

Suspects Arrested After Dynamiting of Bronx Courthouse

New York, May 7.—Between Jack the Ripper and the Boston slayers and ordinary murders the New York police are kept on the jump these days. Opinion is divided as to those who were to blame for the dynamiting of the Bronx county courthouse. Some say that anarchists placed the bomb while others declare that white slavers are to blame. Bronx county officials have been very vigorous in their prosecution of public slavers. The two men pictured here, Antonio del Gardio, a shoemaker, and Alphonse Moretti, a stone mason, were arrested in the crowd that gathered in the vicinity of the courthouse just after the explosion.

FAIRFIELD

(Special to the Farmer) Fairfield, May 7.—Little hope is held for the recovery of Patrick O'Hara, who was afflicted with a violent nervousness several days ago here. He is ill with another ailment and he will be operated upon in an attempt to save his life. O'Hara was taken to the MacFarland sanitarium after he first became ill. There he developed another illness and he was taken this morning to the Galen Hospital in Bridgeport for an operation.

There is a widespread belief that operating a lawn mower is a dangerous and athletic exercise for every one else.

Pick from many suits at saving.

Takes more than one busy day to make a big reduction in the fine lot of suits that got a new price this morning.

There were dozens of them; dozens and dozens.

No woman need fear disappointment, if she comes to make choice now.

All are this Spring's suits; from the store's regular stock; thoroughly tailored; handsome in trimming or else rich with beauty of fine fabric made up with no trimming.

Every rich and liked hue that Spring has brought in woolen suits is included. Plenty of Russian greens and Belgian blues. Plenty of the smart black-and-white checks. And those ever-correct blacks and navy blues are numbered in much variety of effect.

- $20 to $27.50 suits $30 to $35 suits
$18.50 $23.50
$37.50 $40 and better suits
$30
Second floor.

Make your Kodak keep its own record.

Autographic Kodak is a picture taker and a record keeper.

Right on the negative itself one indicates when where and of what or whom it was taken!

So simple that it can't fail to do its work. So sure that there is no chance for mistake.

Even the smallest Kodak, the Vest Pocket, is equipped with this autographic device. Sells for $5.

Three special autographic Kodaks, taking pictures from 2 1/2 by 4 1/4 to 2 1/4 by 5 1/2—$17.50, $20 and $22.50. Front basement.

Boys' new wash suits of clever style.

A Palm Beach suit for little boys is made in Russian style, of the genuine Palm Beach cloth.

The very firm, almost like mohair, cool and light. And it will wear well. Russian Norfolk style with two pairs of trousers.—$3.

A cool tasteful sailor suit has typical blouse and two pairs of trousers—one pair the regular long sailor sort with bell bottom. Pure white.—$3.

A dozen other clever new styles: Tommy Tucker and Russian and so on. Linen suits of white and color too. Front basement.

Strong comfortable couch hammock—$5!

Don't want to boast—But you may look a long time without finding such a hammock at the price.

The spring, set in a wooden frame, is of National spring webbing. It has enough strength so it doesn't give too much and it's flexible enough to be comfortable. The mattress is covered with denim; ends and wind-shield are of stout duck.

Chains for hanging it are part of the outfit. Price complete is $5. Third floor.

NEWTOWN BOROUGH AFFAIRS STILL ARE BADLY INVOLVED

Officials Disclaim Individual Responsibility for Failure to Call Meeting.

(Special to the Farmer.) Newtown, May 7.—Officials of the Newtown borough government are disclaiming responsibility for the unusual situation which has grown out of the fact that the annual borough meeting, which under the borough charter should have been held on May 4, has not been convened. Failure to have the meeting was due to the neglect of someone—and who is to blame is disputed—to post the legal warning of the meeting. The fact that the tax rate ordinarily is fixed at the annual borough meeting means that probably a special meeting will be called soon to handle this detail of the borough business. Yet there are some voters who maintain that this procedure will not be strictly legal. Charles E. Beardsley, the borough clerk, disclaims responsibility for the lack of notice for the annual meeting. He says it is unjust to tax him with negligence for the charter divides the responsibility for the posting of the notice among a number of the officials, and in no way directly puts it up to him. Mr. Beardsley presents the implication that he absented himself from his usual haunts when the voters, on the morning of May 4, sought him. He claims to have been at his home.

Suits with cut-out lining.

Copyright Hart Schaffner & Marx

It takes mighty-good woolen and mighty-expert tailoring to make a suit with cut-out lining that will stand up. They're here.

Some are quarter-lined, some are made with so little lining it seems as though they didn't have any.

Just a narrow lining across the shoulders—and every other part finished so coat could be turned inside out without creating a riot.

Wonderful comfort insurers! Sure victors in the fight with hot weather!

Light weight, of course. Either light or dark of color.

In Varsity and the other models that are making such a hit with Bridgeport men.

Prices start at $15; greatest variety at $20 to $25. Main floor, rear.

Rubber-sole shoes give men ease.

There's more than their snap to recommend rubber-sole shoes to young men. They give ease and comfort. A man feels that he can walk miles and never get tired.

Red rubber and white—with the white a little the cleverer.

Low shoes and regular, tan and black leather or white buck.—$3 $4 and $5. Near Fairfield avenue door.

No shirt at $1.50 quite equals Yorke.

Yorke shirts are clever pattern. They are fine cloth.

They are tailored so they fit—but they haven't a bit of extra cloth to bunch up and bother a man.

Splendid white madras, plain or with woven stripe, Fine white madras with combination stripes in color, Fancy patterns with either soft or stiff cuffs, $1.50. Right of Main street door.

LESS CONCERTS IN BIG PARKS IS PARK COMMISSION PLAN

Portable Bandstand Ordered That Music May Be Played Where Appreciated.

Poor attendance at the public band concerts in Seaside and Beardsley parks last year will mean fewer concerts there this summer, according to the program now being arranged by the Board of Park Commissioners. There will be a greater number of concerts in the smaller parks or the city.

Because of the reduction in the appropriation from $3,500 to $3,000, there will be a curtailment in the program this summer. The majority of the concerts will be held at Old Mill Green, Wood park, Yellow Mill park and in the West End. The concerts at these places have drawn much larger crowds than have these at Beardsley and Seaside parks and the Park Board feels that the public wants the change.

The increase in trolley and vehicular traffic in the neighborhood has made Washington park less desirable or holding concerts there.

To carry out this program, the Park Board has ordered from the Hodgson Brothers Company, in Revere, Mass., a portable bandstand that will arrive in the city soon. The bandstand is of such construction that it can be put together and taken down at short notice. It will accommodate 25 musicians.

It is planned to haul it around on the new auto truck the department has just purchased.

The first concert this year probably will be held about the middle of next month.

The Park Board is arranging or a fireworks display at Seaside park on July 4, similar to the exhibition last year which drew thousands of people and was the subject of general favorable comment.

Siam's pavilion, which was transported in 150,000 separate pieces from Bangkok, was dedicated at the Panama-Pacific Exposition.

Smart new hats-- $2.50 $3.50 and $5.

Found one of our dealers this week with quite a stock of good trimmings—and a few clever hats.

He was in a hurry to clear them all out.

They came here; our eager folks have been busily at work with them; Saturday they hurry forth to meet folks who know special millinery value.

White-and-black or black-and-white: the favorite of the hour.

Every shade of color that Spring has brought liking for.

Much variety of shapes both large and medium and small—for we added some of our own hats to those we picked up.

Nemo Week Special corset,—$3.

Nemo Week is celebrated by the offering of a special corset—a Nemo thoroughly in tune with the fashions of today, made of fabric that usually goes only into $5 corsets, and selling at $3.

'Tis a self-reducing model with no outside straps, light but very firm and comfortable.

It is claimed to be a great restorer of the figure which has been changed through the wearing of low-bust or topless corsets.

This is Nemo Week. It ends Saturday.

Bits of Byplay

By Luke McLuke Copyright, 1915, the Cincinnati Enquirer

Luke McLuke Says: The man who says he never has any fights with his wife is not always a liar. He may be a bachelor.

A woman will put in ten years in causing out an ornery thirty cent husband. But the day a trolley car or an automobile hits him and kills him she discovers that he was a paragon of virtue and values him at $30,000.

Nobody loves a fat man. But at that he is as popular as a skinny woman.

When daughter has company for dinner she tries to impress the company with her refinement by saying "cawn!" and "shawn't." But father keeps right on giving a sword swallowing exhibition with his knife and winds up by drinking his coffee out of his gaudier just as if there was no such animal as refinement.

No man objects to being chased by a woman unless she happens to be his wife.

An orator can spout for four hours and imagine that he had said a lot.

But an angry woman can say more than that with one glance of her eye. A fat woman always explains it by saying that the girls in her family are inclined to be a little stout.

After daughter has manicured her nails and washed her hair she is so fatigued that mother has to wait on her the rest of the day.

The same man who tosses a dollar at the waiter when he is down town is often the same lad who smacks one of the children because the child didn't bring back 4 cents change out of a nickel.

The ornery men may chew tobacco and hang around saloons. But they never borrow each other's hair when they want to go to the theater.

A man hates to admit it. But he isn't as polite to his wife as he is to other women.

Any time three females happen to meet for a chat the word "awful" gets a real workout.

There was a time when friend wife would go home to mother when she got tired of friend husband. But nowadays she goes out and buys a gun.

Before she gets him she trusts him with her soul. After she gets him she won't even trust him with his pay envelope.

And before he gets her he swears by her. After he gets her he swears at her. Farmer Want Ads. One Cent a Word.
