TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1900.

In the case of Minister Conger, says a Washington correspondent, this government is presenting the extraordinary spectacle of keeping a man at his post, which is supposed to carry much authority and discretion, and at the same time proposing a scheme to the powers to absolutely ignore him.

"Whatever else is left undone, hurry with the army bill." That is the sum and substance of what Mr McKinley says to every prominent republican senator and representative who goes to the White House.

As the days go by and the Chinese war is no nearer an end, the difficulties over there are becoming more and more of a Chinese puzzle.

THE HORSELESS CARRIAGE. One thousand five hundred motor car licenses have been taken out in Belgium from January 1 to August 30.

THE HORSELESS CARRIAGE. Self-propelled lunch wagons are to be built at Worcester, Mass., where are the headquarters of this distinctively American institution.

A GORGEOUSLY BOUND. Work of art has just been issued at an outlay of over $100,000, for which the publishers desire a manager in this country also a good solicitor; good pay to the right party.

THE HOST OF "ALL SOULS." To the human soul, it is sweet to think that it quaffs no cup of pain. But the gentle lips of the Saviour drink Ere He bids His creatures drain; proposals, for the pacification of China and its evacuation by European troops evidently a game for delay.

HEARD IN PASSING

The people of New York city are reading the first part of the underground rapid transit lines in the increased accommodations and improvements afforded by the elevated roads.

Florida gave Bryan 32,736 votes in 1896 and 28,007 this year. The McKinley vote in the state was 11,288 in 1896 and 14,493 this year.

RATS AS PETS.

"As a matter of fact," says a courageous writer in the Boston Transcript, "the common rat is a vastly more intelligent creature than the squirrel or the average cat."

MILLIONS GIVEN AWAY.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering.
