JOHN MORIARTY, President of the Waterbury Furniture Co.

Affairs About Town. SUCCESSFUL BUSINESS LIFE.

Among the successful business firms of Waterbury, is the Waterbury Furniture Co., of which that wide-awake gentleman, John Moriarty, is president and manager. The enterprise shown by Mr Moriarty in business, has been of the successful kind. Before it was generally known in Waterbury that the pin company were to vacate their great factory and move to Waterbury, Mr Moriarty had begun negotiations for the property. This great factory, located at 135 to 169 East Main street, is now a great furniture warehouse. It was connected with the street by a large addition, which is the main show room of the company. Before one enters the building the eye is attracted by the handsome front with its elegant signs. It is said to be the handsomest store front in Waterbury. The main display room as you enter is unique and attractive. Here are displayed samples of the most costly furniture, such as Waterbury people were obliged to go to New York for years ago. Next we come to the private offices of Mr Moriarty. A representative of THE BEE was escorted through the establishment, the other day, and enjoyed a chat with the general proprietor. There is literally floor after floor covered with everything one can think of in the furniture line—elegant parlor suits, desks, tables, stoves, crockery, glassware, baby carriages, mattresses—in fact, if every article was enumerated it would consume the column of space. To illustrate the energy Mr Moriarty has, it might be stated that the factory was vacated March 15, and the formal opening was held on June 10. This opening by the way, was a notable occasion. In connection with the opening a banquet was served in the factory, at which were present Mayor Sargent of New Haven, the leading citizens of Waterbury and many prominent people throughout the state. It was a brilliant occasion, and one that reflected great credit on Mr Moriarty. An excellent likeness of Mr Moriarty is given in connection with this article. The announcement of the Waterbury Furniture Co. in our advertising columns will be perused with interest.

AMONG THE ISLANDS OF THE SOUTH PACIFIC.

In no part of the world has the planting of mission stations been attended with greater perils and nowhere has more genuine heroism been displayed than in Micronesia, the groups of islands that dot the map of the South Pacific seas. Augustine, the first emperor of Rome, boasted that he found Rome brick, but he left it marble. Well may the missionaries of the cross who braved every hardship to carry the gospel of Christ to these faraway coasts boast that they found these islands the abode of cannibals, but they left them the abode of a happy, industrious, Christian people. The story of the wonders wrought will be briefly told at the missionary meeting to be held in the Congregational church, Sunday evening, August 19, at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr and Mrs Chaffield of Woodridge have been spending a few days with her aunt Mrs L. A. Barnum. Miss Jennie Perry has been the guest of her aunt in Hopewell for the past week. Mr and Mrs L. C. Taylor and family of Bridgeport visited his father, O. C. Taylor, recently.

Mrs A. E. Bevans spent one day last week with her brother, William Comstock, of Danbury.

A. James spent Sunday with his nephew, Jesse James of Hawleyville.

John Berendt has been spending a few days with his grandfather, Peter Behn.

THE BEE BUZZ.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE BEE.] The proverb says: "He that justifieth the wicked, and he that condemneth the just, even they both are abomination to the Lord." The object of government is the punishment of vice and crime and the protection of the innocent in the enjoyment of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. There is no greater wickedness, therefore, than that which perverts the government and makes it a means of the corruption of the people. When a man is elected by the people to administer the government of the town or the state, every voter who is a factor of the government delegates his authority to his representative and ruler, and is responsible for the support of the government which is his government, not only because he helps to make it, but because it governs him, or he governs himself by it. The government of a town is an agreement of the voters of the town as to how their affairs and interests shall be administered and as to who shall administer them. The town is governed in part by its own laws and in part by the laws of the state of which the town is a factor in the government. The state is also governed in part by its own laws and in part by the laws of the United States, of which it is a factor. Finally, all laws are based on the supreme law of God. The moral law, as revealed to Moses and as interpreted by our Lord Jesus Christ, is the foundation of all law and government, and in fact is the very law of our created nature by which we must live. Nothing, then, can be more sacred than good government, for it belongs to God and is of the utmost importance to men. Is there any doubt in the mind of any sane man that lying, theft, murder and adultery are sins and crimes against God and humanity, and that in the nature of the case they do such things are the enemies of society? What, then, can be said of the man who, having been chosen by the people to protect them against vice and crime and to promote the virtue and happiness of the community, is found to have been bribed in the interest of the wicked, so that the guilty goes free and the innocent are injured. Verily, it is an abomin-
