ROSES AND CRYSTALS

There is a prophecy of summer in this mid-winter evening gown. The accordian-pleated skirt of changeable light green and white silk is veiled by a draped tunic of cream white chiffon, caught up at the side with a rose and spangled with crystal beads, which are massed toward the lower edge.

The girdle of green mirror velvet closes at the side under a pink rose, and smaller roses trail down the skirt. Around the neck and sleeves are rhinestones set singly, and a pleated band of pale blue maline outlines the decolletage.

New London—Because Pine Grove has become a summer resort, the Connecticut Spiritualist Camp Meeting Association has voted to change its name to the Pine Grove Association.

New Haven—After Sergt. W.H. Tighe, of the local police department, took the examination for captainty, he collapsed and is suffering from a nervous breakdown.
