WE ARE SEVEN

(William Wordsworth)
A simple child,
That lightly draws its breath,
And feels its life in limb,
What should it know of death?

I met a little cottage Girl;
She was eight years old, she said;
Her hair was thick with many a curl
That clustered round her head.

She had a rustic, woodland air,
And she was wildly clad,
Her eyes were fair, and very fair,
Her beauty made me glad.

"Sisters and brothers, little Maid,
How many may you be?"
"How many? Seven in all," she said,
And wondering looked at me.

"And where are they? I pray you tell."
She answered, "Seven are we;
And two of us at Conway dwell,
And two are gone to sea."
"Two of us in the church-yard lie,
My sister and my brother;
And in the church-yard cottage, I
Dwell near them with my mother."

"You say that two at Conway dwell,
And two are gone to sea,
Yet ye are seven! I pray you tell,
Sweet Maid, how may this be?"
Then did the little Maid reply,
"Seven boys and girls are we;
Two of us could own an unwrinkled skin
If they would but take care of it.
It would not do to say that wrinkles will never come, but I do assert that they need not put in appearance before the sixtieth year and even then they can be kept well nigh invisible
if they be rubbed, smoothed and kneaded with the finger tips, and a nourishing emollient cream be used.

"Uncontrolled facial muscles are responsible for many a wrinkled face. Unnecessary frowning, scowling, worrying and even laughing are responsible too. The bad habit of making faces when you write, sew or talk. Really though, how few of us can control our facial muscles, and lacking in this the next best thing and surest is regular daily massage and face patting with the emollient cream which I and thousands use so successfully."

The first that died was sister Jane;
In bed she moaning lay,
Till God released her of her pain;
And then she went away.

"So in the church-yard she was laid;
And when the grass was dry,
Together round her grave we played,
My brother John and I.

"And when the ground was white with snow,
And I could run and slide,
My brother John was forced to go,
And he lies by her side."

"How many are you, then," said I,
"If they two are in Heaven?"
Quick was the little Maid's reply,
"O master! we are seven."

"But they are dead; those two are dead!
Their spirits are in Heaven!"
"Twas throwing words away; for still
The little Maid would have her will,
And said, "Nay, we are seven!"

WRINKLE HINTS.

While a smooth, pretty skin is the exception after thirty, nine women out of ten could own an unwrinkled skin if they would but take care of it. It would not do to say that wrinkles will never come, but I do assert that they need not put in appearance before the sixtieth year and even then they can be kept well nigh invisible if they be rubbed, smoothed and kneaded with the finger tips, and a nourishing emollient cream be used.

MEMORIZE THESE RULES.

Never massage for more than fifteen minutes at any one time. Do not forget that a heavy massage reduces fat and a light massage, or patting movement encourages the formation of flesh. Do not allow the skin to become dry as this spells wrinkles. Use plenty of massage cream, as the skin pores need to be fed lavishly. Avoid irritating soaps containing alkali. Protect the skin with a disappearing cream before going out into the weather.

Madam X asks: "Will you please give me some advice? I am 40, and little wrinkles are appearing on my forehead, about my eyes and at the corners of my mouth, and my skin seems to be getting dry and colorless. Please advise."

How to be Beautiful
Secrets of Health and Beauty
By Claire Ainsworth

NOTE—If the reader does not find the information wanted in the questions answered below, just address a letter to Miss Claire Ainsworth, 40 Patterson Bldg., Dayton, Ohio, enclosing self-addressed stamped envelope, and she will gladly advise on health and beauty problems.

Miss Ainsworth is noted for her marvelous beauty, as well as famous as a talented concert singer, and artists the world over rave at her beauty and have sought her for their masterpieces. She frankly admits that here is a cultivated, but natural, beauty, and no "make-up" is ever used. The articles and preparations mentioned are on sale by all wholesale druggists, large retail and department stores, or any accommodating dealer can obtain them for you.

Answer: "Read my little 'preachment on wrinkles' above and then obtain a jar of gloriol emollient. Massage the wrinkles very thoroughly twice daily and use plenty of this emollient cold cream. Continue the use of the cream and supply the nourishment needed indefinitely."

Billie B. asks: "I am terribly disfigured by pimples, blackheads and sallow, greasy skin. My blood is bad too. What is best to use to regain a pretty complexion?"

Answer: "Locally for complexion, use the scientific treatment consisting of gloriol glowne (instead of soap) gloriol emollient, cold cream and gloriol balm vanishing cream, as per directions which accompany each."

"Also begin taking one grain quinine tablets which act on the blood and clear the face of pimples, etc. You should continue this treatment and the care of your skin if you wish to retain a pretty complexion and it may take several months to restore a healthy skin."

Alma T. asks: "I would like a treatment for the hair and scalp to beautify and increase the growth and lustre. My hair is dead looking and comes out too much. Can you give a reliable formula?"

Answer: "I have frequently answered your question but will repeat it. Obtain one-half ounce concentrated hairdressing powder, and dissolve it in a pint of water. Then apply it to the hair and scalp twice daily, massaging the scalp with the finger tips. To stain or darken the hair, use the same powder of hairdressing, but dissolve it in a pint of coffee which has been filtered or strained. The coffee can be made weak or strong as the color may be desired."

Mrs. K. K. asks: "Suppose one is too busy to devote about 20 or 30 minutes, what medicine is best and safest to use, and how quickly effective?"

Answer: "Obtain of a well-stocked drugstore one or more tubes of five-grain phy-thy-rin tablets and take as per directions. On a circular in the tube is a diet which is also helpful. Three or four months should show a satisfactory reduction of this treatment. This will enable you to endure the summer heat."

Mrs. Alice R. asks: "How about superfluous hair on face and arms? Is there any safe preparation to rid one of such blemishes?"

Answer: "One of the best and most reliable depilatories is fluvol powder, sold in sealed vials. It is both harmless and instantly effective. Beware of many caustic preparations or you may replace the hair with unsightly scars.

Lady Clerk asks: "How can I prevent chapping windburn, etc., of face and hands?"

Answer: Apply gloriol balm vanishing cream each time, before going out into the weather. It is splendid to preserve and protect the skin."

Mildred asks: "Can you advise a good face soap?"

Answer: "I think toilet soaps as a rule are all right. I use and recommend a delightful, cleansing 'water massage' by name gloriol glowne. Try it and you will like it."

Mrs. T. V. W. asks: "Please tell me what to do to improve the appearance of my bust and to all hollow in neck and shoulders?"

Answer: "Obtain medicated venosol and massage the parts regularly twice daily using the rotary movement and the patting or slapping movement afterwards. There is nothing better that I know of. Let me hear from you after giving this a thorough trial."

Miss Bertie B. asks: "Is there anything which will keep the hair wavy and in curl for days at a time?"

Answer: "Yes, I use gloriol wavy-tone, a pleasant, easily applied, invisible preparation which has pleased hundreds of my correspondents. It improves the hair and often creates a permanent wavy growth."

Miss B. B. asks: "When I shampoo my hair, it looks well but the next day it gets oily and stringy. What is a good dry shampoo and will this overcome the oily appearance?"

Answer: "A good dry shampoo restores the hair to natural lustre and removes the excess oil. Try this splendid formula. Two ounces of antiseptic vilane powder mixed with 4 ounces of powdered orris root. Use one or two tablespoonfuls. Sprinkle through the hair at night and in the morning comb and brush all of it out."

Harriet C. asks: "I am so terribly thin and bloodless. Can you advise something to put flesh on?"

Answer: "Yes I know of many who have added from 10 to 20 pounds by simply taking 8-grain hypo-nutric tablets for several months. I think you need this excellent tonic flesh promoting tablet."

Parents who keep their children at home to help in the housework and with the family washing have been warned by the Milwaukee authorities that these will not be considered valid excuses for keeping children out of school. The trust authorities have been ordered to be on the lookout for all such cases.

"There are no difficulties in the South that white men and black men, working together, can not settle," said Booker T. Washington, recently. "There is enough of wisdom, patience, Christianity, and common sense in the South to solve all the so-called race problems." In his trip through Virginia Dr. Washington urged the negroes everywhere "to grasp the fundamental things of life: to get some land; build a good home; start a bank account; become reliable and progressive in labor; remain in the South on the land; keep out of Northern cities; economize time and money; draw the line hard and tight against loafers, gamblers, and drunkards; and get an education which fits for service."

"My grandfather," said the old-timer, "used to put all his money in his stockings."

"Waal, things hain't changed much," said his old friend. "My grandson, who's taking a course in modern department at one o' them eastern colleges, puts most all his money into socks."—Judge.

MRS. LYONS' ANNUAL PIANO RECITAL A FINE SUCCESS

One of the finest piano recitals given in this city in a long time was the one given in the Colonial ball room on Fairfield Avenue Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock when the advanced pupils of Mrs. Florence Rehrig Lyons, assisted by Mrs. Frank Munich, soprano soloist, gave their annual closing recital. The program was an excellent one and all the numbers were well rendered. The Rhapsodie Hongroise by Liszt, played by Miss Florence Burton, was most brilliantly executed, showing splendid technique and interpretation, and the Sonata Pathétique by Beethoven, played by Miss Anna Huda, was also deserving of special mention.

The program as rendered was as follows:

- 1.—La Harpe Eolienne, Sidney Smith
Miss Julia Lattin. Singing
- 2.—Rustle of Spring, Aurilio
- 3.—Habanera (from Carmen), Lange, Op. 267
Miss Dorothy Leonard.
- 4.—Processional Marche (Duet), Ringuet
Miss Anna Tiekey, Mrs. Lyons.
- 5.—Polish Dance, Scharwenka, Op. 3
Mr. Otto Herb.
- 6.—Songs (Selected), Mrs. Frank Munich.
Accompanist, Mr. Stephen Rahrig.
- 7.—Polka De Concert, Bartlett, Op. 1
Miss Gertrude Lush.
- 8.—Sonata Pathétique, Beethoven, Op. 13
(2nd movement; Grave).
Mrs. Florence Burton. List
- 9.—Marche Hongroise, Liszt
Miss Anna Huda.
- 10.—Danza Delle Ore, Bellaballe from "Cenurio", Mr. Rahrig, Mrs. Lyons.
- 11.—Duet Angers, Blumenthal
Miss Florence Porter.
- 12.—Rhapsodie Hongroise, Liszt
(2nd movement; Lento Capriccio).
(3rd movement; Lento).
- 13.—Duet Angers, Blumenthal
(3rd movement), Frisko
(4th movement), Tempo Giusto Vivas.
- 14.—Marche Hongroise, Liszt
Miss Anna Huda.
- 15.—Danza Delle Ore, Bellaballe from "Cenurio", Mr. Rahrig, Mrs. Lyons.

NOT A LABORING MAN.

Tramp—Good morning, lady. I thought perhaps I might be able to get a bite here.

Mrs. Snapp—Certainly not!

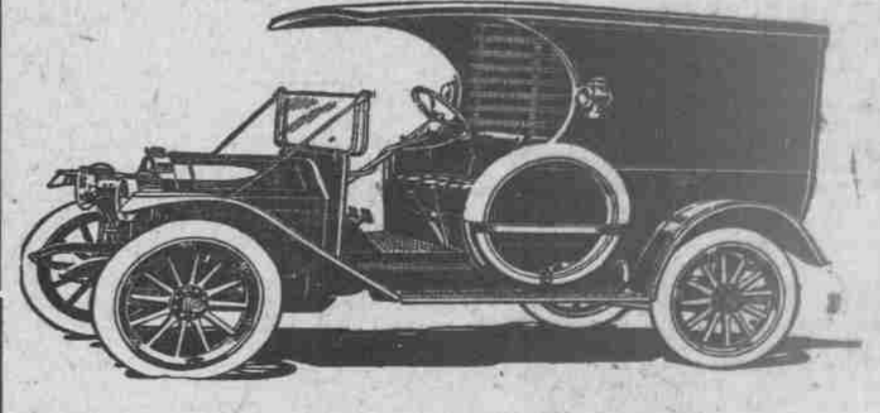

Tramp—Oh! then I am laboring under a mistake.

Mrs. Snapp—It strikes me you never labor under any circumstances.—London Opinion.

It will be strange if everyone cannot be suited at Radford B. Smith's sale this week. So many kinds of goods are advertised for Saturday, and at such low prices that it will only be because of the rush to get them and some things being sold out, that people can possibly be disappointed.
