KEEN CUTTING CARVERS

Thanksgiving time always brings little incidents that live long in your memory. There's one thing in particular it's sure to bring—the need for a pair of "Keen-Cutting" Carvers—not the ordinary kind, but the kind that will make the carving incident one of pleasure.

CITY NEWS.

Miss Alecia Derwin of Wall street has returned from a short vacation in Hartford. The Waterbury Stationery store, 201 East Main street, has the greatest selection for the season for the boys.

The board of aldermen will meet to-night for the purpose of considering the annual appropriations and to transact any other business that may come before them.

Friday evening, December 14, the Kimball school of music will give a faculty concert in their music hall at the following teachers: Miss Cullbert Buckner, soprano; Mr. Kells, baritone; Mr. Vanech, violinist; Mr. Cooke, pianist; Signor Tallarico, mandolinist; Mrs. Kimball, accompanist.

Cooking classes for members of the Friendly League will begin the second term of lessons on December 12 and 14. Those who wish to join these classes will please remember the dates and be ready to begin with the first lesson.

A meeting of the alumni of the Waterbury High school will be held at 8 o'clock to-night in the High school building for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year and of deciding something definite as to the holding of the annual promenade and ball of the alumni.

The funeral of Daniel Cahill took place yesterday afternoon from his late residence on Baldwin street with service at the Immaculate Conception church by the Rev. Father Broderick and interment in the new St. Joseph's cemetery. The bearers were James Dean, John Dean, Patrick Sullivan, Michael Crean, Thomas Barry and Daniel Foley.

The funeral of Mrs. Rose Hanley, wife of William E. Hanley, will be held to-morrow morning from St. Edward's church, at Stafford Springs, of which the deceased was an active member. Mrs. Hanley was held in high esteem.

The Rev. Father Slocum of Waterbury preached a sermon last Sunday morning, which a Waterbury news "fakir" took up and magnified into a eulogy of Dick Croker and other Tammany hall leaders, and a denunciation of Bishop Potter and his crusade on vice in New York.

A daughter was born last evening to Mr and Mrs Dennis Delaney of 26 Sperry street.

The probate court appointed Patrick Carroll administrator of the estate of the late Mary Carroll to-day.

The remains of Mrs. Charlotte Cota, of East Main street, who died Saturday, were taken to Cheshire to-day for burial.

The difficulty between Constable Edward J. Donahue and Frank Baumgartner which arose over a collision between their cars on Bank street several weeks ago has been amicably adjusted without the intervention of the law.

The Friendly League will give their usual Christmas treat to the poor children of the city who would otherwise have no share in the season's good cheer. A tree with a gift for each child will be provided and the league members will prepare many things themselves.

50c Each.

We have cut up all our Remnants of Damask and Tapestries (best grades) some two-thirds of a yard long, others 30 inches long, plenty large enough for seat or back of chair or for extra large pillow tops.

Beginners in housekeeping will be interested to know that we carry the largest and most complete line of Carpers, Mats, Mattings, Linoleums and all kinds of Floor Coverings to be found in the city.

Our prices are always the lowest, while our workmanship is the best, and our goods cost you no more than the cheap kinds. Our Furniture Department is as complete as it is possible to make it.
