Brief Mention.

High water to-day, 4:47 p. m. The Century Magazine and Munsey's Magazine for August at the Pease-Lewis Co.'s. Miss Mabel Canada, of Blake street, Westville, has gone to Boston, where she will be the guest of friends for a week. Rev. A. J. Gammack, of West Haven, conducted the service at the Oriental Park pier yesterday afternoon at four o'clock. An excursion by the Hartford Machine Screw Company Mutual Benefit association picnicked at Savin Rock yesterday. James O'Connor, who is quite ill at his home on Blake street, is reported as being about the same. Mr. O'Connor is suffering from a severe case of blood poisoning. George Flannigan, of New Britain, spent Sunday with friends on Edwards street, this city. Mr. Flannigan holds a responsible position with the New Britain Knitting company. Rev. George H. Hubbard, of West Haven, has gone to Silver Bay, Lake George, to attend the meetings of the forward movement of the Congregational churches in the United States and Canada. Captain J. H. Lanfare, of West Haven, has built a new boat which is twenty-eight feet long and equipped for safety in every way. Many parties are enjoying the pleasure of a sail in the Dolphin. The Boston Asphalt company is rapidly getting the West Chapel street pavement into shape. It has twelve men here working on the pavement, which has become broken along the street car tracks nearly the entire length of the thoroughfare.

TAYLOR HERE TO-MORROW.

Colored Cyclist Will be Seen at the Coliseum Races.

Major Taylor, the colored cyclist, who is booked to appear at the grand circuit races at the New Haven Coliseum to-morrow night in conjunction with Champion Frank Kramer, George Collett, Iver Lawson and about fifty other stars, is one of the most marvelous riders that ever bestrode a wheel. Despite the combinations that are formed to beat the major, the latter continually forces his fellow riders and the public to acknowledge his superior speed and headwork in a race.

At Wallburg Saturday Taylor was opposed in the final heat by Champion Kramer, Kimble and Lawson, and these three riders seemingly rode Taylor in a pocket and kept him there. The affair seemed so palpably unfair to the colored rider that Kimble, who offended the most, was hissed from the track. The race, unfortunately, could not be ridden over, and the major had to stand a victim of a foul ride. He was very wrath over the treatment and declared that he would abandon the circuit if he got any more such deals from his white rivals.

Moving like the wind these days, the major has shown himself nearly Kramer's equal, and if these two, with Lawson, Collett, Fisher, Kimble or Bald, get in the final heat of the half-mile championship to-morrow night, there will be some of the liveliest "dog-fights" ever seen on the little eight-lap track.

Besides the championship event there are four other races, two of which are for professionals. One is a five-mile dash, with prizes at every mile. This will be one of the most electrifying contests of the year. There will be a fast bunch of amateurs, including several speedy riders.

Reserved spaces on the grandstand on sale at S. Goodman & Co.'s, 829 Chapel street, and at Beck's drug store, 339 Howard avenue, and are selling like hot cakes.

The secret service guards stopped a suspicious looking colored man on the pike last night. The man carried a large watermelon under his arm. To satisfy themselves that all was right the secret service men ate the melon. The colored man refused to tell where he got it, and is being kept under surveillance, as it was of fine flavor.—Baltimore American.

Everything to wear, and, (whisper) face-powders and cosmetics if you use them. The things you write for will be sent you by mail express within an hour of the time your letter reaches us. The remnant counter is always the post of honor. The best-selling styles get there first.

Here is what is left of the sensational China offers printed Friday night. If you noted and wanted them, you have this chance left. Of the $25 Dinner Sets (reduced from $49.50) there are but two left. Worth advertising, however, so long even as two people can be made happy.

Do You Eat In This Weather?

The Palm Tea Room serves exactly the right kind of light but satisfying lunches for this muggy weather when eating is a burden. At the ice cream tables, besides ice cream, are served Bisques and frozen sweets in individual portions.

Some F. B. Q. Blue Serge Suits at $10.

Men who look in our Chapel-Temple St. window will have an object lesson in F. B. Q. medium-priced tailoring.

The window is full of blue serge suits and the price is $10

The difference between these F. B. Q. suits at $10 and other blue serge suits at the same price or a little higher, is the same difference that exists between F. B. Q. clothing and most other ready-to-wear makes.

Part of that difference is that the F. B. Q. wearer gets a dressiness, a distinctiveness, an effect of nattiness and elegance for $10 that less carefully cut and made clothing cannot give at any price.

Another difference is that the F. B. Q. clothing gives more wear for each dollar than any other. Its makers are the largest buyers of all-wool fabrics in America;—of course they can give better goods for the money.

Shoe Bargains;—Malley Kinds.

When we say that we sell, for example, a "regular $2 shoe" for $1.50, you must take the statement literally. Don't you KNOW that we could not afford to deceive you, even a nickel's worth?

FIRST ANNUAL BANQUET.

Held by Harmony Glee Club at Morris Cove Hotel.

The first annual banquet given by the Harmony Glee club of this city occurred last Thursday evening. The event was held at the Morris Cove hotel and was a very successful affair. There was a good attendance of members and the evening was most thoroughly enjoyed by all. An excellent menu was served, and the post-prandial exercises were the feature of the evening. George W. Cory was the toastmaster and the following programme was carried out: Our First Annual Banquet, Frank Van Dyck's selection by Glee club; Our Past, Present and Future, Alfred Hall; Our First Tenors, Frank O. Hutchings; selection by Glee club; Our Second Tenors, Henry Winchell; Our First Basses, James Hall; Duett by Alfred Hall and Frank O. Hutchings; Our Second Basses, Harry R. NO SUCH CASE

Regarding Young Girl and Alleged Illegal Operation.

The following is from the Grace hospital authorities: "The Grace hospital authorities desire to correct a statement, made by the New Haven Union in its Sunday issue, concerning an alleged criminal case reported to be under treatment there. No such case wanting to hide identity or suffering from an illegal operation has applied for or been admitted to Grace hospital, and the entire statement is incorrect."

In an interview yesterday morning Coroner Mix was as much surprised as were the hospital authorities regarding the matter.

DEMOCRATS OF ORANGE

Have a Call Issued for This Evening Which is Claimed to be Illegal.

Chairman Bartlett, of the democratic town committee of the town of Orange, stated last evening that the call for the democratic primary to be held in the West Haven town hall this evening is illegal. Mr. Bartlett also said that two years ago the democrats voted to hold no more primaries, but to have in their stead open caucuses. The call for the meeting for this evening has been issued contrary to the vote passed two years ago. Chairman Bartlett and the other members of the town committee will issue a call shortly for the open and independent caucuses for the purpose of electing delegates to the county, state and senatorial conventions.

At the primary to-night delegates will be elected. So when the town conventions are held the democrats will have contesting delegates in the field. "Do you know what happens to little boys who smoke?" "Yep. Dev gets bothered by fool cranks."—Life. "She has just refused a man worth a million." "Is it possible? Any rational explanation of her act?" "Oh, yes. She had just accepted another man worth a million."—Brooklyn Life.
