

FIGHTS AND FIGHTERS.

Bouts To-Morrow Night Will Attract a Big Crowd.

Tickets Are Selling Well And The City Hall Should Be Crowded—John L. Sullivan Has a Good Opinion of Ruthlin—Several Bouts Which Took Place Monday Night—Gans's Manager Was In The Fake—First Bouts In New Britain Last Night.

The demand for seats last evening at the box office of the City hall for the boxing carnival to-morrow night was most encouraging to the promoters... Tickets are selling well and the City hall should be crowded.

of Brooklyn and Alf Levy of New York in the third. Special interest attached to the show for the reason that it was the first of the kind in New Britain, and was given in the face of strong opposition on the part of many of the sports men of the city and the clergy.

MONDAY NIGHT'S BOUTS.

In Yonkers, N. Y., the twenty-round contest between Eddie Lenzy and Jack Hamilton went the limit, and was the hottest ever witnessed in any ring contest there.

ELKES IN FORM.

Harry Elkes, the star member of the winning team in the six-day race, was out on the Madison Square Garden track yesterday behind motors, and a stranger watching him trail his pace never would believe that he had just ended a six-day's grind.

JOHN L.'S OPINION.

Though Maher and Ruthlin failed to knock each other out in their six-round bout at Philadelphia on Monday night, those who saw the mill declare that had it come to a finish Ruthlin would have won.

JONES PUT TO SLEEP.

Arthur Jones was put to sleep by Jack Lowery of New York in the thirteenth round of a fast fight before the Passaic County A. C. in Paterson, N. J., on Monday night.

VARDON BACK TO ENGLAND.

Will Vardon, the greatest golfer of the age, who has put in almost one year of record-breaking golf in this country, will return to England on the Mauretania of the White Star line.

WRESTLING TO-NIGHT.

New York, Dec. 19.—What bids fair to be an interesting evening contest will be held at the Grand Central Palace to-night.

TIGERS' FOOT BALL RECEIPTS.

Bridgeport, Dec. 19.—The statement showing the receipts and expenditures of the Yale-Princeton foot ball game, which was played here on November 17, was given out yesterday.

NEW BRITAIN BOUTS.

New Britain, Conn., Dec. 18.—There were three six-round bouts before the National Athletic club in this city last night and each was declared a draw.

He Will Be In The Game To-Night Against New Haven—Springfields Will Remain In That City and Play In City Hall—Talk of Transferring Two Teams From Meriden to Meriden and New Britain—Waterbury Was Beaten In Hartford Last Night.

POOR MERIDEN.

New Haven here to-night. What a blow that must have been to Meriden, to lose the Springfield aggregation and then to have the play fall through.

Higgins and Whatnough are to come out of the wilds, and the first will go to Clinton and the second to Salem.

Portland is having hard work to get a rusher. That is all Manager Sullivan wants, but he wants this little ball.

What a snap Waterbury has had with Meriden to be sure. She has met her seven times and is said to be Meriden quite sure down to a defeat.

If the directors of the National league will now get a hustle on they can make this league a hummer.

Here's two of Doc's dreams: It looks now as if the predictions that have been made regarding the Maine league not lasting until January 1 would not be fulfilled.

Portland has offered Russell $70 a week but get money doesn't seem to talk up in Maine.

Springfield ought to get the biggest kind of crowds up in that Massachusetts city from now on.

There was a change about in the polo league last night. Instead of Springfield dropping out the management in that city has engaged the City hall.

Manchester, Dec. 19.—The Morse polo team defeated the Manchester club in the State league series at the armory last night 13 to 5.

New York, Dec. 19.—An all-around sporting show, such as is entirely unknown in this city, took place at the Grand Central Palace last night.

The program of the evening opened with a couple of vocal selections by Max Baer, the champion.

BASE BALL NOTES.

In securing Short Stop Elberfield and Pitcher Stevens from the Detroit club, Manager Hanlon of the Boston club.

Boston, Dec. 19.—President A. H. Soden, of the Boston baseball club, says that the statement issued by the committee of the Players' Protective association on Sunday impressed him as temperate and sensible in tone.

The optional clause was inserted in all contracts at the suggestion of the judge who decided that the old reserve clause did not restrain a player from jumping his contract.

Troy, Dec. 19.—James H. Devlin, who at one time was a prominent pitcher in the National league, died at his home in Lansingburgh last night.

A Warning Note.

The faintest echo comes at first. It's a strange warning not heard, but felt. Day by day it increases if you heed it not.

Waterbury people are learning how. Learning that DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS never fail. Here's another Waterbury case to prove it:

Mrs Thomas W. Judd of 690 North Main street says: "For 20 years I suffered from kidney complaint and female trouble, as some call it.
