Have The Bulletin Follow You. Readers of the Bulletin leaving the city for the seashore, mountains, rural resorts or Europe can have the Bulletin follow them daily and keep in touch with home affairs.

LABOR DAY. With the position and cause of the workman being given so much earnest consideration throughout the year there is a growing disposition to devote the observation of Labor day to the beneficial aims which have resulted from an outing.

FINANCIAL REVOLUTIONS. Just how much of a lesson will be taken to heart by those who are given to financing revolutions, as the result of the action of this country in regard to Mexico, is difficult of estimation, but it exists just the same.

EDITORIAL NOTES. Silence may be golden, but some people place no higher value on it than polished brass. The man on the corner says: All roads go to the fair grounds except the trolley road. That goes only part way.

When President Wilson insists upon Huerta's declaration against becoming a candidate in the Mexican presidential election, instead of relying upon the constitutional provision against it, he wisely recalls, with the Madero incident in mind, just how much attention Gen. Huerta might pay to any such thing.

REPLACE THE TREES. Instances are plentiful throughout the city and town where the removal of trees, whether it be because of the march of progress and expansion, or in the interests of safety, fails to result in others taking their places.

THE NEW HAVEN SYSTEM. This week marks the change in the official head of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad system and as this new era in its history opens it is of moment importance to all New England, since it is so closely allied with all its interests.

SANE PUBLIC OPINION. The prosecution of the Diggins case in California under the Mann white slave act, a federal law, has aroused not a little comment on the ground that it was a matter which the state laws and courts could deal with.

When a Canadian court audience breaks into loud applause at the temporary victory of money over justice, there is a warning which cannot be overlooked. When pleasure is manifested at the defeat of justice it is time for sober reflection.

WOMAN IN LIFE AND IN THE KITCHEN. SUGGESTIONS FOR THE HOUSEWIFE. Suggestions For The Housewife. Seeded raisins cut in half and added to the nut salad will make it taste much better.

DICTIONARIES OF FASHION. Fancy creations make very stylish separate vests. Hand painted materials are very modish for evening wear. Satin cloth is used a great deal for trimming frocks of satin.

NEW SASHES. To the invention of new sashes there seems no end. These long lengths of supple material are an absolute rage in Paris, and they are worn by women and girls of all ages. Some of the newest sashes are tied directly in front, in a large, full bow.

NEEDLEWORK NOTES. In darning curtains if the rent is large take a piece of an old curtain and patch the hole with it and the damage will scarcely be noticed.

COLLAR AND CUFF SETS. One set is in softest, finest black net, with a straight hem embroidered in any color and silk, in tiny cross stitch. Another set is of very, very finely tucked lawn, the ticks running across and across, the edge being finished with an almost invisible ruche of the lawn.

CONCERNING WOMEN. The clubwomen of New Orleans want a model for their city and are working to secure it. A housewives' league has been formed and it has begun to keep tabs on the dishonest grocers and other persons who give light weight and inferior goods.

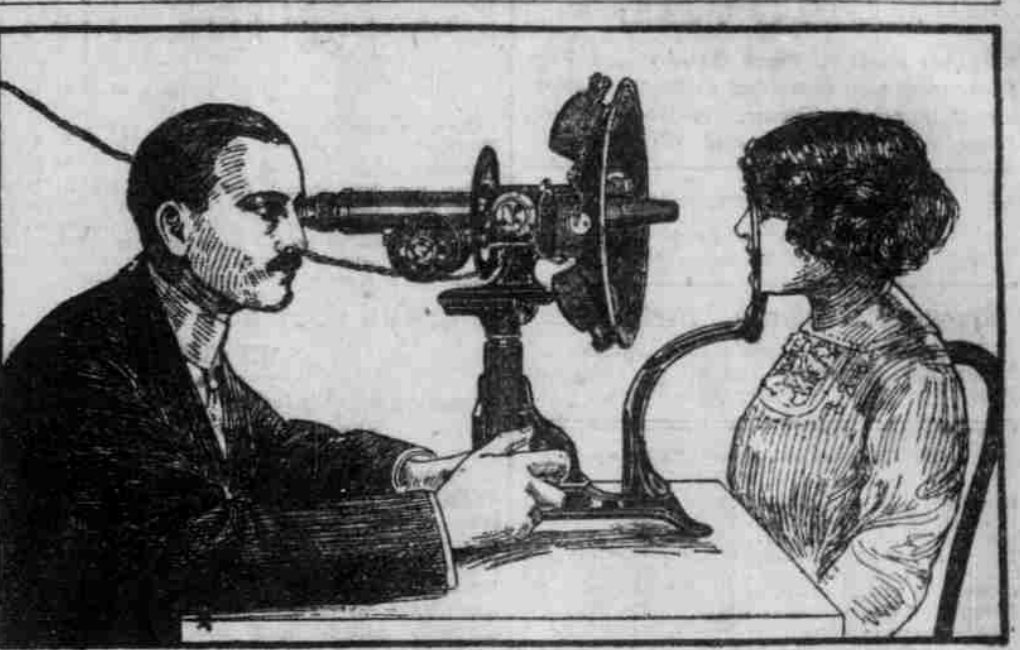

STAIN REMOVER. It is sometimes difficult to keep the kitchen paper free of greasy stains. They may be removed entirely if a mixture of pipe clay and water made the consistency of cream, is spread over them and allowed to remain overnight.
