The Election!

THE RETURNS GREAT DEMOCRATIC GAINS.

The Ring Beaten in Eight Wards! Arrest of Colonizers and Repeaters. The Street Commissioner Arrested.

The City Election. A QUIET CONTENT AND A LARGE VOTE DEMOCRATIC GAINS—ARREST OF COLONIZERS AND REPEATERS—THE COMPLETE RETURNS.

The City Election for assessors and Ward officers took place in this city, on Tuesday, and was closely contested, causing quite a large vote to be polled.

The Election, however, was a quiet one, no disturbances of any account occurring at any of the Polls.

As was expected the Ring made a desperate fight, and had their repeaters and colonized negroes in every Ward.

In the Third Ward, Street Commissioner David H. Coyle was arrested by Officer Woodward, for aiding and abetting John Haggerty to vote illegally.

Warrants were also issued by Esquire Haggerty, as follows: For Simon Washington, col., on complaint of Z. McD. Roberts, for voting illegally in the Sixth Ward.

For Thomas Shay, on complaint of John L. Richardson, for repeating—having voted in the Second and Fourth Wards.

For James Tighman, col., on complaint of Hugh Sweeney, for voting in the First Ward, and being a resident of the Third.

A negro named Joseph Tad, tried to vote in the Tenth Ward, and could give no satisfactory account of his residence.

Below will be found the full returns: ASSEMBLY.

The Election.

THE RESULT AS CAN BE READILY BE SEEN, IS A COMPLETE TRIUMPH FOR THE DEMOCRACY.

IN THE THIRD WARD, notwithstanding the fact that our candidate was not the strongest man we could run, Mr. Bicket developed a really wonderful strength.

THE DEMOCRATS IN THE FOURTH, SIXTH AND NINTH WARDS, did nobly, and deserve great credit for their efforts.

THE RESULT IS ENTIRELY SATISFACTORY—LAST YEAR THE REPUBLICAN MAJORITY IN THE CITY WAS 820.

IN THE SEVENTH WARD, just before the polls closed, a colored man attempted to vote the "Reform" ticket, but was dragged away by the black hirelings of the Ring.

IN THE AMERICAN CLUB ROOMS, a joyous crowd of Democrats received the news of their great victory.

WHEN THE RETURNS WERE DEFINITELY KNOWN, a band was brought out, and followed by a large crowd, serenaded the successful Democrats.
