ANTI-SUFFRAGISTS RALLY STRONGLY THROUGH AT CAPITOL ON SECOND DAY OF HEARING STIMULATES INTEREST AMONG LEGISLATORS

Hartford, March 20.—Interest in the votes-for-women controversy at legislative hearings on this much mooted subject became warmer than ever about the Capitol today following the memorable hearing of the opponents of the principle in the House chamber yesterday afternoon...

So great was the throng pressing about the doors for admission that the members of the House, immediately on its adjournment to go way to the committee hearing, literally had to fight their way out.

Following the general plan of the pro-suffragists, the anti-suffragists were led by Mrs. Daniel A. Markham of Hartford, who made an introductory speech and then introduced the various speakers. Chief among the women orators was Miss Price of Cleveland...

At the outset she replied to the assertion made that 50,000 votes were cast for woman's suffrage in the 1890s. She said it was not so. Those votes were cast for Theodore Roosevelt, Eugene H. Chafin, and Eugene Debs because they were cast for the platform of those parties...

Those 50,000 no more voted for woman's suffrage than every man who voted for Woodrow Wilson voted against a third term for Theodore Roosevelt. She said one speaker said equal suffrage was revolution. Miss Price said it was, but not economic revolution but a political and social revolution.

The attempt of Patrick Flahaven to open a saloon at 187 Stratford avenue had met with great opposition on the part of East End Manufacturers and other taxpayers in that section. A big remonstrance against the application has been filed with the county commissioners...

PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION HERE Holds Hearing In Council Chamber on Petition of Warner Bros. Co.

A meeting of the Public Utilities commission is being held in the Common Council chamber this afternoon, having begun at 3:30 to consider the petition of the Warner Brothers Co., through the Common Council, to construct spur or commercial tracks from the new freight house on Whiting street, to the New Haven tracks on Singer avenue.

The petition which was first submitted to the council on January 13, 1912, requesting permission to put in a side-track running from their new freight house, Main and Whiting Sts. across Whiting street and through a section of Singer avenue to the freight house of the New Haven road.

In accordance with the usual custom the council petitioned the Public Utilities commissioners to authorize the construction of tracks on the highway and a public hearing was announced.

Mrs. Fricilla Lyons, the owner of considerable property on Singer avenue will, through her counsel, John J. Cullinan enter strenuous objections to the laying of any tracks in that thoroughfare. Marsh, Stoddard & Day, appearing for the Warner Bros. Co., proposed an alternative route which is to cross Whiting street, east of Singer avenue.

The members of the commission are John H. Hart, South Glastonbury, Theodore B. Ford, of Bridgeport and Richard T. Higgins, of Winsted.

Manufacturers Are Opposed to License For Flahaven's Hotel

The attempt of Patrick Flahaven to open a saloon at 187 Stratford avenue had met with great opposition on the part of East End Manufacturers and other taxpayers in that section. A big remonstrance against the application has been filed with the county commissioners...

Among those who signed the remonstrance are the Manufacturers Association, the Connecticut Electric Manufacturing Co., The United Foundry & Machine Co., Weldrich Bros., Whiting Manufacturing Co., and the Henckels Lace Co.

Flahaven says he intends to conduct a hotel in a new cement building near the Eastern junction of Stratford and Connecticut avenues and he desires to sell liquor in connection with his hotel business.

Another remonstrance to be heard next week is the one filed against the application of Michael McPadden, who wants to transfer his license from Water street to 184 Main street. This hearing will be held March 28.

D. A. R. MEMBERS CRITICISE ACTION OF PLEDGED VOTE

Hartford, March 20.—Hartford members of the Daughters of the American Revolution are inclined to criticize the action of the prudential committee of the national organization in sending out a circular letter asking that delegates to the 22d continental congress of the D. A. R., to convene in Washington, April 14, 1913, to pledge themselves to vote for Mrs. John R. Horton, of Buffalo, for president-general.

The delegates and alternates to represent Ruth Wyllys Chapter have already been selected and will go to Washington unpledged.

There is to be a general meeting of the regents, delegates and alternates of the Connecticut chapters with Lady Fenwick Chapter, of Cheshire, in the First Congregational church in that town, Tuesday, at which plans for attending the congress will be discussed.

GENSUS COTTON CROP

Washington, March 20.—The 1912 cotton crop amounted to 14,225,000, equivalent to 560 pound bales including linters, the census bureau announced today. Running bales included 14,076,430.

As the vote for woman is a constitutional matter this answer was more or less satisfactory to suffragists and to non-suffragists. As there had been a suggestion made in the committee by the suffragists that it proposed to amend the constitution, if called for by a demand of thousands, should be allowed to go to a referendum, the committee asked the Judge what he thought the only duty of the committee was to decide the question of woman suffrage on its merits, intricate...

KING GEORGE'S MURDER STIRS ALL GREECE, BUT NO POLITICAL PLOT IS UNEARTHED

THE NEW KING CONSTANTINE THE NEW QUEEN SOPHIA LATE KING GEORGE NEW RULER AND FAMILY An elephant's palate is very delicate, and the animal is whimsical in selecting or rejecting morsels of food. A writer tells of an incident humorously illustrative of the whims of a tame elephant belonging to the police of Dhaka. This elephant was fed with rice and plantains. The stems of the plantains were split and cut into transverse sections two feet in length. Three-quarters of a pound of rice was placed within each tube of plantain stem. One day while the elephant was being fed some one offered it a small sweet biscuit. It was taken in the trunk and almost immediately thrown on the ground. The mahout, thinking that the elephant had behaved rudely, picked up the biscuit and inserted it in a parcel of rice within a plantain stem. This was placed in the beast's mouth, and at the very first crunch it appeared its disgust by refusing the whole meal. The small biscuit had disgusted the animal, and for several minutes it tried by its inserted trunk to take out every stem from its tongue and throat. Harper's Weekly. A Comb in the Claw. Many birds possess a useful comb in the claw of the middle toe of the foot. This has been noticed in owls, nightjars, herons, bitterns, cormorants, egrets, etc. It has been explained as a means of holding the prey securely. The comb is sometimes replaced by a curved blade with teeth, which run along the inner side of the claw. Such a blade is found in scissorbirds, wild ducks, gulls, stiltings and many other birds. Where a comb is required the inner edge of this blade becomes divided into teeth. Young nightjars or goatsuckers have only the blade, but old ones have a well developed comb. The Intelligent Bohemian Lila. Cosot, the French landscape painter, was a model of consistent Bohemianism of the best kind. When his father said, "You shall have 250 a year, your plate at my table and be a painter or you shall have 50,000 to start with if you will be a shipkeeper," his choice was made at once. He remained always faithful to true Bohemian principles, fully understanding the value of leisure. Doing Him a Favor. Perturbed Diner—What on earth is the matter with you this evening, waiter? First you give me the fish and now after the fish you give me the soup. Waiter (condemningly)—Well, to tell the truth, sir, it was 'fish' that you 'ad that fish—London Sketch. He Does, He Does. STRIKERS GET MOST OF DEMANDS

Rochester, March 20.—Striking garment workers returned to work this morning in all of the clothing factories here, following their vote, last night, to accede to the terms recommended by the State board of arbitration. As many workers were given their old places as there was room for and the manufacturers promised that others shall be accommodated as soon as places can be found for them. The State board of arbitration has promised, also, that there shall be no discrimination made against members of the United Garment Workers of America. The situation is regarded as a victory for the strikers inasmuch as they have gained a majority of their demands.

Auburn, N. Y., March 20.—One thousand employees of the Columbian Rope Manufacturing Company, after presenting demands for increased pay and reinstatement of two discharged employees, which are to be answered on Monday, went on strike today. The strikers are Italians and Poles.
