

IF we only knew who was going to be our next governor couldn't we make a nice year's salary quick? But we don't know.

IF we were only sure that Mr. C. C. C. was going to be elected senator from the old sixteenth, couldn't we win a whole lot of money? But we don't know.

IF we only knew why they neglect making a law which would compel Chief Snagg's driver to go through the streets to a fire as though he was sane, but we don't know. But we do know such a law should be put in force right away quick.

IF our Waterbury "cops" who went to Hartford last week only knew what a picnic was in store for them; but they didn't know. But they will know next time.

IF we only knew which automobile was the safest we'd get one; but we don't know. But we do think they are all pretty sure "kill me quicks."

IF the lady of the house only knew how much she annoys the man of the house by buying cheap trashy tea and coffee, just because the price is low; but sometimes she doesn't know. Then again she does know, but she doesn't care a "rap" because she thinks she's a foxy quillier because she saves a few cents. But she doesn't, because the real cheap tea and coffee tastes bad, makes the family feel mean and sometimes causes sickness. But

IF you purchase tea, coffee, buttermilk and baking powder at our store there'll be happiness in the house as sure as you are born. Remember

Amy A. Russell, aged 73 years, died this morning at the home of her sister, Mrs Marietta Scott, 12 Brewster street. The remains will be taken to Wallingford for burial Monday.

The Eagles this afternoon placed on exhibition in a window of the Strobel Jewelry Co $3,500 in gold, the main attraction at their fair. The coins are arranged to form the initials of the society.

The claims of John Lynch, the well known trolleyman, and Oscar Erickson, police officer, for recent disabilities, were promptly paid this morning by C. Horgan, district manager of the Continental Casualty Co of Chicago.

To recover a sum of $400, loaned Nicholas Tehigrals has brought suit against Harry Macareas through Attorney F. P. McEvoy. The defendant runs a candy store at 322 East Main street and an attachment has been made and a bond given.

The board of public works met yesterday afternoon and talked over the matter of appropriations for next year. Nothing definite was done, but all were in favor of keeping things down as low as possible so that the vote of taxation may be as low and lower if possible than it was on last year's list.

Antonio Collanto for theft of a bag of oats from a railroad car yesterday was fined $5 and costs in the city court to-day by Judge Peasley. The continued case against Vito Perello for running a Sunday club on the Watertown was settled for $50. Mrs Helmina Iles charged with assaulting her landlord Alex Riehl in the latter's apartments at 19 Grand street had sentenced suspended.

Upson, Singleton & Co's simple shirt, "two shirts in one" stiff bosom and negligee, look at them.

Universalist services Sunday at 10:30 a. m. Preaching by the pastor, Rev W. F. Dickerman, D. D. Subject of sermon, "The Sear and Yellow Leaf. Bible school at noon. An illustrated lecture on "Conceptions of Death by Great Sculptors." This will be a rare treat to all lovers of fine art, and a help to those who need a more cheerful view of human mortality. Place of meeting, corner of North Willow street and Wildwood avenue. All are cordially invited.

New regulations for the transportation of explosives, inflammable articles and acids issued by the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad company, which are effective October 15th, 1908, are of importance to shippers, as it is now required that packages be marked showing contents; inflammable articles, liquids and acids in addition to be labeled. Information as to the kind of color of labels to be used on the various consignments may be obtained upon inquiry at the freight station.

The estate of Mrs Annie Powers over which there was so much to do a few weeks ago has been settled, the appeal to the superior court having been withdrawn. Mr Powers died in Matteawan, N. Y., and left an estate consisting of cash and about $6,000 in realty in Waterville. Her heirs were her sisters, Mrs Peter Burns of Waterville and Mrs Anna Fitzgerald, a resident of the Channel Islands in the English channel, just off the coast of France. It was her claims as an alien to the property that made all the trouble and threatened to take the matter to the highest court in the country. The settlement made is agreeable to all concerned.

State College Notes.

The Connecticut Agricultural college has an enrollment this year of 149 students. Owing to the lack of accommodations in Grove cottage several girls could not be admitted. Three out of state students number thirty-five, many of whom come from New York. The college also has several foreign students, one coming from Ecuador and another from India.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL.

Events of Interest to Many Waterbury People.

The choir of St Thomas's church will resume their whist parties, on Monday evening in the basement of the church. Whist will start promptly at 8:30 p. m. Dancing all evening. Music by Chaput's orchestra.

The annual state meeting of the D. A. R. will be held at Bridgeport on Thursday October 29. Luncheon is to be served at 12:30. Exercises will start promptly at 1:45. All members of the local chapter who expect to attend are requested to notify Mrs R. R. Stannard so that sufficient number of luncheon tickets may be secured. The railroad will make special rates on that day.

A very pleasant party was tendered to Miss Esther Cooney at her home on Hamilton avenue last evening by a number of her young friends. During the evening Miss Cooney was presented with a handsome gold watch, Master Joseph Brennan making the presentation. Piano selections were rendered by Mrs J. F. Brennan, the Misses Irene Mulville, Helen Slavin, Margaret Cooney and Esther Cooney. There were many singing and dancing numbers by those present. Supper was served at a late hour, after which the party broke up, wishing the hostess many happy returns of the day.

The members of St Mary's Hospital Aid society wish to publicly express their deep gratitude to all those who so generously donated their time, money and supplies to the supper on October 14, thus making it a grand success. An acknowledgment will be made later in the hospital report. The dishes yet unclaimed have been removed to St Patrick's hall and may be obtained from the president, Mrs Sarah Hayes, on Monday evening before the opening of the regular meeting at 8 p. m. All persons holding tickets are earnestly requested to make a return at that time in order that the committee may balance accounts and make a report.

Two weeks from last evening the reception and dance of the Algonquin club is to take place at Buckingham hall. Nearly all preparations have been made for the event and the members expect to make it the banner event in the history of the club. In former years the affairs given by this organization have been largely attended and were considered among the best dances of the season. This year the members will not be found wanting and they promise to outdo all former efforts. The hall will be in excellent condition for the affair and every little detail which tends to make such affairs enjoyable will be attended to. Gallipeau's orchestra will furnish special music for the occasion.

A Sure Way to Save Money Is to Spend it CAREFULLY
Extravagance means not only buying unnecessary things and thus wasting money, but in paying unnecessarily high prices for things really needed. No one with the inclination to make comparisons needs to pay for an article more than is necessary. It is a simple business proposition to find out, by comparisons, where you can buy most advantageously. Come in and let us prove to you that this is the place. Everything for Housekeeping.
