

HERALD CAMERA-MEN TELL THEIR STORY

PREPARE MEMORIALS TO DEAD

A plaque on the $500,000 navy and marine memorial now being constructed in Potomac Park, Washington, D. C., a model of which is shown above, will be one of several memorials to men whose bodies have just been recovered from S-51. Bell (inset) of the ill-fated submarine will hang in diving school of bureau of mines, Pittsburgh, as a tribute to divers whose work is responsible for raising of the craft.

FAME AND FORTUNE SEEK HER

Films, stage, model-seeking artists, are competing for services of Trude Brionne, just chosen as Austria's prettiest girl.

GREATEST PUTT IN GOLF HISTORY

Bobby Jones, American amateur and British open champion, sinking the final putt at Scioto, Columbus, O., which also gave him American open title, and made him first man to hold all three honors. It was just a tap, administered with a loving caress.

Wins Heiress

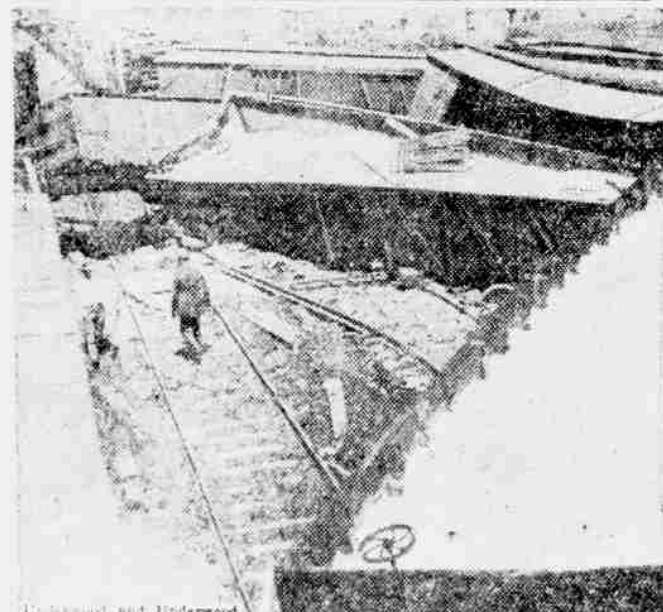

Joseph Wholean, department of commerce attache, will wed Washington's richest debutante, Beatrice Henderson, heiress to millions of Mrs. John B. Henderson, her grandmother, capital social leader.

BRAKES BREAK, TRAIN GOES IN DITCH

Living U. S. the Time

This K. W. tube transmitter is heard daily by hundreds of radio operators. It's sited at Arlington, premier U. S. wireless station, and is used to broadcast time signals.

Defective brakes are blamed for freight wreck on outskirts of Milwaukee, Wis., which tied up traffic for many hours. Photo shows where 17 cars were hurled into ditch.

Mussolini Today

Newest posed photo of Mussolini, master of Italy, belies reports of his serious illness.

New Ship Board Chief Is On the Job

A. C. Dalton, new president of U. S. shipping board, at his desk in Washington.

Born to Riches

This babe, fourth child but only son of Earl of Airlie, will inherit 60,000 acres and one of England's oldest titles. He is seen with his mother, daughter of Earl of Leicester.

Teacher and Pupil

Mrs. Florence G. Farley, Kansas' Democratic national committeewoman, is both teacher and pupil in party's school of politics in Washington. She teaches course in "Political Parties," studies in others.

BATHING GIRLS DEFY POLICE ORDER TO DRESS UP

Edict of Mayor Ralph S. Bauer of Lynn, Mass., that bathing girls must dress up in going to and from beaches, punctuated with threats to arrest and photograph all violators, is being openly defied by daring damsels, despite activities of police in plain clothes. Photos show some of the defiant maidens, and corner of Nahant and Ocean streets, near Lynn beach, where officers lie in wait for violators.

"TIGER OF FRANCE" LEAVES LAIR

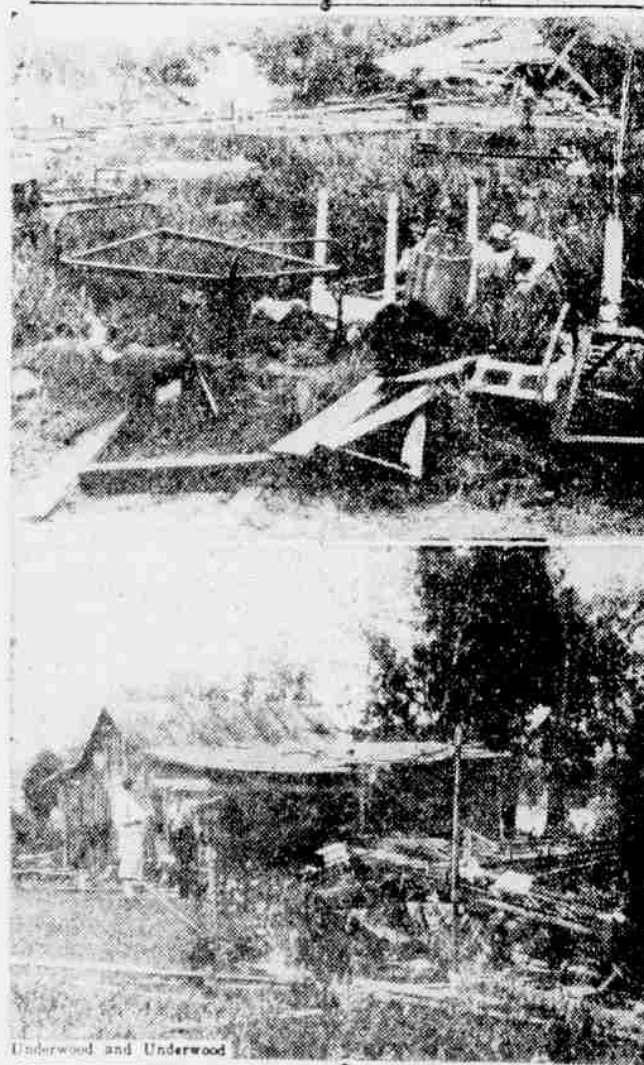

M. Clemenceau, "Tiger of France," is again showing his face outside of his retreat at La Vendee, France, having completed a two-volume work, "Civilization," for American publishers. He is seen with Lady Milner (left) and his daughter, Mme. Jung.

"Peter Pan" Weds

Nicholas Davies, who as a child, inspired Sir James M. Barrie, his foster-father, to write "Peter Pan," is honeymooning with his bride, Mary James, daughter of Lord Northbourne.

MICHIGAN CYCLONE KILLS THREE

Cyclone on island in St. Joseph river, near Buchanan, Mich., killed three persons and injured three others. Photos show how twister made splinters of houses. Lower picture shows only structure remaining on island.

"LEVIATHAN" ON AUCTION BLOCK

Shipping Board is taking steps to sell great government-owned passenger liners, including the "Leviathan," queen of Atlantic. Bids of less than $10,000,000 for "Leviathan," probably will not be considered.