NUMEROUS REQUESTS FOR INFORMATION IN REGARD TO FOURTH-CLASS POSTOFFICES

(By Congressman Clyde H. Tavenner.) Washington, May 31.—The mail of nearly every member of Congress is nearly clogged with requests for information relative to the filling of fourth-class postoffices. Here is the information most sought:

Q. What was the Taft order pertaining to 4th class postmasters? A. It was an executive order made on Oct. 15, 1912, placing all fourth-class postmasters under Civil Service without an examination.

Q. What was the effect of this order? A. It meant each 4th Class Postmaster in the U. S. then in office would hold the office indefinitely regardless of his fitness or qualifications, vacancies of course to be filled based on a competitive examination.

Q. Wherein was this order unfair? A. It put postmasters under Civil Service who had received their appointment by virtue of political considerations and took no account of merit whatsoever.

Q. What is the "Wilson Way"? A. President Wilson, on May 7, 1913, issued an executive order amending the Taft order, which provided that in all 4th class postoffices where the compensation is $180 per year or over, there shall be held an open competitive examination by the Civil Service Commission, the result of which shall be certified by the Commission to the Postmaster General. The Postmaster General shall appoint one of the three receiving the highest rating.

Q. How are they appointed when the compensation is under $180? A. By the Postmaster General based upon a report made by a post-office inspector.

Q. Who holds these examinations? A. Local examining boards are appointed by the Civil Service Commission to conduct the examination.

Q. When will these examinations be held? A. It is impossible to tell at this time; but they will be held as soon as the Department can take care of the work, and as the needs of the service require.

Q. Where are examinations held? A. At the most convenient point. Q. How does one make application for examination? A. After an examination is announced the applicant secures, upon request, at the local postoffice, form 1753, which is the proper blank to be filled out and which contains full information pertaining to the examination.

Q. What is the nature of the examination? A. It covers elementary arithmetic, penmanship, letter writing, copy-press tests, together with statement as to facilities for transacting the business of the office.

Q. How can one get more complete information pertaining to this matter? A. By writing to the "Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C.," asking for copies of form 1752 and 1753, which contain instructions to applicants and rules and regulations governing appointments, or by writing your Member of Congress.

The contrasting top shown is again exploited in an Oxford gray cloth upper on the dull, cast vamp. Some lingerie frocks are of eyelid embroidery over a foundation of colored lines of sheer quality. The fancy buckle of cut steel is adopted as the favorite trimming on satin or patent leather slippers. The successful summer wardrobe should contain one of the charming separate straps of brocaded silk.
