

DREAMS That Are True.

I dreamt we had an election on November 6, and one candidate was hired to run for president so as to make it easy sailing for the other fellow.

TO OUR PATRONS.

The Evening Democrat is now located in its new building, 71-73 Grand street, first door from Bank street.

CITY NEWS.

Three pounds sausage, 25c. Prime rib roasts, 12c a pound. Read Castle's prices for Saturday.

"The Sturgis Wager," an interesting detective story, will be commenced in the Democrat tomorrow.

The school officials are finding boys and girls by the score whom none of the enumerators happened to locate in their rounds through the school districts, and it is thought that in a short time 700 or 800 children will be added to the lists.

The funeral of Miss Della Lacey took place this morning from the family residence on Union street, with a mass of requiem at the Immaculate Conception church by the Rev. Father O'Brien and interment in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Axe Music

There's a ring about a well made, well tempered axe, that's pleasing to wood choppers.

There's a ring about a "Victor Axe" that's individual—it's the ring of axe quality.

They're extra thin, hand made, charcoal tempered, warranted—four features that have made them "the wood-chopper's friend."

They cost not more than "the take your choice" kind, $1.00.

Other brands of axes at other prices from 75c to $1—Bradley's, Mann's King of the Forest.
