LAST ORDER GIVEN IN MIKE LYONS' CAFE

FAMOUS BOWERY RESTAURANT, DYING FOR YEARS, IS NOW CLOSED UP, BUT HAD BREADLINE TO THE LAST.

New York, March 19.—The famous Mike Lyons' restaurant, at 261 Bowery, is finally dead. Strictly speaking, it has been dead for some time, and dying a much longer time. Preliminary obituaries have been printed at intervals in the last five years. But this is final. The interior fixtures were yesterday sold at auction in connection with Michael F. Lyons' decision to wind up the business for all time.

Lyons' restaurant started business forty years ago in the basement where the later double building stood. It was owned by Cunningham & Lyons, and did a thriving business in corned beef and cabbage. In 1878 "Mike" Lyons became sole owner.

Then for fifteen years Lyons', or "Mike's place", was a noted resort of politicians, characters, and "characters." In those palmy days, when the Bowery was a blaze of light, with 800 concert saloons in an almost unbroken line; when the old Olympic, Tony Pastor's, Niblo's, and Harrigan & Hart's nightly played to full houses; when the St. Regises and the Waldorfs of the day were the old St. Nichols Hotel, the St. Charles, and the Metropolitan; when "Mike" fed from 1,000 to 2,000 persons every night, and opened as many as 400 quarts of champagne between dusk and dawn; when he had no less than $50,000, representing the "boys' rolls" after a friendly game stowed away in the old safe—in these days Lyons' place was a recognized institution and the pride of the Bowery.

As "Mike" used to say, when the town began to move toward Mount Vernon, his restaurant boasted in its time "the biggest aggregation of smart men ever seen at one time and place." Even in later days you could drop in and see the Mayor of the Bowery, Johnny Matthews, swapping truthful yarns with California George, and Broken-Nose Burke a respectful listener.

And there were the camp-followers of Bowery politics then, as in the later days when there was a special table for the Sullivans and their coterie. There were also brawny men of a particularly brawny police force—Thorn and "Dead Line" Byrnes. And John Kelly, too, leader of Tammany Hall, was there, and another Kelly—the original "Honest John."

"The best and the worst," Mike Lyons used to say, "None of 'em too good and none of 'em too bad. Chester Arthur came here and William C. Whitney. But none of 'em are left. If you added 'em all up I guess Mike Lyons would be the total."

One of the habitues Mike sometimes mentioned was Theodore Tilton, author of that poem, each verse of which ends with the line.

Even this shall pass away.

For the last time let it be stated with all reverence that when Mike Lyons opened the place he threw away the key, and not until bad business forced a discontinuance of being open all night did he call in a locksmith to make a new one. Also, for the last time be it told that during the panic of '73 a group of now well known Wall Street men found refuge, bed, board, and Irish stew at "Mike's Place." And, finally, unto the end the bread line did not assemble in vain at 5 A. M. for the left-over scraps which were freely handed out to the Bowery waifs.

Mike Lyon's place was closed a week ago. It is expected that creditors will get 100 cents on the dollar when the business has been finally wound up. When the fixtures are sold today, they may be the only souvenirs left of the Bowery's old pride, for Mike Lyons' restaurant will have been interred.

TWO LYNCHED IN JAIL YARD

(Special from United Press.)

Memphis, March 19.—Charles Richardson and Bob Austin were taken from the jail at Marine, Ark., near here, and lynched in the jail yard yesterday. Few details of the lynching are known beyond the fact that shortly after midight a party of men overpowered Deputy Sheriff Wilford and forcibly took the keys to the jail. Two hours later a crowd went to the jail, seized Richardson and Austin and hanged them to a tree in the jail yard. There was no noise or confusion. The lynching was not discovered until daylight when the bodies were found swinging from the tree.

Both negroes had confessed to taking part in a jail delivery last week in which 12 negroes had escaped.

BOSTON HOLDING CO'S BOND NOT LEGAL FOR SAVINGS BANKS.

Massachusetts Financiers Opposed to What They Call Special Legislation for Class of Securities.

Boston, March 19.—Not a single savings bank man rose in favor of the bill to allow savings banks in Massachusetts to invest in the bonds of the Boston Holding company, when an informal roll was called before the legislative hearing on the subject at the state house Thursday. On the opposition many of the bank men rose.

Financed and controlled by the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, the Boston Holding company was organized last year to take over the Boston and Maine railroad stock held by the New Haven and it now wishes to issue bonds for the improvement of the Boston and Maine road.

William H. Coolidge, attorney for the Boston and Maine, declared that investment would cease if the state did not cease its attack on corporations. The last speaker was J. H. Sturgis, who appeared for the Massachusetts Bankers' association. He said the bankers were not attacking the Boston and Maine, but are merely watching out for their own interests. He declared the bill meant special legislation in favor of a definite class of securities which was a bad precedent, and thought the state should not undertake to give the securities a certificate of character.

DANBURY'S AUTO FIRE APPARATUS STIRS THE TOWN.

Danbury, March 19.—Danbury citizens are today crowing over the fact that the Danbury Fire Department is soon to boast of a brand new automobile combination fire engine and hose wagon. The purchase of such an apparatus in the Pope-Hartford make was decided upon late last evening by the fire committee of the Common Council. The contract will call for an expenditure of about $5,000.

ECZEMA CURED

Pimples Disappear and Complexion Cleared Over-Night

New York.—Thousands are taking advantage of the generous offer made by The Woodworth Co., 1161 Broadway, New York City, requesting an experimental package of Lemola, the new skin discovery, which is mailed free of charge to all who write for it. It alone is sufficient to clear the complexion over night and rid the face of pimples in a few hours.

Those who have tried LEMOLA will find that the 50c box on sale in Bridgeport at all drug stores is sufficient to cure the worst form of Eczema where the parts affected are not too large. On the first application of Lemola the itching will stop. It has cured thousands afflicted with Eczema, Teeters, Rashes, Itchings, Irritations, Acne, Scalings and Crusting of skin, scalps of infants, children and adults. It is good for the preservation and purification of the skin, scalp, hair and hands, for the prevention of the clogging of the pores the usual cause of pimples, blackheads, redness and roughness and also the treatment of burns, scalds, wounds, sores, chappings as well as the toilette and nursery.

It contains no grease and being flesh-colored the presence of Lemola on the face or hands is not perceptible.
