

NEWS FROM ONE HUNDRED CORRESPONDENTS

EASTERN CONNECTICUT AND WESTERN RHODE ISLAND.

Who is Going and Coming—Incidents, Accidents and Building in Three Counties.

New London County

UNCASVILLE
O. U. A. M. Installation—News From the Other Lodges—Mrs. Charles Havens Dead at 94.

American council, O. U. A. M., installed officers Thursday night. Deputy State Councillor Ashley F. French of East Greenwich, was present and assisted in the ceremony. The officers are as follows: Councillor, Charles Adams; vice councillor, Robert Dodd; recording secretary, Harry Anwood; assistant recording secretary, Robert E. Burchard; financial secretary, Frank P. Seal; treasurer, W. D. Home; conductor, Roy Gardner; examiner, John Noyes; chaplain, Robert C. Burchard; inside guard, Eddie Everett; outside guard, Charles Johnson; trustee, John Lynch, Roy Gardner, Frank H. Rogers.

Woodmen's Election. Monday night Cocheban camp, Modern Woodmen of America, elected officers as follows: Veterans, W. D. Home; recorder, Michael H. Hickey; banker, John Lynch; clerk, Charles W. Chappell; escort, Richard Rogers; inside watchman, Eugene Chapman; outside guard, Charles Johnson; trustees, Israel Gero, Mortimer Getchell, Swanton Johnson. The installation of these officers will take place later.

The blackboards in the Tenth district schoolhouse (Uncasville) have been rescaled by the school board. Grange Rehearsing Play.

Montville grange, P. of H., is rehearsing a play. The grange held a meeting Wednesday night and had a rehearsal.

Miss Carrie Wood spent the week end at the home of her grandparents. Miss Wood is in Norwich attending the Academy.

Thames Lodge Installation. Thames lodge, I. O. O. F., at its meeting in Palmer Memorial hall held its installation of officers Tuesday evening with the following officers installed: Noble Grand, Victor Rosenlund; vice grand, Ivan B. Chapman; recording secretary, Victor Rosenlund; treasurer, G. Turner Loomis; warden, Harry Ericson; conductor, Charles Allen; chaplain, Elmer Teft; right scene supporter, Eugene Chapman; left scene supporter, George Sawyer; right supporter noble grand, Robert Patton; left supporter noble grand, Charles Johnson; inside guard, W. W. Chapel; outside guard, John Eldridge; right supporter vice grand, Bertram Edmunds; left supporter vice grand, Wm. H. Sawyer; standing committee, sick visiting, Robert Barlow, Morton E. Fox, M. D., Fred J. Hope, Harry Johnson, Matt A. Tucker, railed, Paul Grande, Elmer E. Teft, Charles Johnson and Frank E. Mitchell. District deputy, Richard W. Woodbury, officiated at the ceremonies, after which supper was served.

Entertained Society. Mrs. W. S. Mitchell entertained the members of the Ladies Aid society at her home Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Charles Russell is confined to her home by a severe illness.

Fred Church has been unable to attend to duties in Palmer Bros. mill on account of an attack of grip.

The Good Cheer auxiliary society met at the home of Mrs. W. Chapel, Mrs. Albert W. Avery, at Hilltop, Thursday afternoon.

To Enter Nurses' Training Class. Miss Alice Woodworth, who is to take a course of training for nursing last Sunday for New York, where she will spend a few days with relatives before entering the hospital.

Charles A. Chapman is confined to his home on Gay hill with an attack of grip.

Mrs. George C. Chappell, who has been ill with the grip is improving.

Theodore Craig has entered upon a course of study at the New London Business college.

Obituary Notes. Mrs. Charles Totman received news of the death of her mother in Philadelphia.

Miss Helen Conner was a Norwich visitor Saturday.

George L. Ladd was in Norwich on Wednesday.

The Home Missionary society met with Mrs. George Avery and Miss Ella Smith Thursday of last week with quite a large attendance. A quilt was tied during the day.

Supervisor George Emerson visited schools Monday.

Mrs. Martha Weaver has been visiting Mrs. Fred Armstrong.

Silo Blown Down. During the severe wind a week ago the silo belonging to Erie Mitchell was blown down.

Miss Lydia Johnson was a Norwich visitor Wednesday.

Miss Helen Conner was a recent Norwich visitor.

Mrs. Josephine Hart of West Hartford has been spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. A. D. Lamb.

OLD MYSTIC

Master and Scouts Visit Historic Groton—Charles Q. Edge at New York Banquet—Personals.

Scoutmaster Rev. Henry E. Anderson and five members of the wolf patrol, Horace S. Williams, Charlie Thicker, Daniel Gilbert, Elery Davis and Charlie Hartman, left Groton for Hightstown Saturday afternoon to visit the fort and monument. They made the return trip from Groton to Old Mystic by trolley.

Attended New York Banquet. Charles Q. Eldridge of River View returned Sunday from New York city, where he attended the seventh annual meeting of the Renaissance County society held in the Waldorf-Astoria.

With the Church Societies. The Baptist Young People's union met Tuesday evening with Rev. and Mrs. Henry E. Anderson at the Baptist parsonage for the regular monthly business meeting and social.

The annual business meeting of the Baptist church was held Thursday evening at the close of the conference and prayer meeting.

Horace O. Williams has moved to his new location, corner of Main and West Main streets.

A new steam heater was very recently installed at the Old Mystic school building.

J. Alpheus Schoonover of New York is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alpheus H. Schoonover, at Elmhurst.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin L. Mull and Mrs. Aiden have returned to Groton after a visit to Mrs. Mull's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Edwin Stapelton.

Miss Waterbury of Stamford is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Waterbury.

Mrs. P. Alonso Chapman has been spending a few weeks at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Polly, of Wallham, Mass.

Herbert Whiting is suffering from an attack of influenza.

Miss Charlotte Marchand and her guest, Miss Gladys Olmstead, were recent visitors to Mr. and Mrs. Fields of Norwich.

Miss Lydia Main has returned from a visit to her cousin, Mrs. Thomas Brown, of Ashaway.

George Sliswick of Stafford Springs was a recent guest of his brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Sliswick.

Miss Blanche Mull of New London is the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Edwin Stapelton.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee are making their home with their daughter, Mrs. Harry Cole, at the latter place.

The roll call of the First Congregational church is to be held Wednesday evening, Jan. 23.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Pultz and Mr. and Mrs. Ozro Fuller attended the annual grange meeting in New London this week.

Grange Election. At a regular meeting of Lebanon grange, H. the following officers were elected for the coming year: Master, Otto L. Pultz; overseer, Anos J. Lillie; lecturer, Fred N. Taylor; steward, Fred M. Abell; assistant steward, Norman C. Pultz; chaplain, Miss Hattie E. Hewitt; treasurer, O. D. Fuller; secretary, Mrs. Mercy E. Fuller; reporter, Mrs. M. G. Phillips; members of executive committee, E. N. Taylor; member of insurance committee, William B. Howland.

Postmaster Receives First Sunday Mail—Owner of Riverview Starts For Panama.

Chas. H. Brown of Norwich, owner of Riverview place, and Decatur Bluff farm, was a caller here the first of the week before sailing from New York, Wednesday, for a two weeks' trip to Panama and California.

Miss Winnie Turner of East Orange, N. J., visited her aunt, Mrs. Richard Lattimer, for a few days last week.

Mrs. Lucia Brown is having her residence improved, a bay window being added to the dining room.

Mrs. Myra. Mather was a recent guest for the day of her sister, Mrs. Lucretia Mason, in New London.

Mrs. Jesse G. Coe of Ledyard visited relatives and friends at her former home in the village Wednesday.

Mrs. Lucy Hurlbut was a visitor last week at the home of her brother, R. H. Perkins, in New London.

MONTVILLE

Union Baptist Church Holds Annual Meeting—State President Bidwell to Address C. E. Meeting.

The annual business meeting of the Union Baptist church was held Monday evening in the chapel. The pastor, Rev. George C. Chappell, was chairman. Deacons: S. Deary and hymn, "Blest be the Tie that Binds." Mrs. A. P. Mitchell offered prayer.

The clerk, Miss Susie M. Wood, read the minutes of the last annual meeting in March, 1913, and the minutes of all the church meetings since that time. The treasurer's report was read by Miss Wood, assistant treasurer, in the absence of Mrs. Arabella Lattimer. The finance committee brought in an encouraging report through the chairman, Deacon C. S. Henry, and Mrs. Mitchell reported the church active in missionary work. The board of trustees reported through the chairman, Moses Chapman.

The election of officers and committees reported as follows: President, Susie M. Wood; treasurer, Mrs. Arabella Lattimer; assistant treasurer, Mrs. Susie M. Wood; solicitors and collectors, Mrs. Arabella Lattimer and Mrs. A. H. Mitchell; finance committee, Deacon C. S. Henry, N. C. Allen, and George C. E. Simpson; board of trustees, Moses Chapman, Deacon Henry, N. C. Allen, Deacon Edwin S. Henry, and George E. Smith; pastor's advisory board, the deacons; ushers, Mortimer Getchell, Leon Allen, Edward Smith, and Herbert Rogers; missionary committee, Mrs. A. P. Mitchell, through the morning organizer, Miss Grace Hooper; assistant organizer, the choice of the organization committee, Miss Grace Hooper; Thursday evening organizer, Mrs. Melvin Furber; assistant, the pastor's choice.

Miss Lillian Gallin is the guest of relatives in Hartford.

Miss Maude Agnes Wood, who is teaching in West Walling, spent the week end with relatives here.

Will Douglas and Austin Linton of Norwich attended the weekly prayer and preaching services in the Union Baptist church Sunday evening.

State President to Speak. F. C. Bidwell of Hartford, president of the Connecticut Federation of the Union will be the guest of the Union Baptist church, Sunday evening next, January 19, and will address the people in the evening of the 20th service from the topic: "C. E. Silver Linings."

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Union Baptist church held their annual meeting at the Palmer Hotel, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

New Teacher Does Good Work. The new teacher at the Collins District, Miss Mabel Kelley of East Lyme, is having excellent success with her school.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee are making their home with their daughter, Mrs. Harry Cole, at the latter place.

Suprise for Teacher—Welcome Party for Rev. and Mrs. Elmer Lamphere.

The members of Miss Florence Phillips' Sunday school class gave a surprise party to their teacher at her home Tuesday evening. The party was pleasantly spent with games and musical selections, after which cake, coffee and fruit were served.

Mrs. Charles Powers of Chesterfield spent Thursday with her sister, Mrs. W. Y. Chappell.

Welcome Party and Presentation. Friday evening, Jan. 10, a welcome party was given at the home of Rev. and Mrs. G. Elmer Lamphere by recently moved from Mystic to this village, where Mr. Lamphere has taken up residence and will be pastor of the Fitchville Baptist church. Responding to a summons to the door, Rev. and Mrs. Lamphere were greatly surprised to find forty of the young people of the village. They were invited to the house and a second surprise was sprung when the pastor was presented with a purse of money, and other tokens from their friends.

Although taken by surprise, Rev. Mr. Lamphere responded in a pleasing manner, thanking all those who so generously. During the evening Mrs. Lamphere entertained those present with several planing selections on the graphophone and games were enjoyed. Later refreshments were served by Mrs. Charles Phillips assisted by the Ladies' Aid Society, Mrs. M. G. Phillips and Miss Julia Kinberger.

Charles and Walter Thompson of Willimantic were guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Thompson, Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Marra and family, Misses Christina and Rose Marra, and Joseph Marra, spent Sunday with Mrs. Marra's mother, Mrs. Arthur Glassbrenner, of Gardner Lake.

SOUTH LYME

Smith-Slate Marriage—Capt. Luce in Virginia.

Mrs. D. J. Reynolds and Mrs. J. H. Tubbs of New London were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Payne Thayer, in Smith-Slate.

James F. Smith of New London, clerk in G. M. Williams' hardware store, and Ethel Payne Slate of South Lyme were married in New Haven Jan. 9th.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Waterhouse are entertaining friends from Essex.

The King's Daughters met at the home of F. R. Peck this week.

Capt. James F. Luce of Little Boston is on a business trip to Florida.

Mrs. John Roath and daughter have returned to Ivoryton after a visit at their home here.

Mr. and Mrs. William Darling attended the state grange Wednesday.

LEDYARD

Liberal Offer of Prizes for Historical Essays by Public School Pupils—Surprise on Wedding Anniversary.

Edwin C. Reynolds of this town and Providence, offered $10 in cash and a bronze medal to any boy or girl who attends the local schools and who writes a historical essay on the Struggle for American Independence. The Sons of the American Revolution are offering a prize of $100 in cash to any boy or girl in the state who attends school. The essay is on the same subject. A local committee of three, Charles D. Deane, Dr. A. Way and Samuel E. Holdridge, has been appointed to further the project.

Mrs. Isaac G. Geer, who has been visiting friends in Hartford, witnessed the governor's inaugural ball.

Frank G. Maynard killed two pigs recently that weighed nearly 1,000 pounds. Each pig weighed 400. Mr. Maynard dresses the largest pigs in town.

Wedding Anniversary. A surprise for Mr. and Mrs. Albert Keamouth, who have been married five years, was observed by the church at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Main on Rose Hill, where both Mr. and Mrs. Keamouth resided in a month being Mr. and Mrs. Main's daughter. Guests were present from South, Mystic, North Stonington, Norwich, Hartford and other places. A supper of meats, cake and coffee was served. Mr. and Mrs. Keamouth received many presents, including a leather rocker from 12 persons in Popquattuck, money, pictures, a book and a silver tray, silver spoons, etc.

Byers Slocum Farm. Mrs. Clarence Davis has purchased the William Slocum farm in the town of South. It consists of 140 acres and will move there about March 1st.

The Horatio Stillman farm has been secured by Mrs. A. M. Robbins in Norwich.

Rev. Frank S. Robbins of Preston City held a prayer meeting at the residence of Frank G. Maynard Tuesday evening.

Colds are prevalent. Miss Lillian Gallin is the guest of relatives in Hartford.

The state grange in New London Tuesday and Wednesday, some taking the silver tray, silver spoons, etc.

Mrs. Charles Babcock has returned home, having been the guest of relatives in Norwich and Waterford.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Gray, having been called home by the sudden death of her uncle, Austin Gray.

VOLUNTOUN

Giagno Players Entertain Local Audience—Home Whist Club Opens 1913 Season.

Saturday evening a large party of members of St. Anne's church, Giagno, came to this place on a straw ride and gave a pleasing entertainment in Union hall to a good sized audience.

The various characters were well taken and the home with the training of Mrs. Harry Cole, Martial Russ, etc. followed the entertainment. Richards furnished music and Smith prompted.

Attended Norwich Court Session. A large delegation of local residents were in attendance at the session of the superior court in Norwich this week, the majority called as witnesses in the case of the state vs. John F. Frazier Nov. 3d.

Warden J. McCarthy and Town Clerk John Welsh of Jewett City were in town Tuesday.

George W. Rouse of Norwich, an old time resident and former postmaster of this village called on local friends Thursday.

Opening of Whist Season. The Home Whist club held the first meeting of the 1913 season at the residence of John N. Lewis Wednesday evening with a large attendance of members. Following were the winners: Ladies—First, Mrs. E. E. Clark; second, Mrs. E. E. Clark; third, Mrs. E. E. Clark; men—First, E. E. Clark; second, Arthur Briggs.

Death of Mrs. Charles Freeman—Annual Rollcall and Church Election. Edward A. Bishop, has been in New London the past week attending the state grange.

A number of Bozrah grangers were in New London Wednesday evening attending the meeting of the state grange and also to take the sixth degree.

Funeral of Mrs. Charles Freeman. Mrs. Edwin Lathron was in Worcester Friday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Charles Freeman, who died in the latter place in Bozrah.

Rollcall and Election. The rollcall and election of officers of the Second Baptist church, held at the home of Mrs. J. C. Young Tuesday evening. About thirty members were present.

Mrs. Alice D. Abell of Norwich Town attended the state board of education, consisting of Mrs. J. C. Young, in Bozrah.

Mrs. William Corey has returned to her home in Davisville, R. I., after spending six weeks with her parents in Bozrah.

SALEM

State Road Survey Completed to Town Line—Tibbetts House Damaged by Fire—Loss Promptly Adjusted.

NIANTIC

Rev. Jerome Greer, pastor of the Methodist church in New London last week attended the conference of Methodist ministers.

The Niantic public library gave a whist Monday evening in Odd Fellows' hall. There were about forty in attendance, including a delegation from Flanders.

Church Supper. A supper was given Tuesday evening in the vestry of the Congregational church under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid society.

New Machinery Arrives. A large quantity of machinery from New York arrived here Tuesday consigned to one of the factories.

George Congdon is engineer at the Luby factory.

Seth Smith of Riverbank is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Harriet Tyler, in New York.

Sheldon Munger is substituting at the Niantic post office.

Mark D. Bush, Lincoln G. Luce, G. B. Dickinson, have been in New York attending the auto shows at Grand Central Palace and Madison Square Garden.

Herbert Maynard of Chesterfield was in Niantic on business Thursday.

Miss Eleanor Coates of Windsor was in Niantic on business Thursday.

Mrs. G. B. Coates, Thursday. Percy Wheeler is entertaining his brother and Mrs. Harry Gossenger have returned to Bridgeport after a visit to S. O. Harrington.

Mr. C. O. Libby closed their cottage, Wild Air, Saturday. They will pass the winter in Norwich and New York.

Leard Malloy of New London is visiting his uncle, Walter Barker.

Griswold Wheeler has returned to his home in Dingleville after a visit to New York.

Mrs. Eddy of Bridgeport was here Tuesday.

NORTH STONINGTON

State Agent Looking Up School Delinquents—Sermon by Brown University Student.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Man and family have returned from a visit in Brooklyn, N. Y.

A large number of local grangers attended the meetings of the state grange at North Stonington church.

Mrs. W. H. Hillard has been spending the week in Groton.

J. Edwin Thompson has been the guest of relatives in Worcester for a few days.

Miss Dora T. Maitne was called to Providence, Thursday, by the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. E. E. Arnold.

Mrs. E. H. Knowles is confined to her home by illness.

School Board Agent in Town. George J. Mera, agent for the state board of education, has been in town this week, looking after the children of school age who do not attend school.

Wilson S. Dakin of Hartford, superintendent for the state board of education, has been inspecting the town schools.

Brown Student Preaches. Wilbour F. Saunders of Providence, 18 years old, a member of the freshman class of Brown university, preached in the local Baptist church last Sunday.

Brotherhood of the Congregational church gave a birthday party in the vestry Friday evening.

SHUNOC

Beef Supplied to Boston Market—New Judge in Office.

OAKDALE

Meeting of X. L. Club—Sylvester Wade Undergoes Surgical Operation.

Rev. C. L. French preached Sunday from Luke 23:41. Owing to the unfavorable weather the attendance at church was small.

The Cottage Prayer meeting was held Tuesday evening at the home of Francis F. Parker.

The X. L. club met at the parsonage Saturday afternoon.

Sylvester Wade has returned from Danielson where he had a surgical operation performed; he is in a very feeble condition. His son and wife Mr. and Mrs. Jared Wade are caring for him.

Edmund H. Rogers has purchased a new touring car, 30 H. P. in Norwich. Arthur L. Rogers has moved his family from Hartford to the home of his father Albert A. Rogers, where Mr. Rogers has been staying the past year.

LEFFINGWELL

Birthday Party—Local Patient at the Backus Hospital.

About twenty friends of Miss Elsie Beard, who celebrated her fourteenth birthday, a most enjoyable time was spent with games and music, after which daily refreshments were served.

Mrs. Thomas C. Leffingwell is convalescing after a severe attack of grip. Alfred Beebe and his daughter Carolyn, have had the same malady during the past week.

Mrs. Andrew Gardner and Mrs. Samuel Beebe called on Mrs. Katherine Dietz of East Great Plain Monday.

A Mr. Mary Palmer, a sister-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Leffingwell was successfully operated on for appendicitis at the Backus hospital, Tuesday.

PENDLETON HILL

Irving Button and family have moved to the tenement at the Palmer home-stead.

Mrs. Amos Palmer has been spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Beard, in Westley.

Misses Winifred and Cecil Palmer spent over the week with their mother, Mrs. Mary Palmer.

There was no service at the church Sunday, owing to the bad weather.

Edwin Gardner of Bradford spent Sunday at Mrs. James Cooke's.

Alton Mills, who attends Hopkinton High school, is home ill with the grip.

Mrs. and Mrs. William Miner of Ashaway spent Sunday at B. G. Palmer's.

The body of Miss Nancy White was brought to the Hill Monday for burial.

CLARK'S FALLS

Former Pastor Writes a Book.

Horace Palmer and Clarence Palmer were in Westley on business Wednesday.

Alfred M. Clark has his grist mill repaired and is grinding corn.

Frank P. Brown was in the village Monday. At one time he resided here.

A letter received from Charles W. Ray, D. D., of Pennsylvania states that he is very busy reading proof sheets of his new book. At one time he was pastor of the First Baptist church on Washington street in Philadelphia.

NORTH LYME

H. B. Maynard to Leave Norwich Hospital Soon.

COUGH, COLD SORE THROAT

Sloan's Liniment gives quick relief for cough, cold, hoarseness, sore throat, croup, asthma, hay fever and bronchitis.

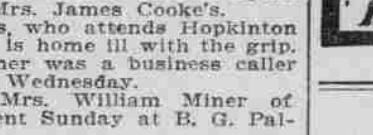

HERE'S PROOF. Mrs. ALBERT W. PALMER of Providence, R.I., writes: "We use Sloan's Liniment in our family and had it an excellent relief for colds and hay fever and croup. It stops coughing and soothes almost instantly."

SLOAN'S LINIMENT

RELIEVED SORE THROAT. Mrs. L. B. BROWN, of Modelo, Fla., writes: "I had a very severe sore throat. Sloan's Liniment and Iridol made me feel good in the world. My throat was red, raw, and it cured me in no time."

GOOD FOR COLD AND COUGHS. Mr. W. H. STRAUXER, 5721 Elmwood Avenue, Chicago, Ill., writes: "I gave my little boy next door had croup. I gave Sloan's Liniment to him and he was better before going to bed, and he got up without any trouble."

Price, 25c., 50c., $1.00

Sloan's Treatise on the Hoarse Sorethroat. Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass.

YAWBUX VALLEY

Mrs. W. H. Hillard was a recent visitor at George Vredenburg's.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Coates spent Monday in Westley.

Mrs. T. E. Main was in Westley Tuesday evening to attend the celebration of the birthday of her father, Alexander Lanworthy at his home on West Brook street.

Mrs. Charles Chapman has been at Stonington several days helping care for her mother, Mrs. Edwin West who is very low.

HAMBURG

Mrs. R. H. Hill and Miss Carrie Hill were in Hartford the first of the week.

A cattle buyer from New Haven was in Lyme and Old Lyme last week buying a carload of cattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Ludovick Bill attended the state grange at New London.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ely entertained Arthur Binnel over Sunday.

Miss Daphne Ely visited her aunt, Mrs. A. B. Bassett, in Hartford, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Sterling visited friends in New London and attended the state grange.

LAUREL GLEN

Dwight Mash was in Voluntown Sunday.