

IS SUSTAINED BY SATOLLI

HE UPHOLDS THE RULING MADE BY BISHOP WATTERSON.

The liquor traffic is a source of much evil and all engaged in it cannot become members of any Catholic society...

This decision was called forth by an appeal from the ruling of Bishop Watson of Columbus, Ohio...

To many people in the diocese of Columbus this attitude of Bishop Watson seemed unjust...

To this second appeal the apostolic delegate has just responded...

"Bishops have the right and duty to guard faith and morals within the limits of their dioceses..."

"Second, the liquor traffic, and especially as conducted here in the United States, is the source of much evil..."

CLOSING ARGUMENTS MADE

LAWYERS FINISH WORK OF THE SWAYNE INVESTIGATION.

Attorneys W. H. Upton, Asher and Ely eloquently sum up evidence—Executive Action by the Board of Health To-night.

The arguments on the charges against Health Officer Wright and Clerk Bailey were heard by the board of health at the chamber of the board of councilmen last evening...

Now, the issue is what this board should do if these men are found guilty. The question is, Have these men been guilty of such conduct or done such things that their usefulness as public servants has been injured...

Now, what is the evidence? One thing is sure—Bailey received the money. No one has ever appeared to claim it. It has been in his possession from the time it was given him until now...

In court Alice said that she thought the old man was paying attentions to an older daughter.
