams of the Oriental Tea company is on a visit to Aspen.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kellar of Meeker are visitors in the city today.

E. G. Duncan and J. J. Myers of Minturn, are spending the week in town.

W. A. Campbell and wife of Vega in the Plateau valley are in the city today.

Mrs. C. A. Smith and children returned yesterday from a visit to friends in Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dodgion, formerly of this city, now of Whitewater, spent the day in town.

Aaron C. Fay, the well known Rio Grande Western conductor has gone to Seattle to look up a location.

R. H. Sullivan, the weather man, will probaby return from his eastern trip the latter part of next week.

W. E. Deutsch left this morning over the narrow guage to sell for Bowman Brothers along the route.

Mrs. W. Eyanum and sister of Salt Lake city arrived in the city yesterday and will visit here during the week.

Three good ball games will be among the attractions at the fair next week. Excellent teams will cross bats.

Miss Anna Cotrell returned last night from Glenwood after a visit with her sister, Mrs. Katie Bender of that place.

Messrs. Boyer and DeLaMar, organizers for the Order of Washington, return this evening from a trip up the narrow gauge.

Capt. J. A. Lyons was a member of the G. A. R. delegation that left this city this morning for Paonia to attend the reunion.

Mrs A. W. Ramsey of Leadville. who has been the guest of Mrs. M. VanBuren for several days left this morning for her home.

Miss Gladys Ives Brainard, the popular music instructor, will give a private recital at her home, 605 North Seventh street Friday evening.

Mrs. Darnell and daughter Effie are now in Norfolk, Va., where Miss Effie has entered a conservatory and will remain until her studies are completed.

The funeral services over S. M. Cox who died yesterday at his home near Friuta took place this afternoon at Fruita. Interment in the Fruita cemetery.

Mrs. J. L. Montague and son, residing at number 429 north Third street, returned yesterday from a visit to friends and relatives at Dodge city, Kansas.

A dancing party to attend the dance at the Auditorium this evening was formed today in honor of Miss Rae of Salt Lake City, the guest of Mrs. Snyder.

Mrs. C. D. Fisher is at home this afternoon to her lady friends to meet her mother, Mrs. Patterson of Franklin, Pen., who arrived Monday on a visit to her daughter.

Preparations are being made for a big masked ball to be given at the Auditorium Thursday evening of next week. This will be one of the social features of fair week.

A hunting party composed of Mr. Reed and three other gentlemen returned today from a trip to Meeker country. They killed four fine bucks and had a great time.

Conductor T. Conway who owns and resides on a fine ranch near Fruita is in town for a few days. Mr. Conway was in the railroad service as a conductor for more than twenty years.

John Holland who rides for Bowman Bros., in the Kannah creek country, was the victim of a serious accident this morning which may prove fatal. He was driving his horse at a very rapid rate when the animal stumbled and fell, throwing the rider and then falling upon him. Mr. Holland received a hard blow on the head. At noon he was still in an unconscious condition. He is at the home of his father, Mike Holland on Kannah creek. Physicians from this city were summoned. The young man is twenty years of age, and is well known here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E Lance left Monday evening for a visit in Pueblo, from there they will go to St. Louis to attend the fair.

J. R. McKinney of this city and Miss Anna McCarty of Denver were married in St. Louis September 20th and are taking their honeymoon at the fair.

Mr. Harteman, one of the leading wholesale liquor men of Chicago, is in the city today visiting Kersburg and other liquor men of the city. Mr. Harteman is making a combined business and pleasure trip through the west.

Mrs. J. H. Rogers and daughter Miss Grena of Guthrie Center, Iowa, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lyons. Mrs. Rogers is a sister of Mrs. Lyons. The visitors have many friends among the Iowa people in the valley.

Maximum temperature yesterday was 74 dgs. Minimum this morning 37 dgs. Light frost was observed this morning. Forecast for 36 hours ending at 6 p. m. tomorrow, Western Colorado: fair tonight and Thursday, frost tonight.

A Gila monster was received last night from Arizona, the native home of the venemous reptile, by C.C. Price, the veterinary surgeon of this city. The hideons creature is attracting much attention. The sting of the Gila is awlays followed by almost instantanous death whether the victim be man or beast.

A special meeting of the Chamber of Commerce will be held this evening for the purpose of making arrangements for the meeting to be held next Monday night at which time the high ilne canal project will be discussed by Mr. Fellows, of the government survey. Great interest is being taken in the coming meeting by the citizens.

Prof. Houseley, the most talented pipe organist in the west, and winner of the first honors in the great competitive contest at the Worlds Fair, will give a pipe oragn recital at the Congregational chruch next Tuesday evening. Seats can be secured at the church every afternoon between four and five o'clock. Secure tickets at once.

For the handsomest child between the ages of one and two years the management of the fair offers a premium of $5.00 in gold. A premium of $3.00 is offered by W. J. Moyer and Co., for the second handsomest child. The contest will take place next Friday morning at the same hour of the baby show. Children of either sex may compete.

Ross Reynolds, the popular young stenographer in the law office of Carnahan and VanHoorebeke, fell while exercising in the gymnasium at Turner Hall last evening and sustained a broken arm. The right arm is the injured one and the young man will be unable to attend to his work for some time. Miss Gaines holds his position in the meantime.

The Women of Woodcraft hold a social at Elks Hall tomorrow evening A short program will be rendered.—Address of welcome by Mrs. Bloomingkemper, Piano duet, Mesdames Hards and Voils; Song, Miss Lillian Sawyer; Piano solo, Mrs. Baker; Recitation, Mrs. Leslie; Piano solo, Mrs Haskell, Song Mrs. DeLaMar. Refreshments will be served and various games enjoyed during the evening.

This morning about thirty members of the local G. A. R. post left on a special car over the narrow guage for Paonia to attend the annual reunion of the Western Slope Veteran Association. The veterans marched to the station in a body with colors flying and they presented a very handsome appearance. At Fruita the crowd was joined by a delegation numbering about 20. The reunion begins tomorrow and will last three days. Old soldiers from almost every point on the western slope will be in attendance and the meeting is always a joyous occasion.

Al Smith, the well known carpenter, and Miss Edna Groves, both of this city were united in marriage Sunday in Denver. Miss Groves was en route home from a visit to her old home at Greencastle, Ind., and Mr. Smith left here last week to meet her in Denver. The bride has made Grand Junction her home for several years and has many warm friends who will wish her much happiness. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will return to this city this week and will make their home here The groom is a son of F. A. Smith a prominent ranch man of the Highland Park community.

I represent O. W. Richardson & Co. of Chicago, who are the largest wholesalers of in the WORLD. By my plan of selling I guarantee to save you 20 per cent, besides any waste in matching, and your carpets will be made and laid as they should be.
CUT CARPETS
My New Fall Samples are now in and ready for your inspection.
Estimates Furnished. CHAS. A. SMITH Manufacturers' Agent
130 South Fourth Street.

We have just received the Fall Line of the Celebrated
Stetson Hats
in the stiff and soft blocks. The styles are very nobby. You know the quality.

Sampliner
"Who do as they Advertise."

ROOMING HOUSE
We have for sale a fine, medium sized rooming house. Good location. Price very reasonable. Call and let us show you this property

AGENTS GRAND JUNCTION TOWN CO.
Largest list of lots for sale of any firm in the city. We also have farms for sale or trade. Call and let us show you what we have on our list.

THE RAMEY INVESTMENT CO.
LOANS. INSURANCE. INVESTMENTS.
Currie Building, South Fifth Street.

LEE & SON
Telephone your orders to us.
Staple and Fancy Groceries, Meats, Vegetables, Etc.
Goods delivered free anywhere in city.
LEE & SON

GRAND JUNCTION ELECTRIC & GAS CO.
We have plenty of Electric Capacity and are fully prepared to wire your house promptly to suit your requirements.
Call and see our new line of Plain and Fancy Electroliers and Shades.
Phone 323 Black Mesa Co. Bank Bldg., 4th St.

FAMILY LIQUOR STORE
AND DELICATESSEN
Everything in that line strictly first class. New things not found elsewhere. A full line of finest Wines, Brandies and Liquors.
Bottle Goods and in bulk. Special attention to family trade. 348 Colorado avenue. Junction 9 phone.
WHOLESALE. M. HERTZ

BUY BEFORE THE RUSH

40 acres High Line land, cheap at		$ 400
4 lots, corner 8th and Rood	corner pair	450
	inside pair	400
10 acres, half full bearing apples		1200
30 acres; 10 acres bearing fruit		2500
10 acres; full bearing orchard		2600
20 acres near Palisade		800

HOME LOAN & INV. CO. 357 MAIN STREET
W. A. MARSH, Mgr. GEO. SMITH, Mgr. Real Estate.