

DAILY GRAPHIC REVIEW OF NEWS EVENTS

SPLendid AERIAL VIEW of Parliament houses in London.

(Int'l News Reel.)

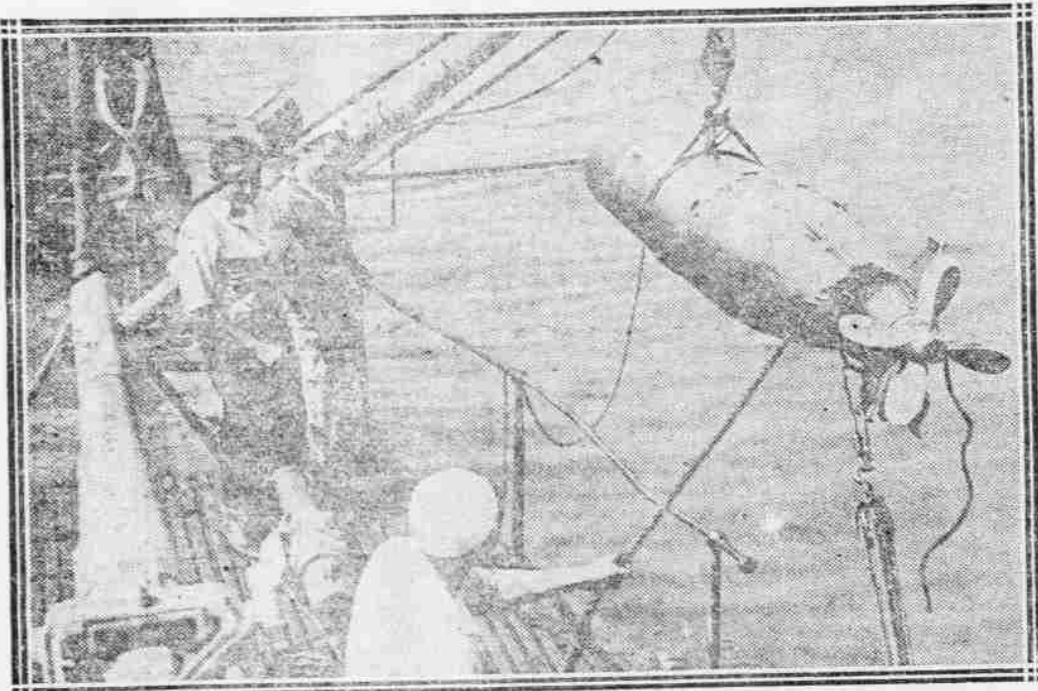

UNITED STATES MARINES, on duty in Virgin Islands, inspect Bluebeard's Castle, above Charlotte-Amalie, on island of St. Thomas, by tradition home of bloodthirsty pirate, but declared by historians to have been built for legitimate purposes.

(Int'l News Reel.)

GALLI-CURCI is initiated into Camp Fire Girls, who gave her name of Cantewaste, which signifies Singing Heart.

CREW OF UNITED STATES SUBMARINE R-8 recovering the dummy torpedo fired at target during manoeuvres off California coast.

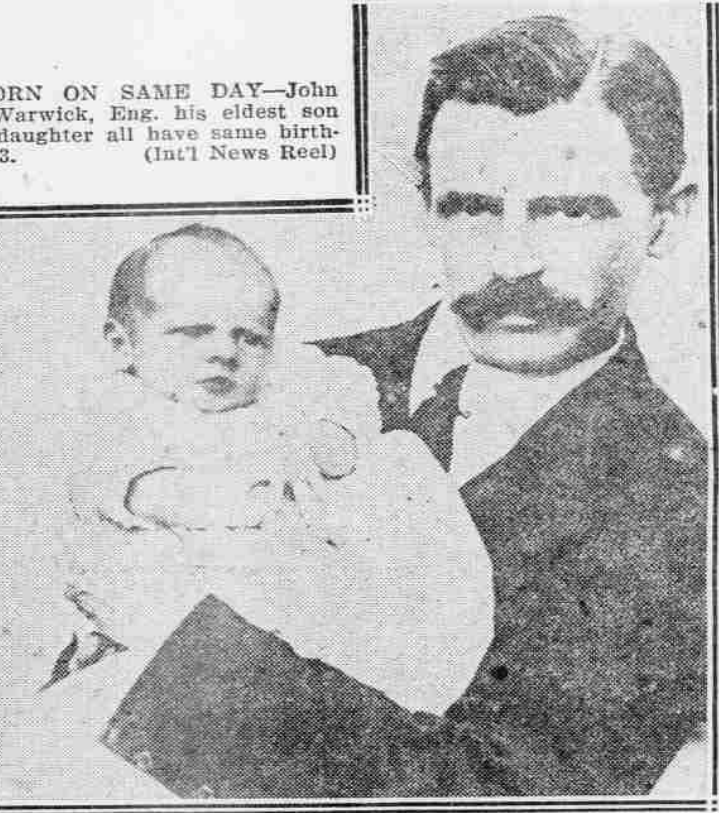

HONOR TO WORLD WAR HEROES will be paid at Albany, N. Y., with placing of great historic painting in new Hall of Fame in State Capitol. Work is being done by William Leftwich Dodge.

MISS HARRIET PRATT, daughter of vice-president of Standard Oil Company, is on world tour.

ALL BORN ON SAME DAY—John Wild, of Warwick, Eng., his eldest son and little daughter all have same birthday—July 3.

"KATIE" OFF TO NEAR EAST—Katie (above), attached to British artillery battery, got warm farewell from soldier comrades as she went with guns to Dardanelles.

AUGUSTO C. DE ALENCAR (right), Brazilian Minister to United States, was recent caller on President Harding.

GABRIELLE CARAZZA, Minister of Public Works in Mussolini's Fascist Cabinet in Italy, immediately reduced number of railway trains to cut public expenditures and abolished passes.

HOT DOG! THAT'S FELIX!—Felix (left) is dog mascot of Chicago fire company, participating in every fire and being rated as best "smoke eater" of 'em all. He is shown in recent Stock Yards fire.

INKWELL IN WHICH GENERAL GRANT AND GENERAL LEE dipped their pens to sign terms of surrender at Appomattox Court House, Va., on April 9, 1865, was given by General Grant to James Talbot, his orderly. Upon his death, four years ago, it became property of son, whose wife, Mrs. Grace Talbot, of Chicago, is holding it.

MISS HARRIET PRATT, daughter of vice-president of Standard Oil Company, is on world tour.

"KATIE" OFF TO NEAR EAST—Katie (above), attached to British artillery battery, got warm farewell from soldier comrades as she went with guns to Dardanelles.

AUGUSTO C. DE ALENCAR (right), Brazilian Minister to United States, was recent caller on President Harding.

MRS. A. BARTON was defeated in race for British Parliament.

WHITE-FRONTED MUSK OXEN (right) have just been brought from Greenland to Bronx, New York, Zoo. They are midgets, being about size of collie dog.

