NEWTOWN

Newtown, March 20—E. J. Thrall, Jr., who formerly ran a shoe repair shop at the Bulls Head, and lately at Printing House Square, has opened a new establishment in Blackman block, Sandy Hook.

Our aged townsman, Samuel Tilson, convalescing rapidly from a severe attack of the grip.

District Deputy Charles Beach of New Milford was present last night at the regular meeting of Hiram lodge, F. & A. M., at Sandy Hook, also visiting brothers from Monroe to see the M. M. degree exemplified.

Miss Leona Brady who has been a guest at St. Joseph's rectory, returned last evening to her home, after a pleasant visit.

The report in The Farmer of yesterday of the death of Edward F. Keane, of 677 Union avenue, Bridgeport, was read with regret by many friends here, many of whom will attend the funeral today. The family once lived in Haverhill district and were highly respected. The father, Martin Keane, was killed by the cars several years ago, and is buried in St. Rose's cemetery, Newtown.

The Misses Gertrude and Catherine, children of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Crowe, of Botsford, have the measles, under care of Dr. Wales of Monroe.

Most of the public schools in town closed yesterday for Holy Week observances.

Mrs. Daniel J. Keane, Master John F. Keane and Louise Keane, of Dayton street, attended the funeral of Mrs. Martin T. Keane of Bridgeport, a relative, Saturday, returning last night from the home of mourning.

Mrs. John Finnell of Zoar is now considered out of danger, and her friends look for an early and complete recovery.

The bill to consolidate the school districts of Newtown, presented to the General Assembly by Representative Hall of New Milford, is not meeting with the easy sledding anticipated by its author. Both representatives from this town refused to present it, and signify their intention to appear against it in committee hearings. Besides as it does not provide for the referendum its fate may be easily predicted. The referendum as a political doctrine of all parties is now too strongly imbedded in the political consciousness of men to be overlooked in any case. Newtown has voted nay to the proposition twice already, and the scheme to force consolidation on an unwilling electorate will have few supporters, it is believed, in Hartford.

Nothing has been heard about the model side-hill school proposition of the Smith-Scudder-George combination in Hartford, so far, and it looks as though Middle School district will have to worry along for a spell longer with its two ancient landmarks of learning. North Middle school will still obstruct the view of the back yards of the denizens of the Boulevard, while South Middle school will still stand in the confines of Scudder Park.

Judge Ephraim D. Eriscoe of Botsford Hill shipped today from Botsford three large boulders from the glacial deposits south of his residence, to Missouri, to be used for monumental work by the Blakeman family, natives of Newtown. Two ox-teams were used in carting each block. The boulders

U. S. SOLDIERS IN HAWAII NEED MUCH TRAINING

Washington, March 20—Inadequate knowledge of topography of Hawaii by United States soldiers and lack of marching power to get over difficult mountain tracts in the islands might mean disaster to the United States in time of war in the opinion of Brig. General Montgomery M. MacComb, commanding the department of Hawaii.

"Not until such knowledge and skill are acquired," says General MacComb in his annual report made public, today, "can the infantry station in Oahu be considered truly efficient. On account of the large number of recruits in both regiments and the comparatively recent arrival of one of those troops at this writing they have much to learn to bring them to the state of efficiency desired."

"The fact of being stationed practically on the terrain over which they will be required to operate in time of war gives the local troops an opportunity to gain an advantage over an enemy which should not be lost."

WILSON TAKES BUTLER TO TASK FOR FLIPPANT REFERENCE TO GOVERNOR

Hartford, March 20—The chief item of interest to come before the committee on insurance yesterday afternoon was a bill concerning the insurance of state property. The bill, which was introduced by Senator McDonough, provides that no insurance shall hereafter be taken on any building owned by the state, or on which it has a lien. Dale D. Butler, president of the Connecticut Association of Fire Insurance Agents, was the principal speaker in opposition to the proposed measure.

Mr. Butler characterized the bill as schoolboyish and impractical. He did not think that any sane person could favor such a bill. Representative

E. H. DILLON & CO.

Lynn Wilson, a member of the committee shouted indignantly: "This bill was drawn up by his Excellency the Governor; do you want us to understand that he is not sane?"

"No, but—" "Do you mean to insinuate that he was not sane when he drew up the bill?" Mr. Butler quickly denied that he had tried to cast any aspersions on the governor and said that what he wanted "the committee to understand was that no sane person could favor such a bill, after having the matter under full consideration."

OBITUARY

Mrs. Jennie Bolnay, wife of Edward J. Bolnay, of 572 Central avenue, died yesterday at Bridgeport hospital after a long illness of kidney trouble. She was 24 years old and is survived by her husband and one child.

Catherine, wife of Dennis Shea, of 206 Catherine street, died yesterday after a brief illness of pneumonia. News of her death was a distinct shock to many friends who deeply mourn her loss. She was a faithful member of St. Augustine's church and was active in the church work. Besides her husband, she leaves three daughters, Annie Shea, Mrs. John E. Barton and Mrs. Robert Pettit, and one son, William Shea.

Eleanor, infant daughter of Nicholas C. and Elizabeth Moffitt, died this morning at the home of her parents, 1149 William St., after a few days illness of pneumonia. The parents have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in their sad bereavement.

CITY COURT CASES

The effect of the beautiful spring day yesterday was reflected in the city court this morning when facing Judge Carl Foster only two prisoners were brought to the bar. One inebriated woman who was given a ten day sentence and Thomas Collins, arrested for vagrancy were the unfortunate pair. Collins was committed for a period of sixty days.

John Schneider and Willis Tillman, charged with trespassing upon railroad property were released by the prosecutor as insufficient evidence to justify the issuance of a warrant was at hand.

Hang the Fixtures High and Use Switches

BECAUSE

- First—The source of light is removed from the direct range of vision.
- Second—A better distribution is obtained within the candle power limits of the lamp.
- Third—The space to be lighted presents a roomier appearance by reason of the fixtures being hung higher.
- Fourth—The danger of the lamp and reflector being struck by a person passing beneath them is eliminated.
- Fifth—None of the light from the lamp is wasted by being absorbed at the floor.
