WITH THE HORSES.

Resume of the Racing on New York Tracks and the Winnings.

New York Nov 19.—Now that the racing season of 1900 is history, we may glance at the results in a broad way, and as the world moves along the paths of finance and measures success by the volume of dollars, it may not be uninteresting to record that since April 15 last, when the racing began in this state, until November 15, when the curtain was rung down at Aqueduct, no less a sum than $1,232,000 was distributed among the winning owners.

The stable of James E. Keene heads the list of winners. Of the $111,357 was won by the great Commando, who was first in the victory of his six starts.

William C. Whitney is second on the list, with $92,545 to his credit—a most commendable showing. Of this $111,357 was won by the great Commando, who was first in the victory of his six starts.

Beau Gallant, while he reared in Sam Hildreth's colors, won $25,115, the major portion of which came from the Matron, and he ranks next, in the amount of money won, to Commando and Ballyhoo Boy, although he is closely pressed by Roundshot, whose early losses won him a high place.

Of the older horses in training Ethelbert holds the first position with $38,029 earned last season, with Kinley Mack closely pressing him with $25,775, and now third with $18,125.

The prizes fell to a large number of stables is shown by the fact that only six stables won more than $30,000, and that out of the six Ethelbert, for Perry Belmont, and David Garrison, for Pierce Lorillard, are responsible for their being at the list.

Two Yachts For Lipton. London, Nov. 19.—The Daily Chronicle, calling attention this morning to the fact that P. and W. Henderson, the builders of the Valkyries, "also are building a yacht with some secrecy," asks whether Sir Thomas Lipton can be building two.
