CHICKEN PRISONER AT HEADQUARTERS ESCAPES FROM CELL

Chickens, collectively, are not the specialty of the police department but of late there have been many instances where their care has been compulsory. It has been the custom to keep stray fowl confined in one of the unused cell rooms until claimed, but it may now be considered that more adequate quarters should be supplied to better advantage during the high price of eggs.

WAGES INCREASE WITH REDUCTION IN WORKING HOURS

Bakers Take The Cake, According To Statistics Of U. S. Labor Department

Washington, Sept. 12.—There was a steady increase in the scale of wages paid to labor in this country in the past six years and this was accomplished in the face of a steady reduction in the working hours of labor, according to statistics published, today, by the department of labor. The figures are based on comparisons of union wage scale agreements, trade union reports and working contracts in central cities throughout the United States from 1907 to 1912.

REVENUE CUTTER OFFICERS STUNG BY SLICK FELLOW

Washington, Sept. 12.—A stranger who makes at least one call on prominent revenue cutters officers stationed in Washington, paid a visit, today, to Captain Berthoff, commandant of the service. The man, with apparent diffidence, threw a bag of peaches on the captain's desk and exclaimed, "One good turn, captain, deserves another. You gave me a quarter when I was hard up and I want you to know I haven't forgotten it."

BRANDY DEFINED BY POOR FOOD FEDERAL BOARD

Washington, Sept. 12.—Although the question "What is whiskey?" worried officials through three administrations, "What is Brandy?" was mere play for the federal pure food board. In a statement, today, the board declares that the alcohol distilled solely from the fermented juice of fruit, distilled under such conditions that the characteristic bouquet or volatile flavoring and aromatic principles be retained in the distillate.

FINNEGAN OFTEN HAD CHATTED WITH GAYNOR ON FARM IN ST. JAMES'

Among those in this city who will greatly mourn the untimely end of Mayor William J. Gaynor is Court Of. floor Christopher Finnegan who has met him on many occasions and who was an ardent admirer. Officer Finnegan, whose relatives have long lived close to the farm owned by Mayor Gaynor at St. James, L. I., was frequently a visitor in that section and recounts many pleasant conversations held with Gaynor in which not only farm topics were discussed but frequent references to politics showed that much disgust and enmity towards the crook and grafter were felt by the eminent jurist.

STIFF PRISON SENTENCE FOR GUILTY CRIMINAL

Waterbury, Sept. 12.—Declaring that crime of this nature evokes no sympathy for the person who is about to be punished for it, Judge Tuttle, in the superior court, today, imposed a sentence of not less than three years nor more than 10 upon George Edgerly Brower, who had pleaded guilty to statutory rape. The victim of the assault, Anna Johnson, aged 15, gave testimony.

APOPLEXY THE CAUSE OF CHAIRMANS DEATH

Joseph Chairmont, 19 years old, 1261 Sterling street, who was found unconscious in his bed yesterday morning and later died at St. Vincent's hospital has been found to have suffered apoplexy. Medical Examiner S. M. Garlick yesterday performed an autopsy upon the body and ascertained that death resulted from a ruptured artery in the brain. He had not been feeling well for several days.

HOWLAND'S

Entrances in Main Street, Fairfield Avenue, and Cannon Street. Bridgeport, Conn., Friday, Sept. 12, 1913. The Weather—Unsettled, rainy; clearing late tomorrow.

There are short bosoms among new fancy Yorke shirts.

Just to indicate how well the Yorke makers know what men like, here are shirts in best of the Yorke patterns made with short bosom.

Lots of men think it requires a bosom to make a shirt fit smoothly and properly. These shirts are for just those men—and the bosom is made short in order to give greater comfort.

Excellent stripes and figures upon white. Beside these, plenty of new pretty patterns in regular coat negligé style. Figures and stripes and plain white. Tailored expertly so they have the Yorke ability to fit.

Lot of unusual colors among them such as light blue and pale lavender. But then, Yorke shirts are always a bit out of the usual; that's why so many men like 'em.

$1 and $1.50 Right of Main street door.

Velvet ties hit men right.

Biggest success of the year are the new velvet ties for men.

They look rich. They are novel. Their colors are handsome. And patterns are wonderful illustrations of what good taste can do in the way of contrasts.

Some are entirely of velvet. Some combine velvet with silk. And there is great diversity of colors and patterns.

Rich knitted ties are as bright and handsome as the foliage of Autumn. Monotones are good, and rich, but some of the handsomest of all combine two or three colors in unique patterns.

It's no wonder men are snapping them up. 50c and up Right of Main street door.

Nice silken stockings cheap.

Just a little quantity and of such quality that the entire lot should sell in almost-no-time.

Pure fine silk with lisle top and sole, high spiced heel,—all of which adds to their durability.

Black and tan; a few in white.

Regular $1 sort—while quantity holds out,— 79c

New fine medium cotton stockings come hurrying in just in time for readiness with the cooler weather.

Nice and soft and strong, grateful as well as durable.

With double top and sole and with high spiced heel,— 25c 35c and 50c Left aisle, rear.

Soft and warmer Athena underwear.

Marked by the features which give it a comfort assured by no other, Athena underwear is ready in sensible weights and styles for Autumn and Winter.

It is so shaped that it fits snugly without discomfort and protects one at all times. It is finished with special gussets that lie flat and avoid discomfortable pressure. Low-cut vests and union suits are shaped so they will not slip at the shoulder. Sleeves of vests are so knitted that they do not slip up and wrinkle.

Light and medium weight vests and pants,—50c and 59c.

Union suits of medium weight, several styles,—$1 and $1.25.

Fine union suits with low or Dutch neck, some with elbow sleeves, knee or ankle length,—$2 and $2.25.

Merino vests and pants of fine quality, high neck with long sleeves or low neck with short sleeves or without any sleeves,—$1 and $1.25. Left aisle, rear.

FINE CHAUFFEUR $200 FOR DRIVING AT RECKLESS PACE

Edwin Smith, chauffeur for E. H. Hooker, a prominent member of the Progressive party in Greenwich, was fined $200 and costs in the common pleas court today for reckless driving. Judge John J. Walsh imposed sentence. It was charged that on July 17 last Hooker's car collided with a machine owned by Edith Curtis. In addition to the fine the court also suspended Smith's driver's license. On account of the bitter political feeling in Greenwich, Smith's arrest caused some excitement and a demand was made for the arrest of J. A. Lunny, driver of the Curtis machine. His case is still pending in court.

William Curran of this city, charged with selling milk diluted with water, was fined $150. The court suspended sentence after warning Curran. Peter Barry of Greenwich, charged with assault, was fined $50.

EXPECTS ARREST SOON IN $71,000 ROBBERY

Savannah, Sept. 12.—Officials of the Southern Express Company declared, today, they had evidence leading to the solution of the robbery of $71,000 in transit from the Chase National Bank, of New York, to banks in Savannah, Brunswick and Valdosta, Ga., and expected an arrest would be made soon.

Published Saturday, A Fool and His Money, by George Barr McCutcheon.

Everybody who read Graustark and who remembers Beverly and the Princess Yotive, everybody who enjoys a story full of romance and of action, in fact everybody who likes to read a real story will be interested in this new one of McCutcheon's. Of course, there is love in it. And there are dungeons and mystery—and a beautiful countess locked in an isolated tower. McCutcheon knows just what to do with all these elements of an absorbing story—and he has done it.

The story is delightful; is made more delightful by full-page illustrations in color by Keller. $1.30

MONACO'S PRINCE LEAVES FOR HIS HUNTING TRIP

New York, Sept. 12.—Prince Albert of Monaco, left New York, today, for a hunting trip in Wyoming. He took with him $1,000 worth of camping equipment which he bought on Broadway after his arrival here, last Wednesday. On his return it is understood that the Prince, whose hobby is oceanography, will meet several American scientists. His palatial steam yacht L'Hirondelle, which brought him here, will return to Europe.

MISS JULIA LATHROP, HEAD OF CHILD BUREAU OF THE UNITED STATES, IS FIGHTING THE WHITE SLAVE TRAFFIC

Pittsburgh, Sept. 10.—Among the women of national prominence who will take part in the three day convention of the National Federation of Settlement Workers is Miss Julia Lathrop, director of the national child bureau. She will tell of the work of her department. She is the first child bureau head, being appointed by President Taft. She has come in contact with the big problems of the country as affecting children. In connection with her work she has studied the white slave trade and may have something to say on that crying evil. Many other prominent experts on social problems will attend. Miss Lillian Wald of New York is president of the federation.
