LITTLE BEAUTY CHATS

BY BLANCHE BEACON
A Bitter Enemy to Beauty

Winter seems to be the month for styes, although why this is I know not, unless it be that over-heated rooms, an unvaried bill of fare and little exercise stir up humors in the blood...

Ice is an old-fashioned remedy that is frequently efficacious. Applied frequently to the eyelids, it will, oftentimes, succeed in scattering the styes.

were in plain evening dress. Next Wednesday will be calendar day in the town court when Judge Charles H. Peck will try the three liquor cases now on the docket.

The funeral of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Russo was held Wednesday morning from the Church of the Assumption. Interment was in the Catholic cemetery on King street.

Next Wednesday will be calendar day in the town court when Judge Charles H. Peck will try the three liquor cases now on the docket.

There is an evident disposition to obtain better speakers for public meetings than has been the habit in the past. The coming of Miss Edna Wilkinson of the nonparty meetings in Wall street, New York, is one of the first of these evidences.

The town will probably be called upon to make good the damage caused by the deplorable condition of California street. Women have damaged their clothing while floundering through the mud and have also become entangled in the bushes and briars which line the street where the sidewalks should be.

Red Men's hall will be crowded this evening to hear Miss Inez Millholland talk about woman suffrage. Not only the members of the organization, but the public has displayed much interest.

The Ladies Aid society of the Westport M. E. church held an All Day session, Wednesday, in the church parlors. The day was spent sewing, a luncheon being served.

A surprise party was tendered Dr. and Mrs. Charles Hyde at their home on Tuesday evening. The time was delightfully spent with music, games and refreshments.

David Russell of New York was a recent visitor at the home of his sisters on Willow street.

Some of the people were quite excited on Wednesday when they saw a pair of black horses running past their places. Several tried to catch them but they were not to be tamed.

The Dorcas Society of the Baptist church held a meeting at their hall on Thursday afternoon. They tackled a quilt for Mrs. Clarence B. Andrews after which a business meeting was held and a fine supper served.

Miss Dorothy Gillette has returned to her home at Adams Corners, having spent a few days as guest of her cousin Mrs. Ira Andrews in Stratford.

Miss M. Henrietta Davidson is spending a few days as guest of her parents in New Haven.

The Boy's club will play basketball at the Town hall this evening. They now have their suits and will appear in full dress.

Chilled and wet feet result in congesting the internal organs and inflammation of the kidneys and bladder, with rheumatic twinges and pain in the back generally follow.
