

"Haven't Room On Our Floor For a China Closet."

How many times we have heard that statement. To meet that want we have added a number of styles of China Closets or Cabinets to hang on the wall.

Holders of government places who have no strong pull to fall back on...

Ever since the result of the election has been known, the trusts seem to be riding a higher horse than ever before. They look at the result of the election as an endorsement of their manner of doing business.

OF FEMININE INTEREST.

Lace is among the most fashionable trappings of the season. Mrs. Henry Fawcett, of London, is considered by many to be one of the best woman speakers in the world.

PROMINENT PEOPLE.

Few people are so kind to the autograph fiends as is President McKinley. Dr. Stanton Coit, the leader of the ethical culture movement in England, is an American and a graduate of Amherst.

HEARD IN PASSING

Senator Wolcott, of Colorado, will be succeeded by a democrat when he retires next March. The Tammany political association of Waterbury has organized itself into a joint stock company.

MUNICIPAL MATTERS.

It will cost $95,000,000 to keep New York city going during 1901. Charles S. C., is to have a fine new tourist's hotel, to be kept open the year round.

OLD WORLD CITIES.

The city of Berne, Switzerland, is making the socialistic experiment of building free--or nearly free--workshops for tailors and shoemakers. Stockholm, Sweden, has 40,000 telephone stations, averaging one for each household.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

A mass, with accompaniment of mandolins, has been written by Piacoso, director of the music school at Reggio, Italy. About one-half of the plays put on in London, during the present season have been either failures or of doubtful box-office value.

THANKSGIVIN' COMIN'.

Thanksgivin' is a comin', an' th' royal turkey bird. Is a roostin' mighty high an' feelin' blue; An' th' scizzlet of cranberry is a waitin' to be stirred.

GOSSIP OF LITTERATEURS.

It is said that $5,000 is the price to be paid Mr. Kipling for the serial rights of his new novel, "Kim of the Rishik."

FOOL ELECTION BETS.

A steer against the price of a coffin was the bet between two men on the result of the election. A meek Brooklyn man was enjoined by the terms of an election bet to get a jag on and then to lambaste his mother-in-law to a finish.

THE INDUSTRIAL WORLD.

During the year 1899 Switzerland exported $5,000,000 worth of cheese. A steamer was recently loaded in Danub with 250,000 bushels of flaxseed, valued at $48,000.
