GARRANZA AND CARBAJAL AGREE ON PEACE PLANS

Washington, July 29—General Carranza and Provisional President Carbajal have agreed on a basis for the arrangement of peace in Mexico, according to a message received here today by Jose Castellot, personal representative of Carranza.

El Paso July 29—Rodolfo M. Fierro, the constitutional officer who is generally credited with being connected with the killing of William S. Benton, a British subject last February, was a guest at an El Paso hotel last night. American military authorities were seeking him to order him back across the line, it is thought.

VERDICT IS UNPOPULAR WITH PARISIAN CROWDS

Paris, July 29—Demonstrations against the Caillaux verdict occurred in several places last night. In the boulevard the excited crowds discussing the merits of the case grew to large proportions and when the jury's verdict became known there were shouts of derision and cries of "Down with Caillaux!"

In one section the mob became so disorderly that mounted Republican guards were hastily summoned to assist the police in quelling the disturbances. A large number of police and rioters were injured and many arrests were made. Maurice and Jean Rouland, sons of the dramatist, were among those taken into custody. The Fierro office also was the scene of a demonstration.

After dining at home with her husband and a few friends, Mme. Caillaux, attired in a handsome evening gown, received a number of intimate acquaintances.

"It is Maitre Labori," she said, "to whom I owe the good fortune to be finally free. He pleaded today with all his fine talent, and I am profoundly grateful to him."

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTH THEN FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS.

Overworked kidneys will break down if not helped. When they can no longer protect the blood and the body from the poisons that come to them, then look out for Bright's disease, serious kidney trouble and bladder annoyances. Foley Kidney Pills are your best protection, your best medicine for weak, sore, overworked kidney and bladder weaknesses. Hip-die's Drug Store.—Adv.

BOY WHO WANTED GEESSE GETS FINED

The Frank Walton story about fishermen using "silver bait" to make a good showing at home was duplicated with slight variations at today's city court session when John Corbett, 132 Southright avenue, was fined $5 and Clinton Salmon, 174 Brewster street, $1 for appropriating two geese belonging to Lizzie Horvath, 39 Davis street, without even paying for them. According to the testimony, John had wanted geese for some time and was given $1.50 yesterday by his mother to buy a pair. Clinton went with him. They were unsuccessful in locating any good ones for sale, but came across the Horvath birds. The two exhibited in court as evidence were appropriated and Clinton was paid 50 cents for helping to carry them home. Policeman Barton of the Third precinct station brought geese and boys to court.

Sixteen years old George Previs of 133 Hallam street made another appearance in city court today being charged with burglary in entering Hyman Cohen's market on the same street about 10 days ago. There was a continuance directed until tomorrow. It is not expected that the case will come to trial, as George is now on parole from the Meriden state school for boys. Detective James Bray made the arrest.

Elect New Colonel Of First Regiment

Hartford, July 29—Lieut. Col. Richard J. Goodman was elected colonel of the First Infantry, C. N. G., at the election held today, receiving 20 votes to Major Edward E. Lamb's 13. No vacancy occurring in the office of major as Major Lamb was not elected colonel. He remains the senior major. There is a vacancy in the office of lieutenant colonel as no one received a majority vote. The names of Major Lamb and Major John L. Purcell appeared on the ballots for lieutenant colonel and there were several blank ballots and the regulations require election by a majority of the votes cast.

Compensation Judge Gets Compensation

Hartford, July 29—Compensation Commissioner George B. Chandler, of the first district, has awarded compensation of $100 for burial expenses and doctors' bills of Mattie E. Torrey, a negro, cook for Dr. Burstein, who conducts the Castle Craig Sanitarium, Southington. The negro was burned to death July 4 while starting the kitchen fire. In an ante-mortem statement, she denied that she had used kerosene and the commissioner found the evidence contradictory.

The relief fund for the Salem fire sufferers passed the $600,000 mark.

"Accidental Death" Verdict Predicted

Although a finding of "accidental" death is expected in the inquest held yesterday by Coroner John J. Phelan into the death of little Leonard Iannucci, 189 Alex street, the papers in the case may probably not be filed for several days, owing to the pressure of business before the coroner, who is preparing to take a few weeks vacation from the affairs of the State. As a result of the testimony given yesterday it is believed that William Keough, of the firm of Keough & McLevy, wholesale liquor dealers, may be released from the bonds under which he has been held by the authorities. The belief now obtains that the child was playing beneath the wagon and that none saw her as the horses started.

Autoist Not Blamed For Injury to Girl, Is Freed by Court

Ralph H. Holcomb of Fairfield, was found not guilty of the reckless operation of an automobile July 9, by Judge Coughlin at today's city court session. It was a continued hearing of charges growing out of the running down of Miss Florence McLaughlin, Jackson avenue, on Main street in front of Howland's. Miss McLaughlin has been confined to St. Vincent's hospital and appeared very lame when appearing in court today. Holcomb was represented by Attorney Sanford Stoddard. It was testified that Holcomb was running carefully and that the girl ran out from behind a truck directly in front of the automobile. Judge Coughlin said that while autoists must observe and respect the rights and safety of pedestrians, that there are certain precautions that pedestrians must observe, particularly when crossing a street between crosswalks.

CITROLAX GIVE IT TO THE CHILDREN.

RECEIVER FOR VALENTINE BOHL CO. OF WATERBURY

The Valentine Bohl Co., of Waterbury, one of the biggest wholesale beef concerns in the Naugatuck valley, went into the hands of a receiver this morning, following a hearing in chambers before Judge Curtis of the superior court. Fletcher W. Judson, assistant cashier of the Waterbury National bank, was appointed temporary receiver under bonds of $30,000.

Valentine Bohl, president and general manager, said the concern was in financial difficulties and could not continue until more money was secured. Checks amounting to $3,000 or $4,000 had been protested. The casual stock of the company is $119,000 of which Bohl owns $85,000 worth.

The next hearing will be held before Judge Case in Hartford Aug. 17.

COL. MURPHY TO ACT ON COMMITTEE FOR NATIONALIST CAUSE

Col. T. J. Murphy has been appointed to the national committee of the National Volunteer Movement for Home Rule in Ireland. With others of the organization, following the killing of several in the streets of Dublin, Sunday, he is actively engaged in securing funds for the Nationalist cause, and that those of Irish descent in this country will subscribe bountifully has already been shown in Philadelphia, which has raised $10,000 and other Irish cities. The committee, comprising members from New England and other parts of the United States, on which Col. Murphy represents Connecticut, will meet at the Murray Hill hotel, New York City, Thursday afternoon, when ways and means will be discussed for raising a vast fund to be sent to Ireland. Sir Roger Casement, one of the Home Rule leaders and a delegate to the A. O. H. convention at Atlantic City, will address the committee. An effort is being made to have Sir Roger visit Bridgeport before his return to Ireland.

CITY COURT CASES

Averges Armenis of Water street was fined $10 and costs by Judge Coughlin at today's city court session for assault upon Nicholas Salecia, 590 Southright street, the trouble resulting, it was testified, over request for payment of a loan of 20 cents. A weight and knife were the implements of warfare. Attorney Clitus H. King appeared for the defense. Following the hearing, George Blewie of 23 Bank street, informed Prosecuting Attorney Delaney that he lost his job in M. Howie's buckle shop on North Washington avenue on account of attending yesterday's court session, to testify in the case. Lieutenant Suckley was instructed to call up Blewie's employers and explain the circumstances.

Continued non-support charges against Philip Dollard of 210 Black Rock avenue were hotted, as it was reported that he is acting to the satisfaction of the probation officers.

Thirteen years old Helen Shumsky of 148 Helen street, charged with being incorrigible, was held for investigation by Mrs. Isaac Burgess, probation officer.

Max Butkatchow of Henry street was fined $1 for riding an unlighted bicycle while Daniel Capozzi, 132 Willard street, was turned over to the care of the charities department for examination into his mental condition.

Mrs. Capozzi was responsible for his arrest after he had told her wild tales of having been taken down cellar at his home and harshly treated. James Janico, 25 Hallett street, was fined $10 and costs; Tony Defora, 33 Hallett street, was fined $5 for breach of the peace.

John Mchesky, alias Harry Smith, of 184 Hallam and 83 Cannon streets, was held for superior court to answer charges of entering Special Policeman Harris Kahn's home. Bonds were fixed at $500. He was defended by George F. Mara.

BRIEF ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

A telephone message was received at police headquarters today from the authorities of Burlington, Vt., asking that Bonedet LaFrance, supposed to be working in a local shop, be located and notified of her uncle's sudden death. Her immediate presence is desired at home. Captain Rogan located a girl by that name working in Warner Bros. corset factory and she was notified.

For over a week 11 years old Maria Smith, 840 Dewey street, has been suffering from a fractured right collar bone, received in a fall caused by slipping on a banana peel. Last night she called at the emergency hospital for treatment.

The racing mast and boom of the cup challenger Shamrock IV, arrived in New York on the steamer Minnowaska. The mast and boom are of steel and are valued at $10,000.

THE FRANKFORD CHRONICLE.

(A Pike County Piece.)
Joe Tapley, of Bowling Green, was in town Friday, returning from Spencerburg.—From The Frankford Chronicle.
Picked up a little country sheet somewhere, I did today; I used to read it on the farm, when I was forkin' hay. Along 'bout thirty years ago, I hadn't seen it since. For all these years I've been perusin' these here city prints.
By jing! The Frankford Chronicle, I'm mighty glad to know, Is still a chronicleing events The same as long ago.
The "Personal Column," bears to me, is purty much the same. I'm pleased to death to find in it that old familiar name, Joe Tapley, W. he practiced law in Bowlin' Green when I Was hooin' taters up the creek, and loafin' on the sly.
An' here he is: "Joe Tapley, Of Bowling Green was in Town Friday." Makes me pine to hoo That tater patch agin'!
And here's a piece about a dance at Frankford Opry House. I rickollect one I went to, when timid like a mouse I tried to partner Lucy Smith at that there gay fandango. (Ah, that was long before the day of Bunny Hug an' Tango!
"A dance is to be given At the Opera House tonight," It says. Say fellers, what's the why I hain't got no invite?
Now, lemme see, his name was Jones, the editor, them days. Alas! I reckon long ago he quit these earthly ways— Or maybe went to Congress * * * Here's the editorial page— An' ole Bill Jones' name is there! (I wonder what's his age?)
Yes, "William E. Jones, Editor," An' The Frankford Chronicle states "On application," you can git His advertiser' rates. —Robertus Love in the St. Louis Republic.

MARINES AT GUANTANAMO AND BATTLESHIP AT HAYTI TO ACT IN REVOLUTION

1. MARINES' CAMP AT GUANTANAMO. 2. CAPT. RUSSELL. 3. SOUTH CAROLINA.

Washington, July 24—Freed by American government has been deferred. Reports from Cape Haytien of further fighting, with added danger to foreigners, were regarded as forecasting prompt action by the marines now concentrating at Guantanamo. Not only have the military forces in Hayti refused to heed the warnings of the American government that fighting should cease and property be protected, but dispatches from Captain Eberle of the cruiser Washington, at Puerto Plata, Santo Domingo, also reported the failure of attempts to settle the Dominican revolution by diplomacy. Secretary Daniels decided that the additional 400 marines to be sent to Guantanamo, Cuba, for service at Hayti would be embarked from Norfolk on the transport Hancock, now on the way to Hampton Roads from Guantanamo. There are now more than 500 marines at Guantanamo or on American warships in Haytian and Dominican waters.
