Some Stray Leaves From A Reporter's Note Book.

"Did you have turkey for dinner?" asked a lady of a 4-year-old boy on Thanksgiving night.

A plump old Indian farmer, once on a time, so the story goes, was assigned to the duty of reaming, probably by mistake.

A Washington street butcher is the author of the following statement: "It has always been my luck to lock the stable door after the horse has been stolen."

Through the whole four days' trial of the Parsons case there was only one good laugh. No matter how somber or serious a law suit may be, there generally occurs a few laughs in it.

On leaving their homes for any time, no matter how brief, women should be careful to see that the doors and windows are well secured.

Judging from the number of ice plants that is being talked of, natural and artificial, we ought to be able to keep cool next summer.

MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT.

Josiah Quincy of Boston Talks at Cooper Union.

New York, Dec. 1.—Advanced theories of municipal government were discussed by ex-Mayor Josiah Quincy of Boston in Cooper Union last evening at a meeting held under the auspices of the Peoples' Institute.

As the great cities of the country are coming to exercise an ever-growing power and influence over the politics of the nation, the problem of American government in the twentieth century must resolve itself very largely into securing progressive government in those municipalities.

"Selfishness on the part of municipal employees is not wholly bad, for it exerts an improving influence upon the municipal government," he said.

BIG TUNNEL PROPOSED

From Europe to Africa—Will Take Seven Years to Complete.

Washington, Dec. 1.—The state department has received a report conveying further information as to the proposed tunnel from Europe to Africa, under the Straits of Gibraltar.

The cost of the tunnel alone is approximated at over $25,000,000, and of the entire connecting railway lines between Spain and Algiers at about $45,000,000.

The French press is said to criticize the project unfavorably, on the ground that Mr Berlier has overestimated the earning power of the road, and that it seems hardly credible that the passenger and freight traffic between France and Algeria could be diverted to this indirect and expensive route.

ATTEMPT TO HOLD UP CAR

Several Women Faint and Conductor Received Several Shots.

Chicago, Dec. 1.—A daring attempt was made last night by five men to hold up an Ogden avenue electric car at Randolph and Canal streets.

The interior of the car was wrecked. The windows were broken and the floor and seats splattered with blood. During the fight in the car several passengers whose names the police were unable to learn, received cuts and bruises.

POLICE COURT DOINGS

Harry Galway Had His Case Nolleed for Theft of Polo Stick.

Judge Br. Street held city court today. Judge Burpee being engaged in the Parsons case in the superior court.

John Tehan was charged with intoxication and theft of three umbrellas. Detective Caher testified that the owner of the umbrellas, a peddler, was crying on the steps of a saloon on South Main street over the loss of his goods.

A complaint against a small boy named Harry Galway for theft of a polo stick was nolleed.

Charges of drunkenness and breach of the peace were preferred against James Harry. This man was refused drink in a saloon near the Highland division depot yesterday and upon being refused he left the saloon and sent an old tin can flying through the window.
