

TROUBLE ABOUT GRADE.

Webster School Property Said to Be Graded Too High. There is considerable faultfinding going on among residents of the North End about the grade of the Webster school property on Eastford avenue, which is said to be over a foot higher than the school officials intended it should be and that in order to right the blunder the whole place will have to be terraced over again.

WHITE HOUSE SHAKY.

President's Home in Washington Decried Unsafe. WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—There is considerable anxiety at the White House as to the stability of the building. An accident occurred there late Saturday night which has occasioned wide conjecture as to whether the old historic structure is in a general state of collapse.

CITY NEWS.

Michael J. Feeney, who was for years an employe of the Waterbury Clock Company, is now a resident of Washington, D. C., and connected with a large charcoal concern. The local branch of the International Order of Machinists will hold a special meeting in Elks' hall Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, and will be addressed by prominent speakers of the order.

Mary, the infant daughter of Mr and Mrs John Zebrosky of the Middlebury road, died this morning. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, with interment in Calvary cemetery.

Storrs Agricultural college will send her strong football eleven to Waterbury on Thanksgiving afternoon to do battle with the old '37 champion Y. M. C. A. team. There is no doubt but that the game will be a close and exciting one, as the college boys come to Waterbury with a long string of victories and it remains for the Waterbury team to break its long line of conquests.

Judge Cowell occupied all day in the district court hearing the suit of Nelsa Calabrese against Contractor Edward McManus for $5,000 damages. The plaintiff is represented by Attorney Russell and the defendant by Judge Bradstreet. A number of doctors were on the stand during the forenoon giving evidence of a purely technical nature. Calabrese claims to have received injuries while in the employ of and through the negligence of the defendant.

GERMAN GAMBLERS TRIALS.

Prominent Men in Berlin Face the Court for Gambling. Berlin, Nov. 20.—The second trial of the defendants in the charges of gambling at the Club Hartmann, before the Reichsgericht has annulled the acquitting sentence, began yesterday. One of the defendants, Herr Von Krocher, commander of an army corps and an intimate adviser of Emperor William, fled to the south, and the court ordered his arrest wherever he should be found. The principal culprit, "Gentleman" Wolf, this time was present.

MADAME BERNHARD ARRIVES.

New York, Nov. 20.—Among the passengers who arrived this morning by the steamer L'Antoine from Havre were Madame Sarah Bernhard and Constant Coquelin with their comedy company, consisting of fifty-eight persons. Madame Bernhard said she was glad to revisit this country, as she expects to write a great deal of comedy in her memoirs which she is now preparing.

COTTON GROWERS MEET.

Macon, Ga., Nov. 20.—The Interstate Cotton Growers' association convention was called to order here to-day by President Harvie Jordan of the Georgia association. Every cotton producing state was represented but Missouri and Oklahoma. The object of the association is to enable the farmers and bankers to co-operate that the immediate marketing of the crop may be prevented, and to arrange for the better collection of cotton statistics upon which the growers may depend.

TWO MORE ASPHYXIATED.

New York, Nov. 20.—An Italian laborer named Marino Pincenzo and a woman of the street whose name is not known, were found dead to-day in the Hotel Dede, an East side Raines law establishment. They had been suffocated by illuminating gas, which was escaping from a gas fixture. It is thought that the deaths were accidental, as both were intoxicated when they retired.
