

DEBS NOW LODGED IN JAIL.

TAKEN THERE BECAUSE HE WOULD NOT GIVE MORE BAIL. Howard, Kelher and Rogers, the Other Union Leaders Accompanied Him—They Were Carefully Searched, All Their Valuable Taken From Them and Were Then Placed in Cells. Chicago, July 17.—The reports that additional proceedings for contempt of court were likely to be taken by the federal authorities against President Debs and his associate officers of the A. R. U. filled the government building this morning.

HONORS TO THE YALE TEAM

THEY WERE TENDERED A BANQUET BY THE AMERICAN COLONY. Enthusiastic Speeches Made by Ambassadors Bayard and Others—Captain Hickok Says That Oxford Won Fair and Square in the Contests. London, July 18.—The American colony in London gave a Yale supper last evening in the Victoria room of the Criterion restaurant. The guests of honor were the Yale athletic team.

BLOWN TO SHREDS.

Miners Killed and Horribly Mangled by an Explosion. Hazleton, Pa., July 17.—The most horrible accident that has occurred about the mines in this region took place at 8 o'clock this morning. Two hundred sticks of dynamite exploded among a crowd of men who were preparing to their day's work.

BOSTON PLAYERS MOBBED.

PATRONS OF THE GAME DISGUSTED WITH THEIR ACTIONS. They Tossed the Ball Around in an Aimless Manner and Then Refused to Play—The Crowd Swarmed on the Field—Tucker Was Badly Injured. Philadelphia, July 17.—The patrons of the baseball game were treated to a disgraceful exhibition to-day, brought about by the conduct of the Boston players.

COLLIDED IN A FOG.

A Large Hole Was Stove in the Hull of the Cepheus. New York, July 17.—Two of the Iron Steamboat company's boats, the Cepheus and Cetus, collided off Norton's Point, Coney Island, during a heavy fog this afternoon.

TRIES TO KILL HIS FATHER

A DRUNKEN SON GETS THE CONSENTS OF A GUN. He was Founding a Young Man When His Father Interfered—He Knocked His Father Down, Got a Gun and Was About to Shoot Him When He Met His Death. Greenfield, Mass., July 17.—George P. Wentworth, aged thirty-one, residing on Northfield mountain, while under the influence of hard cider, attempted to strike his father, John P. Wentworth, with the butt of a repeating shotgun last night.

BUDLONG DEFEATS FOOTE.

The Yale Man Played a Better Game Than in the Afternoon. Manchester by the Sea, Mass., July 17.—In the second day's play in the Essex county invitation tennis tournament to-day Stephen C. Millette of New York beat Jack Howland of Yale 6-0, 6-8, 6-1.

WALKER'S DEFENSE

Counsel Walker, in behalf of the government, said that day after day these men had willfully violated the injunction directed against them.

ALLENBERGER IS SENTENCED

Katie Rupp's Slayer to be Executed on September 6. New York, July 17.—Bernard Altenberger, the murderer of Katie Rupp, who was found guilty in short order by a jury in Jersey City, was arraigned before Judge Lippincott in that city today for sentence.

NEW RECORDS MADE

Sanger Did Wonderful Work from a Flying Start. Waltham, Mass., July 17.—Six new world records were established to-day on the Waltham bicycle track.

LEACHMONT CLUB AT GREENPORT

Greenport, N. Y., July 17.—About 1,800 twenty-five of the Leachmont yacht club fleet appeared in Greenport harbor headed by the schooner yacht Atlantic.

WAS HONORABLY MENTIONED

Ware, Mass., July 17.—Miss Mary Morar, Miss Mary Fitzpatrick, Miss Mary Kane and Miss Marie Buckley, waiters at C. A. Stevens & Co's mill in this town, received diplomas of honor.

REWARD TO BE OFFERED

The Selectmen Have Power to Do So by State Statute. The strong desire on the part of all good citizens of New Britain to see the miscare or miscarriage who are now setting fire to barns throughout the city apprehended and punished has led the mayor to inquire into the matter.

FIRST TRAIN IN MANY DAYS

St. Paul, July 17.—The first Northern Pacific train from the coast for eighteen days arrived to-day. It left Portland on June 25.