

DETAILED AND BRAWNY IRON WORKERS WILL PRESENT TO THE PRESIDENT A PLATE OF GUNS AND ANOTHER TO THE LAUNCHING OF THE BIG BATTLESHIP U.S.S. CONDOR

Idea Quietly Worked Up by Employees of Union Iron Works and Design Made by Committee From Their Own Number

Citizens' Banquet Will Be Held in the Ladies' Grill Room of the Palace Hotel, the South Coast--She Will Remain in the Harbor During the Presidential Welcome

WHEN President McKinley visits the Union Iron Works to witness the launching of the battleship which is destined to bear the name of his native State he will receive from the hands of the workmen a magnificent testimonial of their esteem. It will be a gold plate of invitation to the launching of the Ohio. So quietly did the employees of the institution which sent forth the Oregon arrange their plans for presenting to the head of the nation a memorial worthy of preservation that not even their employer was aware of their intentions.

When the President reaches the iron works' wharf on the morning of the launching he will be met by a deputation of the workmen and escorted through a column of men standing four deep 1000 feet in length to a platform erected for the occasion where the presentation speech will be delivered and the token presented. The iron workers will have entire charge of the ceremony and the orator who will make the presentation will be chosen from their number.

The plate, which is being made at Shreve's from plans drawn by a committee from the workers themselves, will when completed be a truly magnificent affair. It will cost close to $50 and will be composed almost entirely of California gold. It was at first intended to have it set with diamonds, but as diamonds are not a production of the Golden West they were excluded from the design.

The plate is surmounted by a golden eagle, flanked by the national emblem and the bear flag of California. In one corner is the shield of this State and in the other that of Ohio. Occupying the central position is a representation of the battleship Ohio guarding the Golden Gate, the ship lying between Lime Point and Fort Point, both of which are shown in the engraving.

His Majesty's ship Condor is now on her way up the coast from Valparaiso and will be in the harbor here during the week of the President's stay in San Francisco. It is probable that her officers will be given a place in some of the public functions of the week. The Condor, under the command of Commander Beresford, at the bombardment of Alexandria, and in that engagement she earned the praise of the admiral in command by the splendid work which she did.

It has been decided definitely that the citizens' banquet will be held in the ladies' grillroom in the Palace Hotel. A. A. Watkins, chairman of the banquet committee, called a meeting of the committee yesterday afternoon and the result was the decision mentioned.

The question has been hanging fire for so long that it was blocking the progress of the other arrangements and it was found necessary to arrive at some conclusion without further delay. The grillroom will seat four hundred and fifty and the question to be considered was whether that number would be sufficient to include all who would wish to come at $3 a plate. Acceptance came in with such rapidity at first that it was thought four hundred and fifty would soon be reached, but the committee finally decided that number would be large enough for any banquet and so chose the Palace ladies' grillroom as the place.

The other arrangements of the banquet will progress rapidly now that the place has been decided upon.

Through the general plan of welcome and entertainment for the President and his party is being worked a series of lesser entertainments to individuals of the party, to members of the Ohio delegation and to distinguished visitors from other States who will be present during the time of festivity. Twenty-two Congressmen from Ohio are expected to come West with Governor Nash, and these will be entertained by the Union League with Governor Nash and his staff and the Governors of Oregon, Washington, Nevada, Utah and Colorado, who will be here. In fact the Union League will keep open house for the whole week of the President's visit and every night some distinguished guest will be entertained. The League has issued the following announcement of its banquet:

Dear Sir: The Union League Club will entertain the President and members of his Cabinet at a luncheon at the clubrooms, Palace Hotel, Saturday, May 11, 1901, from 1 to 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The luncheon will be confined exclusively to members of the club. Please sign and return enclosed card of acceptance at your earliest convenience, and not later than May 11, 1901. Seating will be laid for those only from whom acceptance has been received and to whom tickets have been issued. The banquet will be held in the ladies' grillroom. Seats at the luncheon will be issued in the order of receipt of acceptance, and seats at table will correspond with numbers upon tickets. The sum of $1.00 to pay the expenses of reception must accompany acceptance. Tickets may be had by applying to the secretary at the clubrooms. Very truly yours,

GEORGE D. CLARK,
President, Union League Club.

The ladies of the Ohio Society met last evening in the residence of Mrs. Mary L. Mozart, 124 McAllister street, to become acquainted with each other and with the newer members and to discuss plans for the part they are to take in the general scheme of entertainment. The meeting was called by Mrs. Mozart.

The Missouri Society will tender a reception to Secretary of the Interior E. A. Hitchcock Friday evening, May 11, in the parlors of the Young Men's Christian Association building. The Secretary is a Missourian and the local society intends to make the reception a characteristic one. The rooms where the reception is to be held are to be tastefully decorated. A programme will be rendered, speeches will be made and refreshments will be served.

will mingle with quantities of flowers in the street decorations.

A peculiarly appropriate scheme of street decoration will be carried out in Old Monterey. From the entrance to the town on the Del Monte side the President and his party will pass through the arches of school children will stand to greet the President in the same graceful manner and in both towns the youngsters are undergoing careful training for the part they are to play in the great event.

The management of the Hotel del Monte will make elaborate preparations for the entertainment of the distinguished guest and the exterior of the house as well as the lobby and main corridors will be handsomely decorated with flags and other national emblems. All the plans are not perfected as yet and will not be, Manager Junker says, before the end of the present week.

The entire programme as at present formulated is as follows:

The President and party will arrive at the Hotel del Monte at 2 a. m. on Saturday, May 11, and will remain in their special train until after breakfast. At 10 o'clock the party will be driven around the famous seventeen-mile drive in six-in-hand taly coaches and will be received on the way in Monterey and Pacific Grove by the reception committee of citizens. Returning to Del Monte the party will have luncheon about 2 p. m. At 3 o'clock Troop C, N. G. C., a committee of grand officers of the G. A. R., the Supervisors of Monterey County and the Mayors and Common Councils of Monterey and Pacific Grove will wait upon the President to escort him to Pacific Grove, where he will meet the veterans of the G. A. R. in closed session. At 4 p. m. the session will adjourn and the President will ascend the platform of the floral pavilion and speak very briefly to the assembled multitude, which he will return to the Hotel del Monte.

If the President attends church on Sunday he will probably again visit Pacific Grove, the only Methodist church hereabouts in this city.

being successfully pushed, and there promises to be a large attendance of automobiles in the races of May 14 and 15. The manager of the locomobile company and the president of the San Francisco Automobile Club are in San Jose to-day making arrangements for the entry of the club as a whole in the races and in the illuminated parade. Orlando Stevens, the official director of athletic sports, has arranged that a banquet shall be given the visiting automobilists at the Lamole House on the evening of the 14th. They will be regarded as the guests of the Garden City wheelmen and the carnival committee, and plans will be matured for their comfort.

Arthur Adams and Tom Spillane, president and chairman of the Associated Cycling Clubs, have notified Mr. Stevens that the Olympic Club wheelmen will be here in force. Stevens is communicating with twelve different bicycle clubs and all have promised to send large delegations to participate in the parade and races.

The carnival benefit meet has been postponed until the sixteen-hour race, two hours a night, has been run at Sacramento. It is expected that a better class of entertainers may be secured. After the Sacramento meet all of the professionals now here will come to San Jose and begin training for the carnival races.

Redlands will be the first official stop of the Presidential party in California, and thousands of people, irrespective of party affiliations, are looking forward to the arrival of the distinguished visitors with an unusual degree of pleasure. Many people are offering assistance in decorating the city or in doing anything that the local committees may suggest.

One old cattleman of the Jeffersonian faith, residing in Arizona, a native of Alabama and a veteran of the Civil War, has offered to contribute five beeves if an old-fashioned barbecue would be held in honor of the President. The offer has been declined with thanks.

Already at this early date hotel accommodations are at a premium. Applications from scores of people prominent in every walk of life are being daily received by hotel proprietors asking for accommodations. Governor Gage and his staff, the legislative committee headed by Speaker C. W. Pendleton, Congressman James McLachlan of Los Angeles for the California Congressional delegation, and Senators Thomas R. Bard and George C. Perkins have already engaged handsome quarters at the Casa Loma Hotel for the occasion. The President will arrive in Redlands at 9 o'clock a. m. from Arizona. He will take his departure for Los Angeles at noon, making an stop at the city.

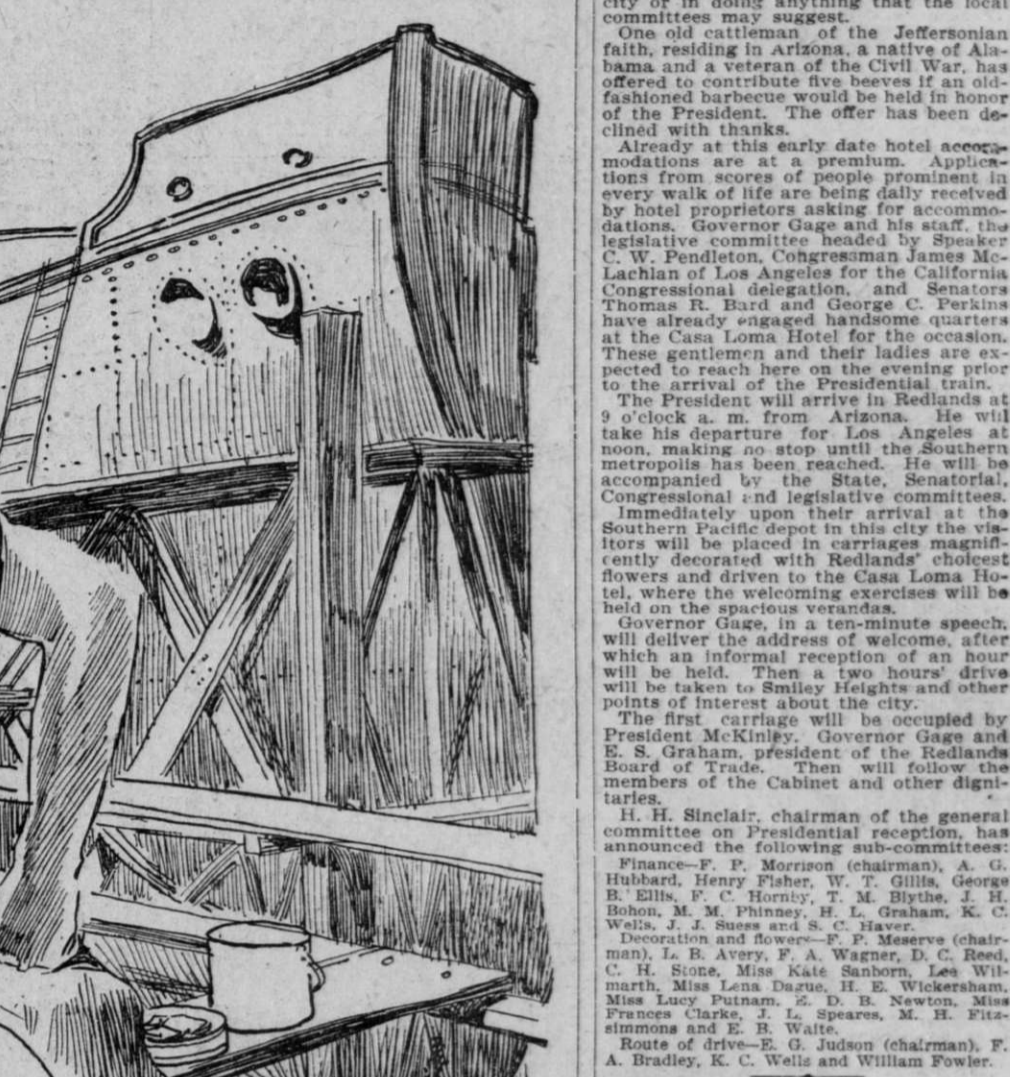

The first carriage will be occupied by President McKinley, Governor Gage and E. S. Graham, president of the Redlands Board of Trade. Then will follow the members of the Cabinet and other dignitaries.

Los Angeles Carnival Season Will Lend Its Interest.

LOS ANGELES, April 25.—The President will see the fiesta parade in this city. It will be new to him and to the majority of his party. The finances of the fiesta are still short $500, but that will be made up and the opportunity of Los Angeles to make a fine show for the entertainment of the Presidential party will be improved. Architect John P. Kreppe has presented plans calling for two immense grand stands to be built in front and in the park by the side of the City Hall. One of these stands will accommodate 500 people and the other 400. In front and in the center of the largest stand will be placed the Presidential reviewing stand. To the left and six feet away will be the present stand. The music committee has arranged for seven bands in the floral parade, two bands in the reception parade, one to play three hours for four nights and two months.

STANFORD STUDENTS WELCOME

Visitors to Be Driven Around Farm and Received at University.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, April 25.—Preparations are being made to give President McKinley and his party a royal welcome when he visits Stanford University next month.

It happens that the day of his visit, May 14, is a university holiday in memory of Leland Stanford Jr. Thus the students will be free from university work and will have the time necessary to make preparation for the event.

The details of the programme have not yet been settled upon, though President Jordan has appointed a committee of five students to look after the undergraduate share in the reception. The committee consists of C. M. Marrock, president of the student body, who is chairman, and the presidents of the four classes. W. M. Parkin represents the seniors, A. E. Cooley the juniors, C. A. Narramore the sophomores and W. C. Wood the freshmen.

The citizens of Palo Alto have appointed H. Charles Gardner, F. L. Maguire and J. R. Parkinson a committee to confer and work with the committee of students from the university.

Frank Covey, superintendent of the Palo Alto Stock Farm, has offered to supply carriages to drive the Presidential party through the celebrated farm and stables. On the return from the drive President McKinley will visit the university buildings and address the students in the large Assembly Hall. Further than

REDDING'S PREPARATIONS.

It Will Make the Most of a Stop of Ten Minutes.

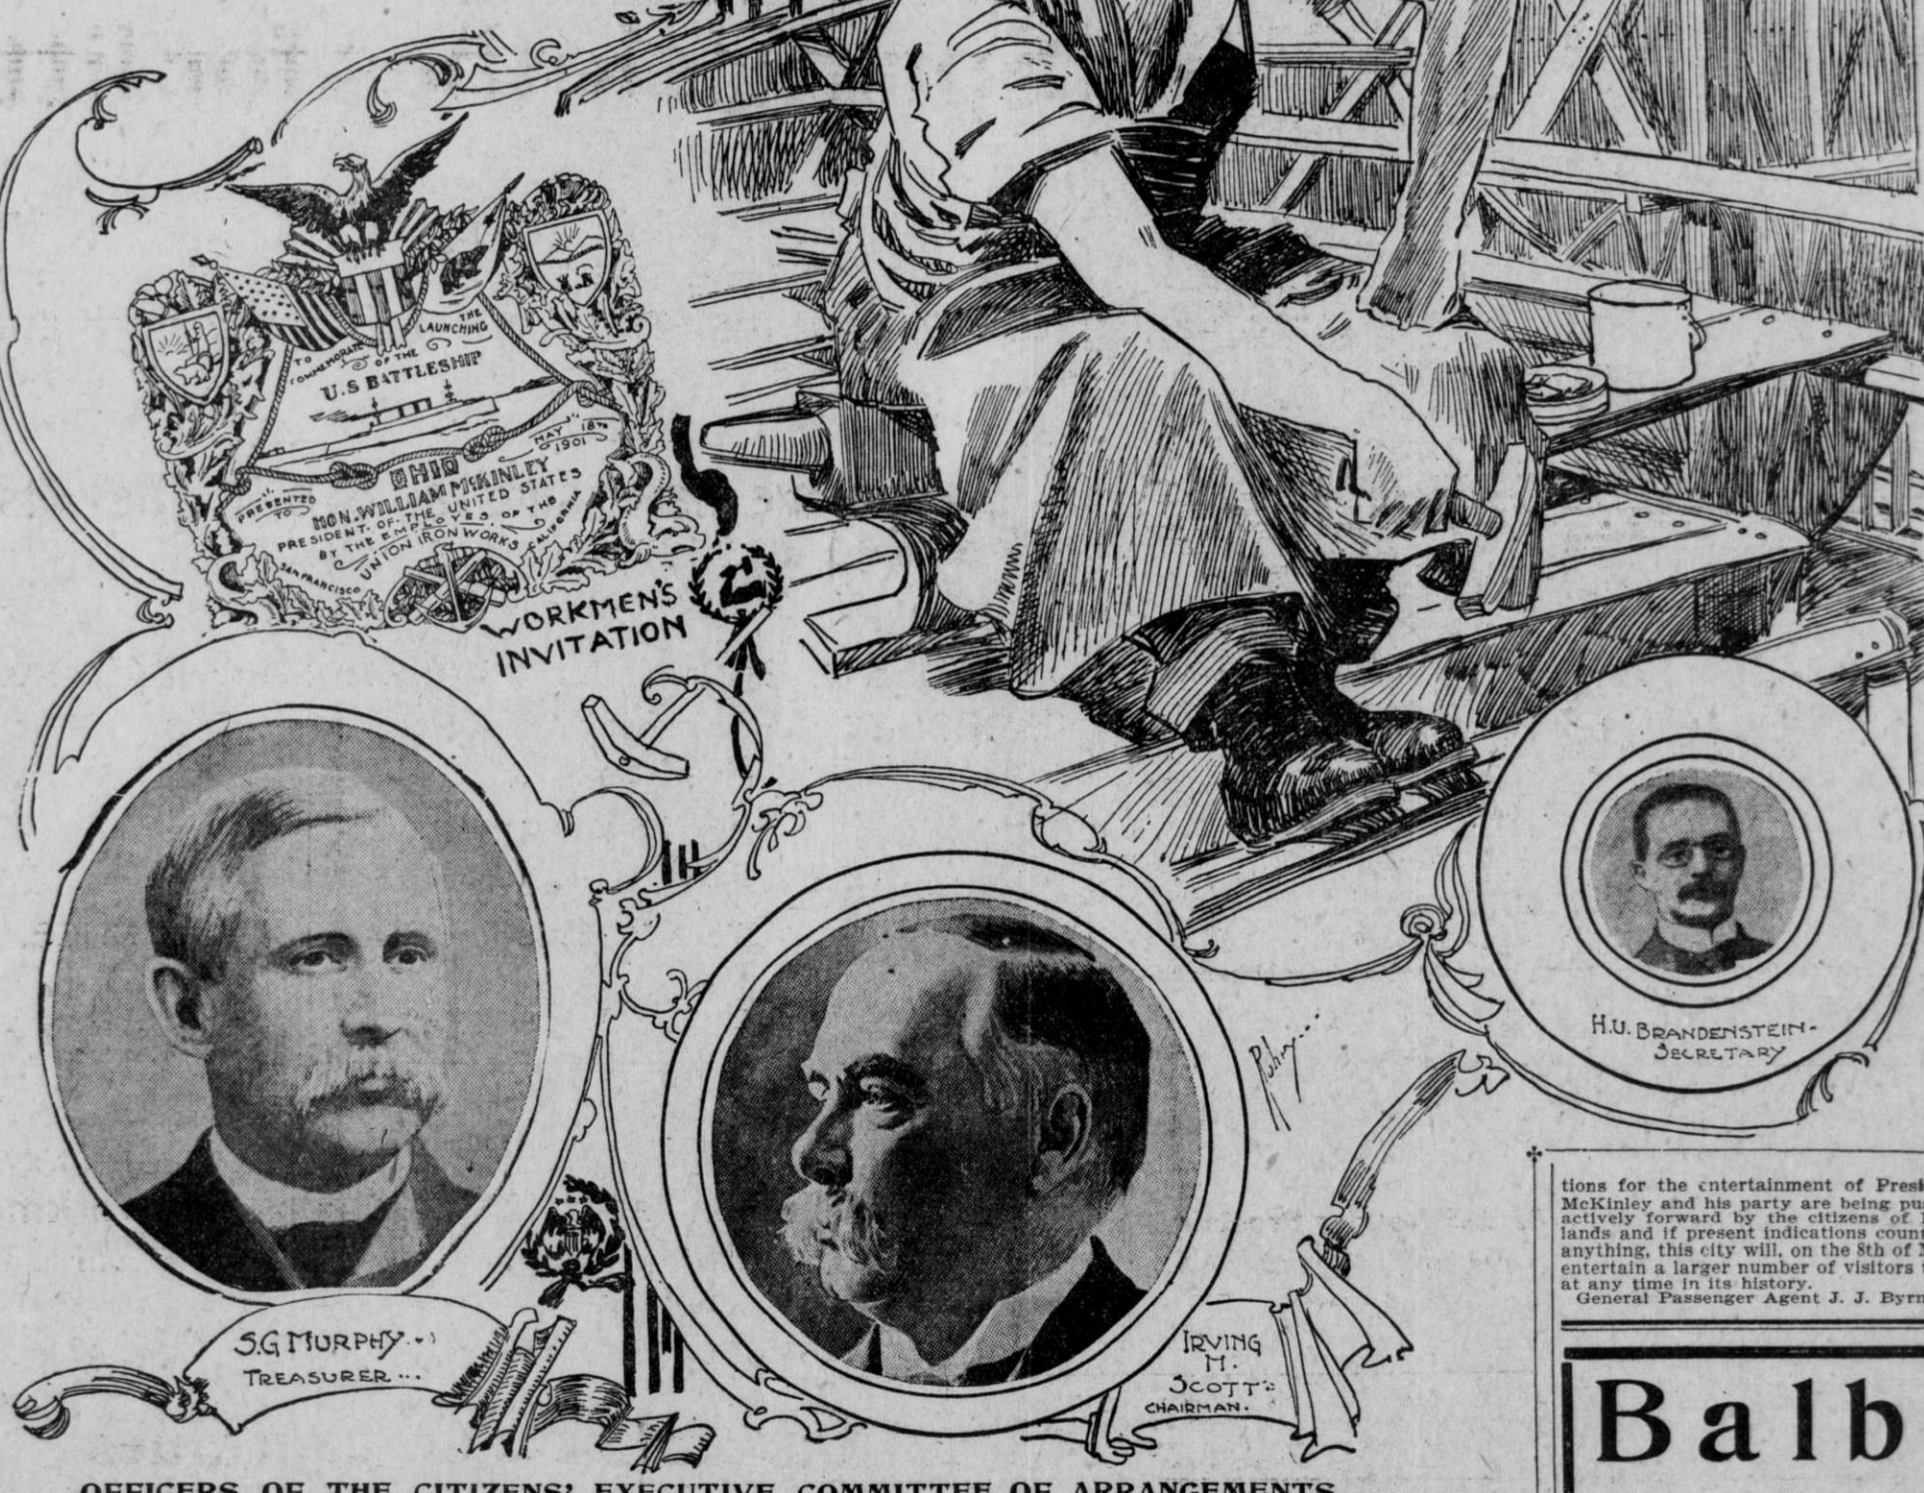

REDDING, April 25.—The committee in charge of the reception to President McKinley in Redding intends to see that the President is well treated and that he receives a good impression of this city during his ten-minute stop on the morning of May 21. The committee appointed to attend to the details of the reception of the President is composed of the Mayor, the Judge of the Superior Court, the presidents of all the political clubs and representatives of other bodies. At a meeting of the committee various sub-committees were appointed. One on invitation is to see that all lodges turn out in bodies and that residents of all Northern Californian towns are invited to be present. The committee on decoration will see that the depot and its surroundings are tastefully adorned. Another committee is to provide music for the occasion. W. D. Tillotson, president of the Shasta Ohio Society, has selected the great President McKinley on behalf of the citizens to ask the Executive for a brief address. M. E. Eldridge, Constable of Redding Township, will be marshal of the day.

KNOX WILL NOT GO.

Neither He Nor Mrs. Knox Will Be With the President's Party.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Attorney General Knox has announced that neither he nor Mrs. Knox will be of the President's party on its tour through the West. Mrs. Knox is not now in Washington and she is not expected to return there until May 1, at the earliest.

Prosperity has ruined more men than poverty.

PLANS OF PACIFIC GROVE.

Day's Sightseeing and a Speech to the Veterans.

PACIFIC GROVE, April 25.—Arrangements for the reception of President McKinley and his party by Pacific Grove and Monterey are nearly complete and all that remains to be done is to put the decorations in place and to arrange accommodations for the immense crowd that will, it is expected, flock here on the two days of the President's visit. Special trains will be run from Santa Cruz, Watsonville, Hollister and Salinas to bring people here on Saturday, May 11, and it is expected that fully 10,000 people will avail themselves of the opportunity to see the Chief Executive of the nation. Salinas will cooperate with Monterey and Pacific Grove in doing honor to the President and the present plan is that several leading citizens of Salinas will act on the reception committee here. Troop C, N. G. C. of Salinas, the crack military organization of this section of the State, has been chosen to act as escort to the President from the Hotel del Monte to Pacific Grove, where he will attend the Grand Army session and afterward address the assembled people from the floral pavilion that is to be erected especially for the occasion in the park of El Carmelo Hotel.

The decorations both here and in Monterey will be very elaborate. Valuable prizes have been offered for the best designs for store fronts and residences. Plans will fly upon every building in both towns and the national colors—in streamers, Venetian masts and other designs—
