GREENEVILLE

Among the various organizations in Greenville that contributed to the Salvation Army in the recent drive was the Heartsease Circle of King's Daughters who contributed ten dollars.

The Greenville Kickers journeyed to Baltimore Saturday afternoon and defeated the Baltic Ritzy by the tune of 8 to 7 in a ten-inning battle. Andrew Bellefleur, a new recruit, pitched for the Kickers and had about fifteen strikeouts to his credit.

At the home of her brother, John Brennan, on Prospect street, Miss Nora Brennan was pleasantly surprised by a number of her girl friends, with a tin shower, in honor of her approaching marriage to Harold Southgate.

Mr. Southgate has been in the service of the U. S. navy for the past two years, the most of his time being spent in European waters. Since his discharge from the navy he has resumed his duties for the Atlantic & Pacific and is now at Niantic, managing the local A. & P. store there.

Miss Brennan was also presented a beautiful cut glass water set, at the shower by the girls she worked with.

Many of the local K. of C. members took the fourth degree in Hartford Sunday. Some of the local men were William H. Bowen, Mr. T. J. McInnis, J. Cummings. They made the trip by auto.

Frank Murtha spent Sunday in Hartford. William C. Temple spent Sunday at the Drawbridge.

William Thomas Delaney spent the week-end in Jewett City. Harry Fenton of the West Side spent Friday in the village, calling on his many friends.

Louis Conrads of Preston City was a visitor in the village Friday. Mr. and Mrs. John Sullivan and children of New Haven are spending a few days at the home of Mrs. John Dunion of central avenue.

Edward Barger of Providence, R. I., is spending a few days at the home of his sister, Mrs. K. Delaney of Sixth street.

Dr. E. J. Brophy, Mrs. Brophy and family spent Friday in New Haven, making the trip by auto.

Eileen Hunter is spending the holidays at the home of her grandmother on Oakridge street.

William Delaney and Edward Enright spent Friday in Jewett City.

Mrs. Maud Ferguson spent Friday in Jewett City, calling on her relatives.

George Morrow of Eddystone, Penn., is spending the holidays at the home of Mrs. George Stevens of Prospect street.

Walter Blair of Wauvegan is spending a few days at the home of Mrs. Blair of Tenth street.

Bishop John J. Nilan of Hartford confirmed a class of 210 Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at St. Mary's church. There were 90 boys, 105 girls and 15 adults in the class. Bishop Nilan was attended by Revs. John H.

Broderick and Ignatius V. Maciejewski of this city. Seated within and near the sanctuary were Revs. William H. Kennedy and Miss Margaret G. Delaney for the girls and the adults. Messrs. William T. Mahoney and Joseph A. Donnelly for the boys and adults.

Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, which followed the confirmation and sermon by the bishop was given by Rev. John J. McCabe of Jewett City and he was assisted by Revs. William H. Kennedy and Rev. Joseph G. Galvin with Rev. Father Jalbert of Baltic as censor bearer.

The sponsors for the class were Mrs. James J. Sullivan and Miss Margaret G. Delaney for the girls and the adults. Messrs. William T. Mahoney and Joseph A. Donnelly for the boys and adults.

41 Main Street NORWICH TOWN Mrs. H. A. Phillips of Boston spent a few days last week with her cousin, Mrs. Albert P. Green of West Town street.

Mrs. A. Maud Smith and daughter, Beatrice, of Town street, left Thursday for a visit of several days with Mrs. Smith's sister, Mrs. Louise Gagnon of Taftville.

Recent news from Mrs. Sarah Thompson, a former resident of West Town street, by twenty friends and neighbors in honor of their wedding anniversary. An immense May basket handsomely trimmed and filled with good things, was presented Mr. and Mrs. Robbins. The contents of the basket included a variety of canned goods, choice groceries, several loaves of cake, fancy cookies, bread, tea and coffee, popcorn, candy, grapefruit and oranges. During the evening Miss Henrietta Morris gave several soprano solos, including the Beautiful Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Green sang the duet, Till We Meet Again, and there were recitations by Miss Morris, Miss Ruth Woodmansee and Miss Marion Griswold. Mrs. William Risley, Miss Josephine Rogers and Miss Mabel Rogers served cake and punch to those present. The enjoyable affair was arranged by Miss Josephine Rogers and Mrs. Risley, the last mentioned, also decorated the May basket. At the close all united in singing God Be With You Till We Meet Again.

The polls will be open in all four city districts today from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.
